

FALLS CITY ROUNDUP

FC boys win two

Itemizer-Observer staff report
FALLS CITY — The Mountaineers boys' basketball team went 2-1 last week, with its loss coming in a non-league contest Regis on Friday.
 Falls City (9-8, 5-3 Casco) defeated Livingstone Adventist Academy 61-46 on Jan. 16 to begin the week. Coach Micke Kidd said the team outscored Livingstone 42-25 in the second half to secure the victory. Jason Lafayette scored 23, while Austin Burgess contributed 12 points, 11 rebounds, and JR Lafayette added 11 points and nine rebounds in the effort. Thursday, Falls City defeated Oregon school of the Deaf 69-32. JR Lafayette and Jason Lafayette both scored 23 points, and JR pulled down eight rebounds.
 Falls City's lone defeat was Friday when 2A Regis outlasted the Mountaineers 55-51. Falls City attempted a comeback bid in the second half, outpacing Regis 29-17, but fell just short.

"Jeremy Labrado did a great job running our offense in the second half and keeping the ball moving and everyone in control," Kidd said.
 Falls City played C.S. Lewis after press time Tuesday and faces Jewell on Thursday and Crosshill Christian on Tuesday.
FALLS CITY GIRLS GO 1-2: Falls City's girls basketball team fell to Livingstone Adventist Academy in a close 32-31 contest on Jan. 16. Coach Micke Kidd said the game came down to the final seconds with Livingstone hanging on for the win. Amara Houghtaling scored 23 points, with five three-pointers. Emma Burgess added six points and grabbed nine rebounds. The Mountaineers (6-10, 3-5 Casco) defeated Oregon School of the Deaf 32-9 on Thursday before falling to 2A Regis 53-23 in a non-league contest. Britney Pots scored nine and had seven rebounds against OSD.
 Falls City played C.S. Lewis after press time Tuesday and faces Jewell on Thursday and Crosshill Christian on Tuesday.

CENTRAL ROUNDUP

Panthers girls ends losing streak

Itemizer-Observer staff report
CORVALLIS — The Panthers ended a years-long losing streak to Corvallis Friday night in a game that was decided in overtime.
 Central (13-1, 4-0 Mid-Willamette Conference) defeated Corvallis 54-50. That was the first time coach Julie McDonald had one of her teams beat the Spartans in her six years of coaching. McDonald said the team struggled early, but pushed the game to overtime.
 "It was probably one of our poorest shooting nights," she said. "We just played well when we had to."
 McDonald said Friday's win against a solid Mid-Willamette Conference team was a welcome improvement from last season when Central dropped some close contests.
 Central also defeated South Albany 64-28 on Jan. 16. The Panthers play at Dallas on Wednesday and host Silverton on Friday.

GRACE HOLSTAD GRABS TWO SWIMMING RECORDS: Grace Holstad added two swimming school records to her list in Central's dual meet against Lebanon Tuesday: the 50 freestyle in 27.5 seconds and 1:00.98 in the 100 freestyle. She now holds five school records. Sam Clark improved his 200 freestyle by 15 seconds for a new personal record of 3:01.29, while Jillian Layton, Ashley Gould, Moises Falcon and Amelia Angst all showed improvement in their respective races.
WRESTLING LOSES TO SILVERTON: Central lost to Silverton 46-34 in a dual meeting Thursday. The Panthers hosted the Central Dual Friday and Saturday, defeating Neah-Kah-Nie 45-30 and West Albany 38-36 and falling to Willamina/Falls City 39-37 on Friday. On Saturday, Central defeated Sheldon 47-30, but lost to Putnam 42-40 and Tillamook 51-20.

PERRYDALE ROUNDUP

Pirates win two

Itemizer-Observer staff report
PERRYDALE — The Pirates boys' basketball team scored two wins on Jan. 16 against Oregon School of the Deaf, 66-48, and Livingstone Adventist Academy, 66-53, on Thursday.
 Coach Brian Domes said getting out to early leads allowed him to get reserves some valuable experience in both games.

 "The kids played well," Domes said. "We were trying to take care of the teams that we need to take care of."
 Perrydale (14-4, 7-1 Casco) played Willamette Valley Christian on Tuesday after press time and faces Crosshill Christian at home on Friday.
 Friday's game could determine the league leaders, because if Perrydale defeats Crosshill Christian (15-4, 8-0 Casco), they will be tied for No. 1 in Casco.

 "If we beat them and don't lose another league game, we will be co-champions," Domes said. "That's the best-case scenario."
PERRYDALE GIRLS STAY PERFECT: The Pirates (13-4, 8-0 Casco) defeated the Oregon

School of the Deaf, 36-10, on Jan. 16 and Livingstone Adventist Academy on Thursday to maintain its perfect Casco League mark.
 Perrydale faced Willamette Valley Christian on Tuesday after press time and plays Crosshill Christian at home on Friday.

Virgil E. Trick

Aug. 7, 1917 – Jan. 16, 2018
 Virgil E. Trick passed away peacefully on Jan. 16, 2018. A proud centenarian, Virgil was born on Aug. 7, 1917, the son of Thomas D. Trick and Elsie M. (Brubaker) Trick.
 An Oregon resident his whole life, Virgil was raised on a small farm just south of Salem with three brothers and one sister. Virgil served in the Army Air Forces during World War II, a specialist on the P-47 aircraft. During the war, he met Wynona Long; the two soon married on Feb. 10, 1946, in Wynona's hometown of Centerville, Iowa.

 Virgil and Wynona built a farm together near Dallas and raised four daughters. He worked his farm and several positions with Polk County until his retirement.
 Both Virgil and Wynona enjoyed traveling. He volunteered for many years at the local arboretum and the First Presbyterian Church. Virgil had a mechanical talent and was eager to help anyone with miscellaneous projects, large or small. Most of all, Virgil relished being in the company of friends and family.
 Virgil was preceded in death by his wife of 68 years, Wynona; three brothers and one sister. Virgil is survived by four daughters; Angela (John) Irwin, Diane (Mike) Jones, Linda Trick, and Kathy (Rick) Bonacker. He leaves behind four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

A celebration of life will be held at Dallas Retirement Village, 377 NW Jasper St., Dallas, OR 97338, Cascade Room on Saturday, Jan. 20, 2018, at 2 p.m. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made in memory of Virgil to Dallas First Presbyterian Church or Meals on Wheels/Dallas Polk County. The Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center is caring for the family. www.dallastrIBUTE.com

Harold 'Hal' Depew

Dec. 6, 1932 – Jan. 18, 2018
 Harold "Hal" Depew, a resident of Dallas, died on Thursday, Jan. 18, in Salem Hospital. He was born on Dec. 6, 1932, in Hamilton, Ohio, the son of William and Lucinda Depew.
 Hal served in the United States Marine Corps from 1951 until 1954 in the Korean Conflict. He then served in the United States Air Force from 1956 until 1959.

Hal married Paula Jones on Dec. 22, 1961, in San Lorenzo, Calif. They later settled in Dallas.
 Hal worked for Praegitzer

Industries and later Tyco. He also worked at Guys Hardware before he retired in 2003.

Hal was a member of Valley Life Center Church, where he was known as the candy man. He was also a member of the Carl B. Fenton Post 20 in Dallas and helped with the annual Avenue of Flags at Dallas Cemetery. He enjoyed exploring old mines and playing golf. He also enjoyed spending time with family and friends.

He is survived by his wife Paula of 56 years; sons, Michael (Teresa) Depew, William Depew and Thomas Depew.

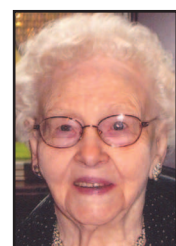

Services will be on Saturday, Jan. 27, at 3 p.m. at the Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center. Private interment will be in Dallas Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to American Heart Association, in care of Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center, who is caring for the family. Edna Mary Linscheid

Dec. 9, 1921 – Jan. 21, 2018
 Edna Mary (Janzen) Linscheid, 96, passed from this life into the arms of her loving Jesus on Sunday, Jan. 21, in Portland. Edna was born on Dec. 9, 1921, to Isaac H and Justina (Goosen) Janzen in Henderson, Neb. She was the second of six children and lived in the Henderson and Aurora, NB area until she was 15 years old. The Janzen family moved to Dallas in 1936, and Edna lived continuously in Dallas until 2010.

Edna met Oliver Linscheid at Grace Mennonite Church (now Grace Community) in 1942. Soon after they started dating in 1943, Oliver was drafted into the Army.

He asked her to marry him in a letter, and sent her engagement ring in a box of chocolates. They were married on July 12, 1944. While Oliver was in Europe during World War II, Edna worked in the cannery in Salem and then at JC Penney's in Dallas.

 Oliver built the three homes that they lived in until his death in 2010, and Edna was so pleased with those homes. They had five children, and Edna greatly loved her children, as well as her 12 grandchildren, and her 18 great-grandchildren.

Edna accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior when she was 17 years old. She was a member of the Grace Mennonite Church.

She taught Sunday School for many years. She helped start the Priscilla Circle, sewing many layettes and blankets for babies in Africa and India until she was 80 years old.

From 1990 to 1999, she volunteered in a Self-Help store selling merchandise from poor countries and sending the money back to the people.

She loved reading her Bible and Our Daily Bread faithfully. She loved crocheting, sewing, canning, and especially loved flowers of all varieties.

Edna lived in Portland with her daughter, Myrna and a half years, and brought the Joy of the Lord into the lives of everyone she came in contact with. She attended Greater Portland Bible Church during her last years.
