

WE ARE FORCED OUT

OF OUR BUILDING.

READ THIS, THEN ACT, ITS YOUR OPPORTUNITY.

If you will read our "ad" in Friday's Observer last week you would see why we have to move. We could not afford to pay $5 per day rent and then give our Landlord all our fixtures, etc., besides, which would make our rent cost us all of $8.00 to $10.00 per day, so we have concluded to vacate the place as soon as possible.

So Our Loss will be Our Customers Gain and from the way people have responded since last Saturday we evidently mean just what we say. We have sold a great many Suits. You will see at a glance that our goods are not a common grade, they are finely tailored models which at a glance show superior workmanship—in this point our clothes differ from all other ready-made Garments.

You Will Also Find Our Stock Strictly Up-to-Date.

You will find here a large and varied stock of all men's goods and our space here will not permit us to quote prices but if you will take the trouble to come in we certainly can show you the goods and tell you the prices of which will absolutely convince you that we have the stock and prices. We would just add a few words more about our Hat and Shoe Stock.

We have bought more Hats than all the other stores in Dallas put together and you know our stock is new and fresh as we have only been here one season. We have all the late shapes in Hats also the different colors that are used and when you buy a hat of us you can depend on it that it is right, both prices and style.

Our Shoe Stock is complete and new. We handle the Celebrated Orthopedic $3.50 Shoe

of which there is no better shoe made for the money. We also keep shoes from $1.50 up to $5.00. See our patent leather Shoes—they are beauties—trust you won't over-look this opportunity to supply yourself and boys. We will do you good and save you money.

See our Nobby Top coats and those nice H.S. & M. Suits—all tailored goods. We have a full stock of Suit Cases and Trunks, etc. Also a complete and up-to-date line of Men's and Boys' Furnishings all this goods go and must be sold before we move so come early while we are able to fit you with your size. Nothing reserved.

Respectfully yours,

TO ADVERTISE OREGON

State Printing Office Completes Pamphlets Referring to Forests of Webfoot State.

The Lewis and Clark Exposition Commission is taking steps to get out suitable literature for distribution at the St. Louis Fair and broadcast over the country in advertisement of the state, and particularly the Lewis and Clark Fair, to be held in Portland in 1905. The first step in this direction was to compile a treatise on the forest wealth of Oregon, and in this matter they have succeeded admirably.

The printing, which was done in the State Printing Office, and the binding of this book has just been completed, and the first installment will be forwarded to the commission in Portland within a few days. It is composed of 32 pages, excluding the cover pages, the first eight of which are devoted to a treatise upon the climate, Oregon's forests as a resource, and a brief history of Oregon and Oregon's forests, while the balance of the book is devoted to a list of the forest trees and larger shrubs of Oregon, and the pamphlet contains several full-page half-tone cuts of mammoth Oregon trees and other interesting scenes of the forest, while the description of the different kinds of wood grown in this state and their respective uses is not only valuable as to the information which it sheds in a general way, but also as a future reference book.

Different authorities are now engaged in the preparation and compilation of similar treatises upon the agricultural, horticultural, mineral and other resources of Oregon, which will be condensed in small pamphlets like that treating of the forest wealth, and these, too, will be ready for distribution at the St. Louis Fair.

LOWER THAN LAST YEAR

Mohair Market Will Probably Open in Neighborhood of 33 Cents for Good Grades.

We have not received any report as yet of sales of mohair in Oregon. A large share of the clip of the state is going into pools and buyers naturally do not wish to make any definite statements as to prices until the auction sales of these pools commence. Portland buyers say that Eastern quotations would at present justify only about 30 cents for good Oregon mohair, but as to what will be paid they are noncommittal beyond emphatic predictions that the price will not be so high in Oregon as last year. Most of the pools will be sold in the next two weeks. As stated before one can only guess at the probable price, but averaging up statements of buyers and growers would give about 33 cents as the probable price for the Dallas pool. It may easily vary from this two or three cents. Reports from California, New Mexico and Texas show that half-year growths of mohair are being sold at from 20 to 30 cents according to quality and location, the highest prices being in the Uvalde country in Texas where there are many fine goats. It is said that the Sanford Mills are sending notices to Angora men, advising them to hold back their spring clips for a while until stocks in the East are reduced. It is believed that the Sanford Mills have stocked up heavily with Turkish hair in the past few months, owing to the comparatively low price at which it could be obtained.—Rural Northwest.

Consumption

The only kind of consumption to fear is "neglected consumption."

People are learning that consumption is a curable disease. It is neglected consumption that is so often incurable.

At the faintest suspicion of consumption get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion and begin regular doses.

The use of Scott's Emulsion at once, has, in thousands of cases, turned the balance in favor of health.

Neglected consumption does not exist where Scott's Emulsion is.

Prompt use of Scott's Emulsion checks the disease while it can be checked.

ONTO THE ROPES

Miss McMunn's Graphic Description of How The Votes Are Won by Candidates.

Now that the political pot is boiling, the wife's coffee pot grows cold while her liege lord talks of election. Just a common son of Adam is an important personage now, for it doesn't matter how much of Adam is in his hair, his favor is much courted. See those fine gentlemen around him? They have never seen him before, but they have grown suddenly fond of him, and have brought him some good cigars and a snake bite remedy. Ah! the farmer is bitter already, for, see, he wipes his mouth with the back of his hand.

They ask about the farmer's family, being careful to call the old maid the "girl" and the kid the "young lady" and at the house they have asked the tottering mother if her "father" is in. The farmer is plowing and his hands are very muddy, but he joyously grasps his horny fist and one man plows while the other entertains the farmer. The plowman makes a crooked furrow, but he praises the soil, so the farmer is pleased. The men see the family cow that yielded up her lactical fluid to Noah but they exclaim, "What a fine young cow," and they are sure that the rooster with but one tail feather must be an imported fowl.

They do not care if there is no roast for dinner, for they are very fond of bacon—especially such fine bacon as is set before them. They have never seen such fine piced quilts as the wife makes, and the husband allows them to peep at his "seed" potatoes which are pronounced "very fine indeed." They admire the daughter's sofa cushions and listen entranced while the kid sings "Yankee Doodle."

When they are gone the farmer takes two cards from his overalls pocket and spells out the names with his forefinger and tells the daughter to put them away in the upper bureau drawer until election day. After the farmer has gone to bed, the daughter blushingly takes the cards and writes "Missus" before each name and wonders which card belongs to which man. She hopes that the pretty name belongs to the slender, dark eyed one but then she remembers that it was the blonde one who had gold in his front tooth, and such sweet perfumery on his handkerchief—Miss Ella McMunn in Salem Statesman.

Funeral of George Crowley.

The funeral of George Crowley, who died in Independence, Monday, was held at the Baptist Church Wednesday, Rev. John Osborn officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery. The deceased was 32 years old, and had been sick for some time with consumption. He leaves a wife and two children, his parents, brothers and sisters, besides other relatives. He was a member of the Woodmen Lodge.

Few New Hop Yards.

Hop growers in Oregon have not all lost their heads because of two or three successive years of high prices for hops. A firm which has a large hop farm in Polk county, Oregon, recently told a newspaper reporter that they were planting no hops this year and do not expect to plant any more until in the natural round the prices are low again. They will then plant and by the time the new yards are in full bearing they will expect a return of good prices.—Rural Northwest.

Years

Of Suffering From Heart Disease.

I Would Not Be Alive Today

But For Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

Do not neglect the warning symptoms of a weak heart; palpitation, smothering spells, swelling of feet or ankles, pain in and around heart; ostensive affections of the stomach, lungs, liver, bladder, kidneys, etc., arise from heart weakness. A weak heart must be helped. It cannot stop to rest. It must be strengthened and regulated. The blood must be enriched, the heart nerves strengthened and the circulation improved by the great heart and blood tonic, Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. There is positively nothing to equal this wonderful medicine in its beneficial influence upon hearts weakened from any cause.

"I am very grateful for what Dr. Miles Heart Cure has done for me, as I am confident I would not be alive today had I not learned of its wonderful virtues and taken it before it was too late. I had been a sufferer from valvular heart disease for many years, in fact ever since I was a little girl and, for three years before I began using Heart Cure I was in very bad shape. I could not sleep on my left side at all and would frequently have the most dreadful smothering spells. At times my left side would swell up. I had pain in my head all the time from which I suffered greatly. Nothing I took did me any good until I used eleven bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure which removed all these distressing symptoms and made me feel well and strong."—Mrs. H. C. High Pressure Days.

Men and women alike have to work incessantly with brain and hand to hold their own nowadays. Never were the demands of business, the wants of the family, the requirements of society, more numerous. The first effect of the praiseworthy effort to keep up with all these things is commonly seen in a weakened or debilitated condition of the nervous system, which results in dyspepsia, defective nutrition of both body and brain, and in extreme cases in complete nervous prostration. It is clearly seen that what is needed is what will sustain the system, give vigor and tone to the nerves, and keep the digestive and assimilative functions healthy and active. From personal knowledge, we can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for this purpose. It acts on all the vital organs, builds up the whole system, and fits men and women for these high-pressure days.

Hypatia Temple, Rathbone Sisters.

A Rathbone Sisters lodge was organized in Independence, Wednesday, by Mrs. Parmenter, of Salem, assisted by Mrs. Stinson, also of Salem, who is the grand recorder. The new lodge starts out with a membership of about 30, and will be known as Hypatia Temple. The following are the officers: P. C. of T., Mrs. Sarah Irvine; M. E. C., Mrs. Carrie Moore; E. S. of T., Mrs. Etta Walker; E. J. of T., Mrs. George Burton; M. of R. and C., Miss Florence Burton; M. of F., Mrs. Jennie Jones; M. of F., Mrs. Frank Buckley, P. of T., Mrs. Mandy Johnson; G. of O. T., Mrs. May Johnson; trustees, Mrs. John Burton, Mrs. Bowden and Mrs. Charles Hubbard. After the business of the evening was concluded, a banquet was given at the Independence restaurant.

Progress.

A young lady refused to marry a most devoted lover, until he had amassed a fortune of $10,000. After some expostulation he accepted the decree and went to work. About three months after this, the avaricious young lady meeting her lover, asked:

"Well, Charley, how are you getting along?"

"Oh, very well indeed," Charley returned cheerfully. "I've eighteen dollars saved."

Fair at Independence.

The ladies of the Independence Christian Church held a very successful fair in the opera house Friday night. Different booths were provided with candies, etc., fancy goods and many useful articles for sale. A good literary and musical program was given by local talent, assisted by numbers from Dallas and Monmouth. A large crowd was in attendance and the ladies will realize a neat little sum from their efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cosper, who were called to Salem by the serious illness of Mrs. Cosper's father, Uncle Ab. Palmer, returned home Sunday. The old gentleman has suffered greatly from an abscess in his side, but an operation performed a few days ago afforded him great relief.

The woman who accepts wrinkles as she does gray hairs, as the footprints of time which tenderly record not only the passing years, but the incidents and experiences of life, gains in the estimation of people whose good opinion counts for something by contrast with the woman who dyes or bleaches her hair and submits to painful "treatment" for the eradication of lines which time and experience have written upon her face. The most uninteresting face in the world is that of an old person without lines either of youth or age; the most interesting face is that which time has touched gently leaving thereon tender tracings.—Oregonian.

HOT POLITICS IN POLK

J. S. Cooper, of Independence, Says Candidates Are Hard at Work.

J. S. Cooper, Mayor of Independence, and Polk County's probable Representative in the next Legislature, has been in Portland for the past few days, and will leave for home tomorrow morning. Mr. Cooper is an authority on Polk County politics, having lived in Independence for many years. Rumors from up the Valley say that while Mr. Cooper is not an avowed candidate for the Legislature, he would not be averse to representing Polk in Salem next Winter, and would not decline the nomination if it were offered. He has considerable strength in his part of the state, and stands a good chance of being selected for the ticket.

"Politics are very active up my way," said Mr. Cooper, "especially in the Congressional race. Both Hermann and Harris have emissaries in the field who are doing their utmost for their backers. Polk has nine delegates in the convention, and those are worth looking out for. The primaries will be held on the 7th, and the county convention two days later, and then the fun will commence."—Portland Telegram.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boals and family left Wednesday morning on a four months' visit to their old home in Nebraska.
