

Blood donation opportunities in June and July

Itemizer-Observer staff report
DALLAS — The American Red Cross will offer three blood drives during the second half of June and first part of July in Dallas. The first will take place

Monday from 12:30 to 6 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church, 879 SW Levens St., Dallas. The second drive will take place on June 21 from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at Dallas City Hall, 187 SE Court St.,

Dallas. A third drive will happen on July 3 from 6:45 to 11:45 a.m. at Dallas Aquatic Center, 1005 SE LaCreole Dr., Dallas. Appointments can be scheduled by calling 1-800-773-2767. To prepare to give blood, a good night's sleep, eating a nutritious meal and drinking plenty of fluids is highly recommended. The donation process takes about an hour to complete. According to the American Red Cross, about three percent of the U.S. population gives blood. New blood donors are needed, especially during the summer months because many schools, where blood drives are often held, are not in session. For more information: www.redcrossblood.org.

POLICE REPORT

Information for the police report comes from law enforcement agencies. Not all calls for service are included. The status of incidents reported may change after further investigation. Individuals arrested or suspected of crimes are considered innocent until proven guilty.

Lorraine M. (Rowland) Wells

Dec. 14, 1924 – Dec. 1, 2016
A lifetime Idaho and Oregon resident, Lorraine M. (Rowland) Wells, 91, died Dec. 1 under hospice care at the Boise Overland Court Senior Living Center due to dementia. She was born Dec. 14, 1924, in Boise to Ralph and Sophie (Heinrich) Rowland, the fourth of five children. At age 5, the family moved to McCall in their model A Ford via the crooked, narrow dirt road from Boise to rejoin other family members. Afterward, she and her family lived there for many years before she moved to Oregon. Lorraine was preceded in death by her husband, Frank Wells; parents, Ralph S. and Sophie E. Rowland; brothers, Leonard and Edward Rowland; sister Alta Fairchild; and son-in-law Russell Huskey. She is survived by her sister, Fay Fincher; and sister-in-law Agnes Hieb; five children Roger (Denice) Clyne, Kay Huskey, Tom (Barbara) Clyne, Cindy (David) Williams and Darla (Roger) Hemmert. Additionally, she is survived by 17 grandchildren, 25 great-grandchildren and eight great-great-grandchildren. Lorraine was a devoted mother and grandmother who possessed a strong work ethic and was a dependable employee from an early age. She proudly completed her G.E.D. in midlife while working as a school cook in Monmouth, where she retired in 1987. She was multi-talented and at an early age became an expert seamstress on a Singer treadle sewing machine, which allowed her to make clothes for many family members and acquaintances. On one occasion, she even reupholstered the family couch by herself. Annually, she and her mother labored in the hot summer kitchen to can many jars of food for use during the long Idaho winters. She was also known for remembering family members' birthdays and sending money along with grandchildren's birthday cards. Church was an important aspect of her life, where she sang in the church choir and played in the bell choir, plus regularly volunteering to assist with numerous church activities. Throughout her life, she was a dedicated volunteer whenever her assistance was needed. Her talents led her to not only participate in numerous church activities but also to commit years of service to the Monmouth-Independence Food Bank as well as the Blood Bank where, in addition registering donors, she donated literally gallons of blood over decades. Long-term interests for Lorraine included sewing, embroidery, music, reading newspapers, magazines and books, daily walks, gardening and marveling at the beauties of nature. As she requested, Lorraine's remains were cremated and will be interred near her parents' graves in the Bell Cemetery near McCall. A graveside service will be held on Monday, June 26 at 2 p.m. at the Bell Cemetery where many family members are interred. For further information, please contact Roger D. Clyne (907-299-4747). In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to hospice in the location of your choice. Arrangements are with Heikkila-Carver Funeral Home, McCall, Idaho.

Jack McElravy
April 29, 1928 – June 9, 2017
Jack McElravy was born in Wolbach, Neb., on April 29, 1928, and passed away in Salem suddenly from cardiac arrest after a long battle with heart disease on June 9, 2017. Jack was a 1945 graduate of Monmouth High School. In 1953, he graduated from Northwest Christian College in Eugene and was an ordained minister. Because of his minister and judge status, he "married and buried" many people in the greater Monmouth and Independence area.

Jack held many jobs in his lifetime, but is best known for serving as city manager for the city of Independence in the 1960s and 1970s. He also served as municipal judge of Monmouth and Independence and was active in many civic organizations in the community. Jack loved participating in and watching sporting events. He was a referee and umpire in the Salem area for many years. In 1953, he was on the AAU State Basketball Champion team playing for "Everybody's Drug" from Eugene. They went to the National Championship in Denver, Colo., and placed fourth in the nation. That same year the Eugene All-Star Team, of which he was a member, played against the Harlem Globetrotters. In 1946, he married his high school sweetheart, Pauline Elkins. They divorced in 1977. He married Ellie Turner in 1978. Jack and Ellie owned and operated a Monmouth restaurant "Captain Mo's." Jack also sold life and health insurance. After Ellie's death, Jack married Patty Pedigo in 2006. Survivors include his wife Patty; his children Sandra Schukar (Fritz), of Monmouth, Steve McElravy (Ann), of Monmouth, Linda Spansail (Craig), of St. Helens, Sue Brungardt (Rick), of Goodyear, Ariz., Jan Daher (Jim), of San Diego, and Rena Peck (Forrest), of Monmouth; stepchildren Shirley Davis (Rick), of Mesa, Ariz., Lori Coffman (Rob), of Eagle Crest, and Melinda DeRochier (Mike), of Redmond; 21 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; and four great-great grandchildren. He is also survived by his sister Donna Wessel (Irvin), of Gates; niece Sharon Pointer (James), of Monmouth; and nephew Pat Manley, of Alaska.

Jack was preceded in death by his wife, Ellie McElravy; parents, Rex and Ruth McElravy; brother, Doane McElravy; and great-grandson, Jackson McKibben. A celebration of life will be held at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, June 20, 2017, at the Green Villa Barn, 3215 Independence Highway, Independence, OR 97351. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a contribution to Central Youth Sports.

Obituary Information

Obituaries cost $8 per 25 words and include a photo and flag for veterans. Obituary information must be submitted by 4 p.m. on the Monday before publication to be included in the newspaper. Most funeral homes handle obituary information and provide it to the newspaper. Obituaries submitted by private parties must be prepaid. Color and black-and-white photos can be submitted, but photos will only be published in black and white. Death notices — like all information submitted to the news department — are subject to editing for style, content and length. Information can be brought or mailed to the Itemizer-Observer, 147 SE Court St., Dallas, OR 97338, or emailed to ionews@polkio.com. For more information: Emily Mentzer, 503-623-2373.
