An Astonishing But True Story

"My home is in Sidney, Ohio. I have been nearer death with consumption than any other living person in the world, and I want you to read this, so you can tell others. I took a severe cold and neglected it. I grew worse all the time, and at the end of two years I had run into consumption. I coughed terribly, lost flesh, could not sleep, and became so dreadfully weak that I had to take to bed. In the followin; eighteen months 1 radually reached the last stages of consumption. No less than seven physicians treated me and all gave me up saying I was in-curable. I was absolutely help'es . The whole fam-

to my bedside, and said I had but a day or two more to live. Tears rolled down their checks as they sobbed the news. The doctors had declared I was in the last stage, and no human being could save me. I was willing to die, but before going to the cruel grave, I wanted to go out and see my deathy beloved town of Sidney once more, They told me such a thing was impossible—that I would surely d c before I get back. But I insisted, and to gratify my dying wish, a carriage was fitted up with a bed of pillows, and to this I was carried an I slowly driven around Couff House Square. I got home more dead than nive. Through the mercy of Provi-dence, someone brought a trial bottle of medicine said to be a consumption cure. No one imagined for an instant it was worth trying. But as a drowning person grasps at a straw, so I tried this medicine. I was better after taking two coses. Mother got more of the medicine and I took it, improving all the time. T day I am as well as any reader of this paper, and the medicine that cured me was Acker's English Remedy for Consumptio' I declare before God and man that every word here printed is true."
