"I don't think we could keep house without Theford's Black-Draught. We have used it for years and it has done for us more than anything else. It is a doctor in itself and always ready to make a person well and happy."—A. H. HALL, Jacksonville, Ill.

Because this great medicine relieves stomach pains, frees the constipated bowels and invigorates the torpid liver and weakened kidneys.

No DOCTOR

is necessary in the home where Theford's Black-Draught is kept. Families living in the country, miles from any physician, have been kept in health for years with this medicine as their only doctor. Theford's Black-Draught cures biliousness, dyspepsia, colic, chills and fever, bad blood, headaches, diarrhoea, constipation, colic and almost every other ailment because the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys so nearly control the health.

NOTED PROHIBITION SPEAKER.

Hon. Oliver W. Stewart, of Illinois, Will Lecture at Courthouse in Dallas, Wednesday Evening, March, 2, 1904.

Hon. Oliver W. Stewart, Senator from Cook county, Illinois, chairman of the National Prohibition Committee, will deliver a free lecture at the Courthouse in Dallas, Wednesday, March 2, at 8 o'clock p. m. Mr. Stewart is a brilliant and entertaining speaker.

UNCLE SILAS AND BASKETBALL.

I have lived right here in Dallas some forty years or more, and things have been rather quiet with me since Sary went on before. My children are grown up around me, and I seem an old man quite. I thought there was nothing to live for until something happened the other night.

My grand-son, Tommy, he goes to school, and is a kind of lively boy, likes to run and romp and play. Just chuck full of spirit and joy. Well that boy kept a-coming. For to some place with him. He said a game was going to be played. And mentioned some one named "Jim."

Well, to humor the boy, I went with him to see just what he meant. The old wooden mill was crowded. I sat right next to him, my friend. I'm powerful glad that I went. And you'd order see them boys and I. There was a whiffin bunch of arms and legs. Once in a while you'd see the ball. I saw they was tryin' to throw it in a net. That was hangin' at the end of the mill. By and by she went into the net. Then I heard Tommy yell "goal!" And while the people were yellin' like mad. Some one punched the ball out with a pole. Then they come back to the center again. The man threw the ball up once more. And you should have seen those foolish boys a tumblin' around on that floor. By and by I begin to get excited. And next time she went into the net. I was up on my feet a shoutin'!

The loudest one there, I'll bet. And when I come to my senses I was sayin' 'my arms like a bat. While Tommy was havin' a dreadful time a pullin' at my coat tail.

Pretty soon I got quieted down. And just watched the game a smilin'. Only now and then I'd get excited like and find my hand a bitin'.

When finally the game was over, and Tommy and our team had won I just yelled with the rest of em. 'Till all the shoutin' was done.

Then I went home with Tommy. A feelin' as good as you please. So good that I gave him a quarter. Without his ever havin' to leave. Those basket ball games will do you good. And all the old chaps should go. For the very next game that we have here will find me in the ball-hoosier row. (Dallas Evening News) LOTT B. BROWN.

Karl's Clover Root Tea corrects the Stomach

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle of common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and sealding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

Write for it to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

The efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the relief of rheumatism is being demonstrated daily. Parker Triplett, of Grigsby, Va., says that Chamberlain's Pain Balm gave him permanent relief from rheumatism in the back when everything else failed, and he would not be without it. For sale by Wilson Drug Company.

A Cure for Eczema.

My baby had eczema so bad that his head was a solid mass of scabs and his hair all came out. I tried many remedies but none seemed to do any permanent good until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The eczema is cured, the scabs are gone and the little one's scalp is perfectly clean and healthy, and his hair is growing beautifully again. I cannot give too much praise to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve—Frank Farmer, Bluff City, Ky. In buying Witch Hazel Salve look out for counterfeits. DeWitt's is the original and the only one containing pure Witch Hazel. The name E. C. DeWitt & Co. is on every box. Sold by Belt & Cherrington.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Unequaled for Constipation.

Mr. A. R. Kane, a prominent druggist of Baxter Springs, Kansas, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are, in my judgment, the most superior preparation of anything in use today for constipation. They are sure in action with no tendency to nauseate or gripe. For sale by Wilson Drug store.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolsville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gave him prompt relief." For sale by Wilson Drug Company.

Miss Pearl Squire will open her new millinery store in the Cooper brick in Independence about the first of March.

Mysterious Circumstance.

One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health uses Dr. King's New Life Pills to maintain it. By gently arousing the lazy organs they compel good digestion and local constipation. Try them. Only 25 cents at Belt & Cherrington, Druggist.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the United Evangelical Church will conduct the Sunday evening services at the college chapel. An interesting program is being prepared to which the public is invited. Services begin at 7:30.

Nearly Forfeits His Life.

A runaway almost ending fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. R. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Burns, Bruises, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25 cents at Belt & Cherrington's Drug Store.

HOW CHARLES W. BABCOCK

Proprietor Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, of Rochester, N. Y. Obtained $2,000 Life Insurance Policy.

"My business as proprietor of the Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, 245 Main street, Rochester, N. Y.," writes Mr. Charles W. Babcock, "was so thriving that my lungs became affected. My doctor told me I'd have to leave the store and go to work at something outdoors. He said my lungs were in bad shape, and I knew it just as well as he did. The trouble had been growing on me for a long time. Like most other people, I tried to make myself believe the trouble was not in the lungs. I called it stomach trouble or nervous disorder, but I kept coughing, spitting and wasting away right along. I lost in weight, falling from 140 to 115 pounds. Somehow or other, I got hold of Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, and after taking it according to directions, I was as well as any man in New York State. I was healthier and stronger than before I took the cold which came so near killing me. I now weigh 150 pounds—ten pounds more than ever. After recovering, I applied for a life insurance policy. When the doctor began examining me, I was afraid he would discover that my lungs had once been affected, but he didn't. I passed all right, and was pronounced in a first-class condition. If that isn't proof of the most positive kind that Acker's English Remedy is a great medicine, I don't know what you call proof. I give it my warmest endorsement. My address is given above. Anyone who wishes may write me personally about my case."

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 2s., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.
