 E. L. Irgalls died of paralysis at his home in Dallas, yesterday morning, aged about 75 years. He had been confined to his bed a long time before his death. He came to Dallas about three years ago from the East, and spent a great deal of his time on his timber ranch in the Sitka country. His aged wife survives him. Mr. Irgalls was highly respected by all who knew him.
 Work on the E. C. Kirkpatrick brick building on Main street will begin in a few days. The Chinese wash house has been moved off the lot, and excavation for the foundation of the new building is now under way. The brick work will be rushed as rapidly as the weather will permit, and the building will probably be ready for occupancy early in the summer.
 The Dallas & Falls City railroad company has begun fencing its track. The best brand of "Anchor" wire fence is being used, and a solid and lasting barrier to stock is the result. When the fence is completed, the company will be enabled to do away with the numerous cattle-guards along the road. The farmers living along the line are greatly pleased with the improvement, and, in nearly every instance, are furnishing good oak posts to the company free of charge.

Falls City Notes

C. L. Hopkins expects to soon erect a $750 cottage near his present home.
 Mrs. Cal Cramer returned Tuesday from several weeks' visit with friends in Monmouth.
 Mrs. Willard Gilbert, of Dallas, spent one day last week here, visiting her mother, Mrs. S. H. Tetherow.
 Mr. Livingston has been making many improvements about his place and is now building a large addition to his house.
 The Odd Fellows of this town have been giving their goat some exercise, and several of the riders say he is rather lively.
 Mr. and Mrs. Stuart, of Washington county, have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zim Hishaw, for the past week.
 David Grant, who recently purchased property in Falls City, has been making extensive improvements around his home.
 Joe Stowe, our leading truckman, has just brought to the city a new and durable truck. It is something the town has needed.
 Johnnie McCoy, who was hurt by falling from the Bryan-Lucas flume a few days ago, is much better, and is able to be out again.
 Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tetherow returned Monday from Independence where they attended the funeral of a near relative of Mr. Tetherow.
 Miss Pearl Bryant, our milliner, reports having made a large number of sales during the past ten days, and she and her assistant are kept busy early and late.
 Miss Maude Montgomery, who has been working in the Occidental Hotel at Corvallis, is home for a few weeks' visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery.
 The boiler and part of the machinery for the new mill, being built by the Oregon Lumber, Wood and Light Company has just arrived, and will soon be taken to the mill.
 Eld. A. H. Dodd, while working in the planer of the Bryan-Lucas Company, had his foot caught and badly wrenched between two cars in the mill. He is able to be around by using a cane.
 The teachers of the public school have purchased a beautiful banner for the school. It has upon it the motto "We excel in attendance" and is given at the end of each month to the room which excels in attendance. This month the banner goes to Miss Bryant's room.
 The City election on Monday was a very quiet affair. Two tickets were in the field—the citizen's and a people's ticket. The people's party ticket was endorsed by the Prohibition party. The result was: Citizens' ticket, Chamberlain and Calkins; People's and Prohibition ticket, William Ellis. Many women were at the polls and voted.
 The entertainment and basket social given by the public school here was very successful. The program was well rendered, and the recitation given by Fred West, of Dallas met with loud applause. Supt. Starr's address was enjoyed by all. The baskets, which were auctioned by Supt. Starr, brought about $30, and we will soon see flying from our schoolhouse flag pole the Stars and Stripes.
 Mrs. F. K. Hubbard received a pleasant and novel surprise on her 53d birthday, Tuesday, April 5. A few weeks ago, Mr. Hubbard told several old friends of her coming birthday and of the surprise he was planning for his wife. The result shows how pleased they were with his plan and the numerous friends Mrs. Hubbard has. Tuesday morning Mr. Hubbard sent Mrs. Hubbard to the postoffice, where, to her surprise, she received ninety-six letters and many lovely gifts. Who wouldn't enjoy such a birthday treat?
VICTIM OF HEART DISEASE.
 Former Resident of Dallas Found Dead in His Room in Portland
 A. Gilman, a former resident of Dallas, was found dead in his bedroom Wednesday morning at his home at 381 Front street, Portland. His death was sudden and evidently occurred while he was preparing to disrobe for the night. When members of the household entered the room Wednesday morning, the body of the old gentleman was found lying beside the bed. One shoe was off, and the night lamp was still burning. The family believe that his death was caused by heart disease, as he was apparently in his usual state of health when he went to his room to retire.
 A. Gilman was born in Anson, Somerset county, Maine, January 13, 1827. He was married to Abbie Riggs, in 1861, and in 1877 moved to Vail, Iowa, where he resided 22 years. He came to Oregon in 1899, and lived in Dallas until about six months ago. He leaves three children—Mrs. G. W. DeWolf, of Gibbon, Nebraska; Lizzie and J. H. Gilman, of Portland, Oregon. His wife died 23 years ago.
 Mr. Gilman was a quiet and unassuming old gentleman, and made many warm friends during his years' stay in Dallas. He lived a long and useful Christian life, and people in Dallas who were his neighbors in Iowa all speak of him in terms of highest praise.

Notice of Dissolution of Copartnership.

Notice is hereby given to whom it may concern that the copartnership heretofore existing between E. C. Kirkpatrick and R. E. Williams, dealers in hops and supplies, under the firm name and style of Kirkpatrick & Williams, is this day dissolved by mutual assent.
 Dated this 29th day of March, 1904.
 E. C. KIRKPATRICK.
 R. E. WILLIAMS.
Notice.
 The partnership heretofore existing between Kirkpatrick & Williams having this day been dissolved, I hereby notify all persons concerned that I have purchased the interest of E. C. Kirkpatrick in all hop yards run by Kirkpatrick & Williams, and will hereafter have entire control of the same. I will also fill all orders for twine, cloth, sulphur and other supplies which have been placed with Kirkpatrick & Williams.
 Dated this 29th day of March, 1904.
 R. E. WILLIAMS.
Notice to Hopgrowers.
 The firm of Kirkpatrick & Williams having been dissolved, I desire to say that I will be found at the old office prepared at all times to pay the highest market prices for hops of all grades. My connections both in London and America place me in a position to insure you equal treatment and leading prices as heretofore. Thanking all growers for past favors, and inviting you to call and see me at all times, where you will be met either by myself or Mr. J. M. Grant, I am,
 Respectfully yours,
 E. C. KIRKPATRICK.
