An ice cream social will be held on the schoolhouse lawn in Rickreall tomorrow evening. Everybody is invited, and a good time is assured. Ice cream and cake, 10 cents; coffee and cake, 10 cents; lemonade, 5 cents. The proceeds will be used to repair the church.

The Dallas & Falls City Railroad Company is fitting up a water tank at the roundhouse, and is putting in a Fairbanks-Morse gasoline engine to run the pump. There are now three of these engines in Dallas—one at the roundhouse, one at the Southern Pacific water tank, and one in the Ossever office.

A dispatch from Monmouth to yesterday's Oregonian says: Much pleasure is expressed here over the fact that President E. D. Bessler, of the State Normal, has been honored by the National Educational Association. He is now one of the leading officers and it is a befitting reward for his work in the line of educational matters as well as a credit to the state. His work in the State Normal, which co-ordinates with the public schools, places him in a position where the state will feel the result of his work. President Bessler has been attending the meeting in Boston.

The Valley baseball league, made up of teams from Salem, Albany, Eugene and Roseburg, is meeting with success financially, and the games are so enjoyable that there is talk of extending the season. Dallas must take its place with other live cities, and make an effort to join this league, or one composed of teams from the West Side towns. There is no question as to this town being large enough to support a ball team. The people of Dallas are liberal patrons of athletic sports, and good baseball games would be largely attended. We should join the procession and put out a team next year.

The Astoria Budget says: The queen of this year's regatta will be honored greater than any of her predecessors, as she will have as her maids of honor and guests the carnival queens of many other cities of the state. Those queens who have so far been invited and have accepted their invitations to be present during the year's regatta are as follows: Ashland, Miss Catherine Million; Roseburg, Miss Willetha Reed; Grants Pass, Miss Centenna Rothermel; Albany, Miss Agnes Craft; Cottage Grove, Miss Sarah Bartels; Salem, Miss Agnes Gilbert; Corvallis, Miss Inez Williams; Dallas, Mrs. Missy Dunn.

Just About Bedtime.

take a Little Early Riser—it will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are different from other pills. They do not gripe and break down the mucous membranes of the stomach, liver and bowels, but cure by gently arousing the secretions and giving strength to these organs. For sale by Belt & Cherrington.

Notice to Stockholders.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Dallas City Bank will be held at the Bank parlors on Saturday, July 18, 1903, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing officers and transacting such further business as may come before the meeting.

NEW BUTCHER FIRM

Castle & Shaw Sell Their Market to Jones & Houck, of Corvallis.

The Dallas Meat Market changed hands this week, the purchasers being Messrs. Jones & Houck, of Corvallis. The new firm will take possession of the property next Monday.

Both Mr. Castle and Mr. Shaw, the retiring proprietors, will remain in Dallas. Mr. Castle will engage in his old business of buying and selling stock, and Mr. Shaw will probably enter the employ of the new firm.

Messrs. Jones & Houck come well recommended as experienced butchers and reliable business men, and they will doubtless be favored with a continuation of the heavy patronage accorded to their predecessors.
