 Our Santos coffee has an aroma that makes folks thirsty. Drink it and you will always buy it. D. C. CRIDER.
 Andrew Vercler, of Polk county, left Saturday evening for San Francisco, where he goes to meet his wife, who is enroute home from Illinois by the southern route.—Salem Statesman.
 It is very seldom that the people have an opportunity to get new goods and such a lot to pick from as they have now at the Hub. This sale is not to get rid of a lot of old goods, but to reduce our new line.
 A. J. Byers, of Independence, called on Dr. Darrin Monday for his third treatment for total deafness. He was hearing ordinary conversation and reports his son's cure of total deafness as permanent. He was cured by Dr. Darrin in 1902 in Salem.
 Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lucas and Warren Burch, of Rickreall, are sojourning in California. Mr. and Mrs. Lucas will be absent three weeks, and will visit San Francisco, Los Angeles and other points of interest. Mr. Burch expects to visit relatives at Stockton.
 Jewelers from many western cities have sent orders for Lewis and Clark souvenir gold dollars to be used as Christmas gifts. The coins are being mounted and used as tie and scarf pins, watch charms, brooches, and in many other ways.
 Miss Bertha Collins desires to announce that until further notice she will sell all hats, plumes and other millinery at heavy reductions from regular prices. Rare bargains in stylish millinery can be had at her store. The ladies are invited to call.
 Rev. M. J. Ballantyne, presiding elder of the United Evangelical church, will preach in the College chapel Sunday morning and evening. This will be the third quarterly meeting, and a full attendance of members is desired.
 The residence of A. J. Shipley, two miles west of Monmouth, burned Monday. Mr. Shipley was one of the jurors drawn for the December term of court and was in Dallas attending court when notified of his misfortune. He carried no insurance.—Independence Enterprise.
 With but one ticket in the field, the Independence city election was a quiet affair. Notwithstanding the fact that there was no organized opposition to the Citizens ticket, the heaviest vote that has been polled in Independence at a city election was cast, 223 citizens exercising the elective franchise. The ticket was printed in the OBSERVER last week.

 Galvanized Iron Gutter—better than tin—only 10 cents a foot. Your house is not complete without it. VAUGHN & WEAVER, at Wiseman's old stand.
 C. H. Morris, the jeweler, has the largest stock of cut glass ever brought to Dallas. Nothing is more elegant and appropriate for a Christmas gift.
 Subject at the Christian church Sunday morning "From the Depths to the Heights; evening, "How to get the most out of life." G. L. LOBDELL, Pastor.
 W. F. Brock, well known in Dallas as the circulation manager of the Oregonian, has secured employment with the Sacramento Union in a similar capacity.
 Mrs. David Sellers living near Dallas called on Dr. Darrin Monday, and reports her relief from eczema of the face and ear. Dr. Darrin's cures are certainly marvelous.
 Mrs. E. J. Metzger has received from Portland a complete stock of cardboard for picture mounting; also, a fine assortment of material for all kinds of fancy work for Christmas presents. Call early while the stock is complete.
 Albert Martin, the Siletz Indian charged with the murder of U. S. Grant on the Siletz Reservation a year ago last October, has been discharged from custody by Judge Bellinger, on account of insufficiency of evidence to convict.
 C. N. McArthur, of Rickreall, was in Dallas on a business visit Saturday. He spent the Thanksgiving holiday at the home of his mother in Portland, and reports an enjoyable week's visit with old-time acquaintances and friends.
 After deliberating thirty-five minutes, the jury in the United States district court returned a verdict convicting S. A. D. Puter, Horace McKinley, Emma L. Watson and D. W. Tarpley of conspiracy to defraud the United States government of its public lands. Miss Marie Ware was found not guilty. It is said that the cases of the four convicted conspirators will be appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States.
 Many of the lodges and fraternal orders in the city will hold their elections this month, and the OBSERVER will deem it a favor if the various clerks or secretaries will report the new lists of officers promptly, in order that we may be able to make the necessary changes in our Lodge Directory. This directory is printed free of cost to the lodges, and all we ask in return is that the lodges help us to keep it correct at all times.

The "Mistle Midgots" tonight.

George Kelly, a prominent stock buyer of McCoy, was a Dallas visitor, Friday.
 Prof. H. C. Seymour, principal of the Falls City public school, was in Dallas, Saturday.

 Jack Sibley, a nephew of Judge J. E. Sibley, arrived in Dallas from Fairfield, Illinois, Wednesday evening. The young man will attend Dallas College, and may decide to remain here permanently.
 The four Presidential electors from Oregon will meet in Salem on the second Monday in January to decide which of their number will be the lucky man to carry the vote to Washington. The trip is one to be desired, and the electors will probably make a selection by "drawing straws."
 John P. Doughty and Miss Ora M. Byers were married in Independence, Saturday evening, Dr. E. J. Thompson performing the ceremony. The contracting parties are worthy young people, and have the best wishes of many friends in their new relation. They will live in Monmouth.
 A. J. Gump has sold his fine farm two miles east of Dallas to Clement A. Ramsey, a recent arrival from Kansas. This farm contains 199 acres and cost Mr. Ramsey $10,000. The place was formerly the home of the late Robert Clow, and is considered one of the best tracts of land in the LaCreole valley.
 Supreme Master Artisan H. S. Hudson, of Portland, paid an official visit to Dallas Assembly, No. 46, Tuesday evening. A social session of the lodge was held, and refreshments were served during the evening. Mr. Hudson made an interesting talk in behalf of the order. The Artisan lodge in Dallas is highly prosperous.
 The Russell Comedy Company will present the comedy-drama "Peck's Bad Boy" at the Dallas City Hall next Monday evening. The advance agent was in town yesterday making arrangements for the performance. Singing and dancing specialties will be introduced throughout the play. Admission 35 cents; children 25 cents.
 Lloyd Rice, a young son of Charles Rice, fell from the ladder in the public school gymnasium Wednesday afternoon, striking the floor on his back and head. The force of the fall rendered him unconscious, and he was carried home on a hastily improvised stretcher. His injuries were not serious, however, and he was able to return to school yesterday morning.
 Coos County will spend $10,000 on a county exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Fair. The feature of the display will be a building finished entirely in Coos county woods, myrtle, oak, maple, yew, alder, ash, chittim, fir, cedar and hemlock. A plot of ground 100x100 has been accorded Coos county by the Fair management for this building and in it will be exhibited specimens of all the products of the Coos Bay country.
 A series of special revival services will be held at the Christian church during the holiday season. Mrs. Lobdell will be with us, and will sing a beautiful gospel song each night. This being our only available time for a meeting, on account of our school work, we welcome the opportunity and will do our best to have a good meeting. We extend to all a hearty welcome to attend. G. L. LOBDELL, Pastor.
 The Dallas Athletic Club is progressing nicely, already having a membership of over forty. At their last meeting they adopted their Constitution and By-Laws, and elected the following officers: President, Dr. H. L. Toney; secretary and treasurer, A. N. Holman; manager of athletics, Aurie Ford. They are remodeling the Gymnasium, with all the modern improvements that go to make an up-to-date Gym, and expect to do great things in the future. The basket ball team has been appointed, and the manager thinks he will have a fast team. He is open for challenges from any and all teams. Their opening game will be played with the Albany O. N. G. at Dallas, December 16. The Dallas team will be taken from the following line-up: Teats, Ford, Guy, Southwick, Burch, Myer and Carter. The Club-men are practicing hard for the game, and as Albany has a fast bunch of players, a lively game is promised.
