DALLAS, OREGON, JUNE 19, 1908.

The way to build up Dallas is to patronize Dallas people.

The people of Dallas are responding nobly to the appeal for help from flood-stricken Heppner. Over $100 was raised in less than two hours, Wednesday, and this amount was immediately wired to Mayor Gilliam. The awful tale of horror touches all hearts, and everyone seems anxious to give something to aid the sufferers. It is impossible for the committee to call upon all who desire to contribute, much as its members would like to do so, and for this reason the OBSERVER will receive any and all contributions offered. The money will be promptly forwarded to the Mayor of Heppner to be distributed among those in need of help. It is important that all contributions be sent or handed in at once. There are many people in humble circumstances who cannot afford to give other than small sums, and yet who are deeply anxious to contribute to alleviate the great distress. This is a case where the size of the contribution does not count, as above all consideration of amount is the spirit that prompts the offering. The smallest donation will be as welcome as the largest. The brave, open-hearted people of Eastern Oregon—God bless them—could bear this burden alone, and would willingly do so, if need were, but this they will not be permitted to do. Already help in the way of money, men and supplies is pouring in from Portland, Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, Boise City, Walla Walla, and other leading cities of the Northwest, and the smaller cities and towns will not be slow in following the lead of the larger ones. Everybody is anxious to help. The disaster strikes close home, and the sympathies of the people are touched as never before. An appalling calamity like this serves to bring out the fact that the heart of unselfishness and brotherly love still beats strong in the bosom of the American people.

A WOMAN'S RISK

As a trapeze performer is greater than a man's. She must have a man's courage and a man's muscle to succeed. But she must also work under conditions of which a man knows nothing. Many an accident to women acrobats must be attributed to the sudden weakness to which all women are subject at certain times.
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription heals the womanly diseases which cause weakness. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and excoriation, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

With pleasure I write to-day in praise of Dr. Pierce and his medicines," says Mrs. Mary Conway, of Appleton, Lawrence Co., Tenn. "I was troubled with female disease, the back of my head hurt me so I could not lie in bed and I would have to sit up, and then I would have such pains from my waist down I could scarcely raise up. My feet and hands would feel almost like ice. Since taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I can sleep well all night. Could hardly drag around before I took your medicine, and now can do my housework and help my husband in the field. Words cannot express the thanks I owe to Dr. Pierce."
Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing more than a thousand large pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Richard Tatam, of Portland, visited relatives in Dallas this week.
Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner and family, after visiting in Salem and vicinity for some weeks, have returned to Lakeview, where Dr. Steiner has a large practice. His Salem friends had hoped that Dr. Steiner might remain here, but he is wedded to his new home in the land of fat cattle and sheep, especially as the people out there have been very good to him and have given him a very lucrative practice.—Statesman.

Eugene Catron has been elected Mayor of Wasco by a handsome majority over C. J. Bright, candidate for Supreme Judge, at the last state election. Mr. Catron is a native son, was born at Monmouth 37 years ago, where he received his education at Christian College. He is also a graduate of the State Normal School. He is now serving his third term as Mayor of Wasco and in a measure the city's splendid financial showing is due to his honest, outspoken and well-balanced executive abilities. Politically Mr. Catron is a staunch Republican; in business he is the local representative of the Pacific Coast Elevator Company.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE.
The largest sum ever paid for a prescription, changed hands in San Francisco, August 30, 1901. The transfer involved in coin and stock $12,500.00 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, hitherto incurable diseases.
They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on its merits by putting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to Aug. 25, eighty-seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably.
There being but thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address Joux J.
