The Argus office, Tuesday evening, was organized a Falls City Club, and officers were as follows: President, Mayor H. J. Butler; vice-presidents, F. Butler, Robinson, Wm. Alderman, S. H.
W. F. K. Hubbard, J. B. Teal, Moyer, E. Lipton, Warren
C. H. Watts, Ira Lowe, B. F.
I. L. Stoddard; secretary, Dallaway.—Falls City Argus.

Health ordinance of the city of Falls City provides that in case of any contagious disease, the attending physician shall require the family of the patient to display a flag in front premises—a yellow flag for typhoid fever, and a red flag for scarlet fever, measles, or whooping cough. Any person neglecting to comply with this ordinance is subject to a fine not less than $50. All the bedding and clothing of patients must be thoroughly disinfected before being used again.
Persons afflicted with a contagious disease shall go upon the streets in such a manner as to not endanger other persons, or any guardians who shall permit children under 14 years of age to leave their homes when afflicted with any contagious disease, are subject to a fine.

C. L. Fisher slipped and fell on a wet board walk in the rear of his place of business Tuesday afternoon. Mr.
Fisher is a large man, and was severely bruised by the fall. Luckily no bones were broken, and no permanent injury will result from the mishap.

The Dallas waterworks sinking fund is being handled to good advantage. Of the $750 levied for the first year, $500 has been loaned at 5 per cent, and $250 at 6 per cent. As the city is obliged to pay less than 4 per cent on the water bonds, it will be seen that the interest received will exceed the interest paid out, long before the bonds fall due, if the sinking fund is properly handled.

The hop harvest is well under way in the Polk county yards, and rapid progress is being made in the work.
Pickers are plentiful, but the price paid for picking holds steady at 30 cents a box. As the picking progresses, growers are beginning to realize that the crop is far short of the usual average, estimates of the shortage varying from 10 to 35 per cent. The quality of the hops is better than for many years past, the berries being rich and firm. No sales have been reported this week, and it is evident that the growers will not consider any offers until the crop is in the bale.

Hon. H. V. Gates arrived in Dallas, Wednesday, from a several weeks stay in Klamath Falls, where he has been superintending necessary repairs and extensions to his light and water plants. He also made provisions for caring for the rapidly increasing business of his telephone line between Klamath Falls and Ashland. He says that Klamath Falls is prospering as never before, and still better times are predicted for the town when the proposed irrigation projects shall have been gotten under way. Mr. Gates will remain in Dallas a day or two looking after his business interests.

Word comes from Independence that a Bohemian hop picker named Rowner was drowned while bathing in the Willamette river at that place, Tuesday afternoon. The man ventured beyond his depth and was unable to reach the shore again. His companions hurried to his rescue in a boat, but were unable to reach him in time to save his life. Rowner's home was in next Monday. The exhibits are being arranged, and everything will be in readiness for the opening day. Mrs.

F. A. Wolfe is preparing a splendid exhibit of the resources and products all surprising if Polk county should again carry off first prize. Grand preparations are being made for thousands of members of this order will be present to assist in initiating 200 candidates at night.

Rev. and Mrs. A. I. Ferch Will Take Up Missionary Work in Province of Hunan.

Rev. A. I. Ferch and Miss Elsie May Canfield were married last evening at the United Evangelical parsonage. The rooms were tastefully decorated in green and white, with an abundance of potted plants. The bride and groom took their places under a floral arch, and the marriage service was soon spoken by the officiating minister, Rev. A. A. Winter.
After congratulations, light refreshments were served, and the rest of the evening was spent in a very pleasant and sociable manner with a few invited friends of the contracting parties.
The bride was attired in chiffon and carried a beautiful bouquet of carnations. Many valuable presents were received.

Mrs. Ferch is the daughter of F. J.
Canfield, a prosperous farmer of Yamhill county. She is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural College, and during the last year was one of the esteemed professors of Dallas College.
It was with reluctance that the Executive Committee of the institution accepted her resignation. The best wishes of the Board of Trustees, fellow teachers, and students accompany her upon her new voyage of life and larger field of usefulness. Mr. Ferch is a devoted young minister of the United Evangelical Church, and was recently appointed as a foreign missionary to Hunan, China. He was graduated last June from Western Union College, at LeMars, Iowa, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferch departed today on the north-bound train, and after a week or so spent with her people in Oregon, will go East to visit his mother and relatives at Odessa, Minn.
They will sail for China about the middle of October.
After December 1, they will be at home to their friends at Chancha, China, in the province of Hunan, where calls will be greatly appreciated.

Oak Lumber and Handles.
The oak sawmill in Dallas is cutting logs into lumber as rapidly as the logging camp in the hills can get them to the railroad for shipment.
The lumber is of the very best quality, and the mill finds no trouble in disposing of its output at profitable prices. The oak handle factory is running on full time, but has been seriously inconvenienced by the failure of certain machinery to arrive when expected. As soon as the lathe arrives, the manufacture of handles will begin on a large scale. The owners of the factory, who are experienced men in the business unhesitatingly declare the white grub oak timber growing on the hills around Dallas to be the best they have ever used.
