The first of this week Rev. Waggoner received his large X-ray tube, which is one of the largest made. He expects to, within a few days, receive other parts of electric apparatus to be used in his grand electric exhibit to be given here in a short time. He is getting everything arranged for the exhibit as rapidly as possible. His electric apparatus is the best and most costly made. Some articles cannot be made in this country, and have to be imported from Germany.—Dayton Herald. Rev. Waggoner will give his exhibition in Dallas in the near future, under the auspices of the Ladies' Professorship of Dallas College.

The pamphlet contains 16 pages of well-written matter descriptive of Independence and its surroundings, nicely illustrated with half-tone cuts, and is bound in an attractive cover. The book speaks well for the enterprise of the business men of our neighbor town, and will do much towards attracting the favorable attention of people in the Eastern states who are seeking new homes.

CITY COUNCIL HELD BUSY SESSION MONDAY EVENING

The city council met in regular session Monday evening, Mayor Ellis presiding. All members of the council responded to roll-call.

No bills against the city were presented.

An ordinance authorizing the issuance and sale of bonds of the city for the purpose of raising funds to acquire and construct a system of water-works was passed by the following vote: Aye, Hayter, Shaw, Belt, Muir, Boals, Vassall; no, Eakin.

The ordinance provides for the issuance and sale of bonds to the amount of $15,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary to acquire necessary rights of way, water rights and a system of water works. The bonds are to run for 20 years, and are to be sold to the person or firm bidding the lowest rate of interest on same, the council reserving the right to reject any and all bids. The bonds cannot be sold at less than their face value, and only such portion as is absolutely necessary in acquiring a right of way and water rights will be issued in addition to the $15,000 to be paid to Mr. Gates.

A resolution fixing the compensation of Attorney W. T. Muir at $250 in the action against R. P. Boise, and the same amount in the proposed action against Mrs. M. E. Hallock, in the Circuit Court, was passed, the council voting as follows: Aye, Belt, Shaw, Hayter, Muir, Vassall; no, Eakin, Boals.

The Marshal was instructed to vigorously enforce the provisions of the nuisance ordinance, especially where the same applies to the removal of rubbish and filth from the streets and the rear of stores and other business houses.

Attention was called to several defective sidewalks in the city, and the Street Commissioner was instructed to notify property owners to make the necessary repairs at once.

The next meeting of the council will be held Monday, May 4, at which time the newly-elected officers will take their seats.

City of Dallas vs. R. P. Boise, E. A. Boise and John W. Covert is the title of an action filed in Judge Burnett's department of Circuit Court, Monday afternoon. This is a proceeding to acquire by purchase and otherwise the necessary lands, water and rights of way for a water-works pipe line across the lands of defendants. The council and defendant, R. P. Boise, were unable to agree upon a compensation for such rights, the latter refusing to consider favorably any offer made him by the city. After a vain attempt to reach an agreement, the city was obliged to bring an action to condemn and appropriate the lands and water needed in the construction of the system of water-works proposed to be built. The case will be tried at the regular May term of court.

PLEASANT RECEPTION TENDERED TO MRS. ALLE E. TOWNSEND, WORTHY GRAND MATRON OF THE EASTERN STAR

One of the delightful social events of the year was the reception tendered to Mrs. Alle E. Townsend, Grand Matron of the Order of Eastern Star for Oregon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Biddle, in this city, Wednesday evening. Forty-nine invited guests were present, and the affair is one that will long be remembered with pleasure by all. The guests were received at the door by Mrs. D. M. Messinger, Mrs. B. Casey and Mrs. Walter Williams and ushered into the parlor where they were presented to the guests of honor, Mrs. Townsend, who stood with the hostess in a bay window banked high with palms and potted plants. Streamers of ribbon of the colors emblematic of the order were suspended between the chandelier and the window, and the soft glow of numerous delicately shaded candelabras added to the general color effect and transformed the room into a perfect bower of beauty. The ladies were charmingly gowned for the occasion. After the guests were presented, the reception partook of an informal nature, and a pleasant social time followed. Delicious refreshments were served at small tables in the dining room, and Mrs. E. J. Bryan and Mrs. R. L. Chapman presided at the punch bowl.
