 Harmon were married at the United Evangelical parsonage in Dallas last Thursday, Rev. A. A. Winter officiating. They left at once for Keensington, Kansas, where they will make their home.
 The Dallas boys band celebrated the first anniversary of their organization Tuesday night by appearing on the streets and playing in front of several of the business houses. The music was good, and the people appreciated it. The boys' band is making good progress under the leadership of William Howe, and promises to become one of the prominent musical organizations of the Willamette Valley.
 The new fire hydrant in Germantown was tested yesterday afternoon and was found satisfactory in every respect. The gauge showed a pressure of 65 pounds. This hydrant is on high ground, a mile and a half from the reservoir, and on a dead-end main.
 The pressure is far greater than the council had expected. The new hydrant north of the LaCreole bridge shows a pressure of 85 pounds.
 Jesse Applegate, a Polk county pioneer of 1843, visited old-time friends in Dallas this week. He is now living at the Soldiers' Home in Roseburg, his eyesight having failed to such an extent as to compel him to retire from the practice of law. Mr. Applegate has done much literary work in the last few years, and promises to send the OBSERVER some more "Early Settlement" stories in the near future.

 Dallas attending to business affairs Saturday. His family accompanied him and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Muir. Mr. Pearce is gradually recovering from the injuries received in an automobile accident in McMinnville, but is still very weak.
 Albert Coon, a former resident of Falls City, died at Fresno, California, recently, aged 67 years. The remains were shipped to Grass Valley, Oregon, for burial. Deceased was a native of Wayne county, New York. He was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.
 C. H. Chapman arrived home Monday from a brief visit to his old home in Ohio. When he left Dallas a few weeks ago, it was his intention to spend the winter in the East, but soon after arriving at his destination a longing for the green fields and sunny skies of Oregon took possession of him, and he was not long in making up his mind to return to the coast.
 The four Republican clubs of Salem have planned a grand rally to be held in that city on Tuesday evening, November 1. A number of prominent Republican speakers will be present, including Hon. John H. Mitchell. A grand street parade will be held in the evening and the committee appointed by the clubs propose to make it the largest political celebration ever held in the Capital City. A number of bands have been engaged for the occasion.

SHOT IN THE ANKLE
 City Marshal J. M. Grant is Painfully Injured By Accidental Discharge of His Revolver.
 City Marshal J. M. Grant was shot in the left ankle by the accidental discharge of a .32-calibre revolver about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was standing in front of the Bank, and in removing his handkerchief from his pocket, drew the revolver out with it. The weapon fell to the cement sidewalk, and in striking was discharged, the ball entering the foot near the ankle joint. The Marshal was assisted into Belt & Cherrington's drugstore, where Dr. B. H. McCallon made an examination of the wound.
 Some of the small bones of the ankle were shattered by the ball, but the wound is not considered serious.
 Several doctors tried to locate the bullet, but were unable to find it. Dr.
 McCallon and Mr. Grant went to Portland this morning and will have an expert surgeon examine the wound.
 Mrs. E. J. Bryan, of Falls City, visited friends in Dallas yesterday.
 The O. S. N. S. and Chemawa foot-war, and was in Company A, of the Second Oregon, at the battle of Mala-don, where he was wounded.—Salem Journal.

 A joint stock company has been formed in Independence, with a capital stock of $500, to build a telephone line to Monmouth, where connection will be had with the Dallas, Falls City, Lewisville and Airline lines. The company will install a central office in Independence, and co-operate with other rural lines now established.
 Enough of the stock has been subscribed to insure the success of the venture.
 The trouble in the Methodist Episcopal Church has been settled. Rev.
 D. T. Summerville, whose assignment as pastor was protested, will go to Ashland, and Rev. Mr. McDougall, of that city, will assume the pastorate of the Albany church. As the church property at Albany is not owned by the Methodist Episcopal Church, proper, but belongs to the congregation, it was possible for the latter successfully to resist the assignment, and Rev. Mr. Summerville was rejected.

Married.
 PRICHARD - GRIGSBY - At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grigsby, two miles north of Independence, on Wednesday, October 26, by Rev. E. J. Thompson, D. D., Mr. Everett W. Prichard, of Portland, and Miss Martha J. Grigsby were united in marriage.
 The wedding was a quiet home event, the guests being confined to members of the bride's family and a sister of the groom. The bride was prettily attired for the happy occasion.
 After a wedding lunch was served, Mr. and Mrs. Prichard departed for Portland, where they will reside. The kindest wishes of many friends follow them to their new home.

For Artistic Printing.
 Five new faces of job type received at the OBSERVER job office this week.
 The latest and handsomest letters cut —nothing newer in New York or Chicago. This is the finest type we have ever bought, and we think that our customers will agree that we have had a lot of good type before. When you place your orders with the OBSER-VER, you get identically the same faces of type that are being used in the large city offices all over the United States. If you don't believe it, come in and let us show you; or, better still, bring us a job to duplicate.

Was Playmate of General Grant.
 Simpson Merrill, an old-time resident of McMinnville, died Saturday, aged 83 years. He left an aged wife and several grandchildren, among them being Mrs. M. D. Ellis, of this city. Mr. Merrill was a playmate of President U. S. Grant, in Ohio, and was named by the General's mother, who gave him her maiden name, Simpson. Mr. Merrill had lived in McMinnville for many years, and was highly respected by all.

Linnton Sawmill Sold.
 Robert Sultor, D. J. Riley and C. W.
 Potter have sold the Sultor sawmill, at Linnton, to O. N. Clark & Son, of Cheboygan, Mich. The Telegram says that the deal was practically closed Tuesday, and the consideration is presumed to be somewhere in the neighborhood of $100,000. The Linnton mill is a model plant, and has a capacity of 100,000 feet daily.
