Falls City Notes

Miss Maude Moyer has been visiting her parents for the past week.

Bruce Burnett, who has been clerking in M. L. Thompson's drugstore, has moved to Corvallis.

Deputy Assessor George Siefarth has been around, visiting those having property, and is making rapid progress with his work.

Steel & Freeman's moving picture show was given to crowded houses on Monday and Tuesday nights. Everyone was well pleased with the exhibition.

Mr. Dunsmore and Mr. Luckey are making rapid progress in the construction of their dwelling houses. Mr. Luckey has already moved into his house.

Special services will be held in the Christian and Methodist churches on Easter evening. Good programs have been prepared at each place, and all are invited to attend.

Dr. Perry has one of the neatest offices in the county. It is built on the lot purchased from J. C. Hayter, of the Osseaven, and is an office that would be a credit to any town.

A stock of general merchandise belonging to Mr. Courter has been purchased by the Oregon Lumber, Wood & Light Company. They have moved the goods to the building opposite the Emmitt store.

Dan Poling and Prof. Dunkelberger, of Dallas, were in town Saturday, paying a visit to Henry Pfandhoefer, who has been very sick, but who is able to be out again.

The public school will give a basket social at the Bryan-Lucas hall on Friday, April 1, at 8 p. m. The proceeds from the social will be used to purchase a flag for the schoolhouse. Everybody come.

The Vick brothers, who have rented the Jacob Rhodabarger farm, are building in the heart of the town a large creamery which will handle the milk from over one hundred cows. This is a grand improvement for the town, and will be a great industry for the farmers living in this vicinity.

The delegates from Falls City to the Epworth League convention in Dallas report an enjoyable and profitable time. All agree that they cannot say enough in praise of the manner in which the people of Dallas opened their homes to them and made them feel welcome.

The pupils of the school who will wear Liberty Bell medals for the next three months are Delia Boydston, Lee Decker, Dora Donahue, Eva Chapin, Myrl Bondurant, Cecil Dodd, Otto Elkins, Cora Page and Fern Raymond. These medals are given to the pupil in each grade who makes the best, average in all subjects for three months.

The report of the Falls City school for the month ending March 25 is as follows: Number enrolled, 132; average daily attendance, 126; number of tardies, 5; number of visitors, 25; number neither absent nor tardy, 75. Teachers, H. C. Seymour, Lydia Campbell, Mrs. C. L. Hopkins and Jessie Bryant.

On the morning of March 21, School Superintendent C. L. Starr visited the school here, and upon the invitation of Principal Seymour, gave a twenty-minute talk to all the pupils and teachers assembled in the two upper rooms. The talk was instructive and pleasing. Superintendent Starr knows how to please the children as well as the older people, and they are all glad when they see him coming to the school.

Mrs. C. L. Hopkins entertained her Sunday School class of young people at her pleasant home Friday evening. A dainty lunch was served after several hands of finch and other merry games had been played. Mrs. Hopkins is a charming hostess, and is much beloved by her class. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Seymour, Misses Sara Myer, Fern Raymond, Josie Moyer, Mina Alderman, Francis Luckey, Bessie Milne, Alma Husely, Viola Gardner, Irene Dodd, Althea Gardner, Messrs. There is more Cataract in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors prescribed it as a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Cataract to be a constitutional disease, and therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Cataract Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful, it acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They other one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc. Hall's Family Pills are the best.
