

LIVER TROUBLES

"I had Theford's Black-Draught a good medicine for liver disease. I took it with doctors. It all the medicine I take."—MRS. CAROLINE MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.

If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Theford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine frees the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.

Theford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Theford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.

"I used Theford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to equal it."—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Marblehead, Ill.

STEAMER POMONA RAISED

Will Soon Be Placed on Her Regular Run Between Portland and Independence.

The steamer Altona, which was recently run into and damaged by the O. R. & N. steamer Modoc, is running regularly to Corvallis on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday mornings. She has been thoroughly cleaned and overhauled, and will be able to take care of her part of the Willamette business.

The steamer Pomona, which struck a submerged log at the "Devil's Elbow" and sunk, about a week ago, was raised Sunday. She was taken to the Portland shipyards for repairs. Two holes were torn in the hull of the steamer, one of which is 15 feet in length and the other two feet. The openings were temporarily patched and the vessel went down to Portland under her own steam. Until the steamer is repaired the Leona will continue on the Independence run.

A Prisoner in Her Own House.
Mrs. W. H. Layba, of 1001 Agnes Ave., Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured." This remedy is for sale by Wilson Drug Company.

It is rumored that Mrs. Beach, the owner of the house across the river where the colony of Holy Rollers has been located has succeeded in forcing them to vacate the premises and it is also said that Parson Creffield is now in hiding near this vicinity. To save trouble, this gentleman should be hunted up and made to leave this section of the state for good. The story of one of his victims consigned to a living death in Salem, bereft of reason, is fresh in the minds of every father and mother in Corvallis. Who knows whose daughter will be the next victim? We have no room in the county for men who murder reason. Save your own neck, Parson Creffield, and the quicker you go the better for you.—Corvallis Gazette.

Found a Cure for Indigestion.
I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now.—Geo. W. Estor, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by Wilson Drug Company.

Captain J. "Newt" Graham, who for many years has been associated with the Oregon City Transportation Company in the operation of the Altona and Ramona on the Upper Willamette, has disposed of his interests in the local transportation company, and will go to Humboldt Bay, California, and engage in the freight traffic business on the Klamath River. Captain Graham is having constructed in Portland a steamer that is suited to the freighting business on the Klamath, which is one of the most difficult streams to navigate on the coast. The new company with which Captain Graham will be interested will operate in conjunction with its Klamath River steamer another boat to San Francisco.—Oregon City Enterprise.

Wonderful Nerve.
Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Backlen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best Salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c, at Belt & Cherrington's.

Rev. M. J. Ballantyne was at Dallas the first of the week, attending a business meeting of the trustees of Dallas College.—Dayton Herald.

Domestic Troubles.
It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you, but cure. 25c, at Belt & Cherrington's Drug Store.

You Know What You Are Taking
When you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle, showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No Pay. 50c.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. Your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney troubles cause quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisonous blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, at the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

The action of the Oregon Legislature in passing the Celilo canal bill merits the commendation of the people of two states. By appropriating $100,000 and providing for a board of commissioners to secure for the Federal Government the right of way, the first step has been taken preliminary to a work of great importance. Since the fund appropriated is ample, the commissioners have power to remove with the least practicable delay, obstacles to a project the completion of which not only will operate to the advantage of the people of Eastern Oregon, but will be of material aid to the residents of Eastern Washington. People of both states who make their homes in that fertile region known as the Inland Empire for a long time have looked upon the Columbia as the highway marked out by nature between their part of the country and the coast; and they are entitled to general support in their efforts to interest the Government in the plan to remove from the river the obstructions to navigation. That the Legislature of Oregon has acted promptly, and with much wisdom, in a matter affecting the interest of so many people, is a subject for congratulation.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Saved From Terrible Death.
The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargeon, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption brought despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Belt & Cherrington's Drug Store.

George M. Hyland assumed the duties of superintendent of Woodward, Clarke & Co.'s drugstore in Portland last Friday. For the past ten years Mr. Hyland has been employed in the big department store of Olds, Wortman & King. His first step with them was to make a house-to-house canvass through the outside towns of Oregon, Washington and Idaho in the interest of the mail order department, after which he became manager of this branch of the business. His stewardship here was made the stepping-stone to the superintendency, which position he has filled for the past four years. On the first of last October he offered his resignation, to take effect January 1, in order to accept the position of superintendent of Woodward, Clarke & Co., the largest drug store in America.

A Vest-Pocket Doctor.
Never in the way, no trouble to carry, easy to take, pleasant and never failing in results are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. A vial of these little pills in the vest pocket is a certain guarantee against headache, biliousness, torpid liver and all of the ills resulting from constipation. They tonic and strengthen the liver. Sold by Belt & Cherrington.

Edward W. Bingham, a prominent lawyer of Portland, and known throughout the state as the "father of the Australian ballot law and the registration law in Oregon," died of typhoid pneumonia, Friday, aged 51 years.

Uncle Ben Hayden, of Eola precinct, Polk County, a well known but retired Democratic war horse of former years, was on the streets of Salem yesterday, apparently in as good health as that which he enjoyed thirty years ago, says the Salem Statesman. The object of this paragraph is to notify those who may not have seen or heard of this noted pioneer lately, and therefore, may have concluded that his appearance indicates a probability that he will grace this section of the Willamette Valley for many years to come. While yesterday admiring the latest beautiful gowns on exhibition in a show window, he declared to the writer, in answer to a suggestion that he was good for at least ten years of life yet, that he "didn't allow any man to place a limit on him—that he had long ago outlived the statute of limitations." He stated that he came to the Willamette valley first in 1849, returned in '52, has voted the Democratic ticket at every election since in Eola precinct, and intends continuing to do so for an indefinite length of time. His age is a matter of vaguest conjecture.

A Very Close Call.
"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did, in my life." Weak, sickly run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Belt & Cherrington. Price 50 cents.

Congratulations.
Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by Wilson Drug Company.

Mrs. H. B. Cramer, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Harlan, returned Thursday from visiting old acquaintances at Dallas.—Corvallis Times.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. For sale by Belt & Cherrington.

On January 4, 1904, there were advertised letters in the Dallas postoffice for Mrs. G. F. Brinary, Miss Eva Vincent, M. R. Anderson, Wm. Adams, Wm. Galbath, Philip Heinrich, J. B. Stone, Wayland Masters and H. F. Wagon. C. G. COAD, Postmaster.

When bilious try a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and realize for once how quickly a first-class up-to-date medicine will correct the disorder. For sale by Wilson Drug Company.

The ball given given in the auditorium in Independence last Friday evening by the Macabee Lodge was one of the most successful social affairs ever given in the county. Large crowds were in attendance from surrounding Valley towns, and music was furnished by the McMinnville orchestra. At midnight it was turned into a leap-year ball, and for three hours it was "ladies' choice." Supper was served by the Ladies of the Macabees. A special motor was run to accommodate the Dallas people.

What's in a Name?
Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. Her Husband's Story

"My name is E. J. Spring, and my address is 16 Bondman Block, Troy, N. Y. I want to tell how thankful I am that my wife's health has been restored to her. About a year ago she caught a dreadful cold, which settled in her bronchial tubes and lungs. She certainly had bronchitis, and I think consumption too, and we despaired of her life. She had a 'highness' or soreness in the chest, and she could not breathe. There was a hoarse, sharp, dull and heavy cough, with constant coughing at intervals. Each day she was worse than the day before. I was advised to get Acker's English Remedy, and I did so, but my wife only took her and said: 'Another pillar thrown away.' She took the Remedy, however, and said her cough was magical. In less than an hour there was a remarkable change. She got better at once, and in a short time she was entirely well and strong again. The cure was permanent and there has been no relapse. I don't know what Acker's English Remedy is made of, but I am sure it contains something that fortifies the system against future attacks. My wife is in better general health now than ever, and you can't imagine how happy she is for her recovery. She tells everybody about Acker's English Remedy, and so do I, for I believe it to be our duty to the public to help every sufferer who has throat and lung troubles. My neighbors say it is a sure specific for cough and has saved the lives of hundreds of little ones around in this vicinity alone."
