Carol D. Ellis

Dec. 24, 1950 – Sept. 2, 2017

Carol D. Ellis, a resident of Dallas, passed to her Heavenly Father Saturday, Sept. 2, 2017, in Salem.

Daughter of Ralph and Althea Hiscock, she was born on Dec. 24, 1950, in Redwood City, Calif.

She was raised with a love of horses.

She met her husband John in Redwood City, and they were married there on Dec. 23, 1968.

John was a career soldier, and she moved with him to many duty stations.

She often stated, "John was in the Army. I just went along for the ride."

On retiring from the Army in June 1991, they came to Dallas to live near her family. Carol worked for a time at the Dallas Retirement Home and Ellendale Home, where she made many friends among staff and residents.

Carol was an avid collector of teddy bears.

This made it easy for her husband to buy her gifts. Her favorite was a small bear with a T-shirt that read, "When all else fails, hug Daddy." Her collection consisted of not only soft and cuddly but; crystal, wooden, face, and ceramic bears. She would usually be seen wearing T-shirts with bears on them.

She is survived by her husband John; daughter Cynthia Rowand; son Russell Ellis; grandchildren Gail Rowand, Kathryn Ellis, Grace Ellis, and Josiah Ellis; her sister Virginia McDaniel; brother Donald Hiscock; and several nieces and nephews.

Viewing was Friday, Sept. 8, in the Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center. Funeral services were held Saturday, Sept. 9, in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Dallas. Private interment will be in Willamette National Cemetery in Portland. www.dallastrIBUTE.com.

Larry D. Green

March 23, 1944 – Sept. 6, 2017

Larry D. Green, a resident of Dallas, died on Wednesday, Sept. 6. Larry was born on March 23, 1944, in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, the son of John and Bess Green.

The family moved to Dallas in 1947. Larry graduated from Dallas High School in 1962.

Larry married DeAnn Schellenberg on Aug. 26, 1966, in Dallas.

He received a junior accounting degree from Merritt Davis and attended Grace Bible Institute and Arizona Bible College.

Larry was a farmer for most of his life, spending the majority of that time with his father-in-law and brothers-in-law at Schellenberg Farms.

He had also worked for area farmers; Hershel Wait, Marvin Fast and Stapleton Farms. Prior to moving to the family farm, he worked with The Arlie Walker Juvenile Shelter in Dallas for several years.

Larry and DeAnn traveled to the Philippines and Belgium on church construction missions.

He was a charter member of Faith Evangelical Free Church. Larry has been a Sunday school teacher and served on the Elder Board and past Chairman for over 35 years. He enjoyed Biblical studies.

Larry enjoyed fishing and hunting. He also enjoyed playing table games. Larry loved spending time with his family, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife, DeAnn; daughter, Linda (Paul) Bibler; son, Anthony (Danita) Green; brothers, John, Robert, Thomas and James Green; sisters, Becky Green and Peggy Geisler; along with grandchildren, Christina (Bryan) Harmon, Rachel and Gary Lipp; and great-grandchildren Michael and Melyssa Lipp. He was preceded in death by his parents John and Bess.

Funeral services will be on Saturday, Sept. 16, at 11 a.m. at Faith Evangelical Free Church. Visitation will be on Friday from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. at Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center. Interment will be in Salt Creek Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the church memorial fund or Faith Christian School Scholarship Program in care of Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center, who is caring for the family.

Donna Lee Moen

Sept. 18, 1928 – Sept. 7, 2017

Donna Lee Moen passed away peacefully in Salem early Thursday morning, Sept. 7, 2017.

She was born on Sept. 18, 1928, in Albany, to parents Jennie and Elmer Erb, and was the fourth of five Erb children.

Kenny, Betty, Richard and Darrell (Sam), all of whom preceded her in death.

Donna married Delton Moen on Sept. 28, 1947, in Albany. Del preceded her in death in 1998.

They raised three children, Sherida Bradley (Rick), Carla Serfas (Ron) and Kevin Moen (Nancy). She also had three grandchildren, Monica

Bradley Hackett (Matt), Erik Moen (Deborah) and Grant Moen, along with four great-grandchildren, Jake Hackett, Max Hackett, Hannah Moen and Connor Moen.

She was a devoted mother, "gramma" and "GG" extraordinaire.

Donna grew up in Albany and graduated from Albany Union High School.

She stayed at home raising her three children until they all started attending elementary school.

She then went to work as a bookkeeper for Nissen Ford in Albany.

In 1965, she and Del purchased the A&W Restaurant in Sweet Home, that they owned until 1979.

Being an A&W owner was actually a family trait, as Donna's cousin Willie Reeser, and brothers Kenny and Sam Erb also owned A&W restaurants.

Upon retirement, they moved to Salem and made many friends in the Salem Town Retirement community.

Donna and Del had a passion for travel. They joined the motorhome movement early on and enjoyed many trips throughout the U.S., Mexico, and Canada with friends and family. As snowbirds, they loved spending their winters in Yuma, Ariz.

She also loved playing the piano, golf, entertaining, "doing lunch," bridge, Sweet Adelines, Beta Sigma Pi, attending sporting events, especially those of family members, and picnics.

Donna will be missed by her family and many friends.

A celebration of life will be held at Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center on Sunday, Sept. 17, at 1 p.m.

Memorial donations may be made in Donna's honor to the American Red Cross disaster relief fund of your choice.

Ted Laurence Satter

May 22, 1968 – July 25, 2017

Ted Laurence Satter, 49, died July 25. He was a good son.

He was depressed over his wife passing away from cancer, plus his dad a few years before.

He took care of his mother when no one else could. He realized his mom was in good care and went to follow Carolyn, his wife.

Contributions would be appreciated in care of Bollman's Funeral Home. Contact Richard: 503-623-4248.

Bollman's wants $2,500 for his cremation. We can't afford it on a fixed income. Please help. Thank you, his mother.

Robert 'Bob' Perkins Sr.

Aug. 26, 1949 – Sept. 8, 2017

Robert "Bob" Perkins passed peacefully with family by his bedside on Sept. 8, 2017. Bob was born on Aug. 26, 1949, in Portsmouth, Va., to Frances Simon Perkins and LeRoy Perkins.

Bob graduated from Tillamook High School, attended Oregon State University, and received his bachelor's degree from the Oregon College of Education (OCE/WOU).

His career consisted of working as a patrol deputy with the Clatsop County Sheriff's Office, lieutenant and commander of the Clatsop County Jail, youth and family counselor for Mid-Valley Youth Services, with his employment career concluding when he retired from Polk County Youth Programs as a youth and family counselor.

He was preceded in death by his father, LeRoy Perkins, in 1986, and his mother, Frances Simon Perkins, in 1992.

He is survived by his brother, Dennis Perkins (Susan), of Madison, Connecticut; his son, Robert Perkins Jr. (Melissa), of Independence; and his grandson, Ryan Perkins, of Independence.

Bob loved the outdoors, spending time with family and friends, listening to music, reading, fishing, and riding horses. He wished to be remembered as a "Dead head, Son, Brother, Father, Grandfather, and Friend."

A special thank you to the Lynda, Jennifer, and the amazing staff at the Kaiser Skyline Nurse Treatment Room, Wes and his staff in building three of the Salem Hospital, Phil and Lisa with Willamette Valley Hospice, and Yvonne VanHorn. Your kindness, compassion, and professionalism during these difficult times for Bob and his family were welcome rays of sunshine in what were otherwise rainy days.

Memorial services will be Saturday, Sept. 16, at 2:30 p.m. at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, located at 1275 E St., in Independence.

A celebration of life will follow the memorial service at the Perkins' family farm.

Keith Edward Haisch

Feb. 4, 1951 – Sept. 7, 2017
