Those rare moments he's on the sidelines, he's shouting support, urging those around him to cheer and support.

"Caleb is our most vocal player and takes a big part in getting players ready to play," Hedrick said.

The senior makes it a point to be an emotional spark for the Panthers each time they step onto the field.

"As a player and a leader, I get emotional and sometimes I'm not the best leader, but I try and work on it and improve."

Sedlacek will try and help Central bounce back after a 24-7 loss to South Albany on Friday. The Panthers saw a touchdown called back due to a holding penalty, a run inside the 5-yard line called back due to holding, and four turnovers, including an interception in the Rebels' end zone, that kept Central from mounting a comeback.

WOU: Western Oregon falls to Humboldt State

"If you have a quarterback who can run, it's easier to block because they can always take off with their feet," Dizon said.

The trio continued to push each other to be the best linemen they can be.

"Brad has crazy technique," Dizon said. "He can maintain a block and hold it down. Ron is just a load. He's a physical, tough player. When you need 2 yards, Ron is there."

The admiration is mutual. "Bryson, no matter where he plays, always locks down his guy," Rose said.

Now the trio is looking to enjoy their final year together at Western.

"It feels like we just came here yesterday," Dizon said. "We now this is our last year of guaranteed football, and you always want to leave on a good note."

WOU will have to recover from a heartbreaker.

The Wolves lost to Humboldt State on Saturday, falling 49-48 in overtime.

Western Oregon built a 28-14 lead, thanks in part to three touchdowns in the second quarter. A touchdown from Torreaño Sweet to open the third quarter gave the Wolves a 35-14 lead before the Lumberjacks scored 21 unanswered points to tie the game. The teams traded touchdowns over the final 8 minutes of regulation to enter overtime tied at 42.

Humboldt State scored a touchdown to open overtime. Paul Revis answered with a 30-yard touchdown reception, but the extra point attempt was no good, ending the game.

Quarterback Nick Duckworth finished the game with 382 yards and four touchdowns. Sweet had 24 carries for 111 yards and three touchdowns, and Revis recorded 15 catches for 176 yards and two touchdowns. Western Oregon plays at Azusa Pacific Saturday at 6 p.m.
