The Johnson Lumber Company has completed the installation of a circulating water system at the mill, and water will be turned on tomorrow. This system was put in at an expense of about $1000, and required the use of 2000 feet of pipe. It is so arranged that a large stream of water can be turned on in any part of the mill or lumberyard. Each of the ten hydrants is fitted with 50 feet of hose, with nozzle attached, which practically insures the mill against fire.

GOAT SHOW NEXT WEEK

Display of Blooded Angoras Will Attract Many Visitors to Dallas.

Active preparations are being made for the Oregon Angora Goat Show to be held in Dallas on Thursday and Friday of next week. The committee in charge of the arrangements have been working early and late, and are sparing no efforts to make the coming show larger and more attractive in every way than those that have been held heretofore.

Prospects for a fine exhibit are excellent, and a large attendance of visitors is expected. Goat breeders from all parts of the Northwest are taking a lively interest in the show, and many choice animals will be brought to Dallas for exhibition.

Ample display room has been provided for all exhibitors, the number of pens being limited only by the size of the building. Exhibition space will also be provided for sheep and poultry.

The Polk County Mohair Association extends a cordial invitation to every goat and sheep breeder and poultry raiser in Oregon to bring their choice stock to this show. The Dallas goat show is the only one held in the United States outside of Kansas City, and breeders are offered an excellent opportunity to advertise their choice stock at a small cost by bringing it to this city next week.

CORRECT ATTIRE FOR MEN

Almost every man has read the "fairy tales" of the Clothiers, in the newspapers and magazines. Almost every man has been disappointed and disgusted on looking at the Clothes they pretend to describe. We invite these men to call at our store to be most agreeably surprised.

It's easy to draw a picture of Men's Clothes, as they should be, but it's not so easy to make the Clothes look like the picture.

We publish no misleading illustrations but we do know how to provide our patrons with the right kind of Clothes.

If you have had Clothes troubles, Sir, we invite you to come to this store for relief.

We'll surprise you with the excellence of our Clothing, and please you with our reasonable prices.

The "Peak Sisters" entertainment will be given by local talent at the City Hall next Thursday evening.

Mrs. D. M. Metzger was taken to a Portland hospital for medical and surgical treatment yesterday. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. B. A. Millsap, of Lebanon.

The O. A. C. basketball team defeated the Monmouth Normal team by a score of 41 to 9, Saturday evening. The Times says that the Corvallis team is apparently stronger than at any past time.

The Dallas Athletic Club basketball team defeated the Salem Y. M. C. A. team by a score of 21 to 15 Saturday night. The game was fast from start to finish, and furnished plenty of excitement for the crowd.

When Governor Chamberlain read that portion of his message recommending a whipping-post for wife-beaters, he was greeted by a burst of applause. No one has any sympathy for the brute who beats the mother of his children.

Charles Bilyeu has purchased the truck business of J. L. Castle and will engage in business for himself. The transfer was completed Saturday, the new owner taking charge Monday morning. Mr. Bilyeu is an enterprising young man, and will succeed in his new venture.

Mrs. Allen Hunter died at the family home on the H. L. Fenton farm, south of Falls City, yesterday. Her death was caused by a complication of ailments. She was 61 years old, and leaves a husband, three sons and one daughter. The day of the funeral cannot be definitely announced, as the family are awaiting the arrival of a son from California. Burial will take place at Falls City.

J. G. Coyan, of Portland, organizer for the Woodmen of the World, is assisting the members of Dallas Camp in their efforts to add twenty-five names to the Camp roll. Many new names are being secured, and three or four candidates will be initiated at the meeting next Thursday night. A number of prominent Woodmen from Portland will come to Dallas to see the work. After the initiation, refreshments will be served and a general good time will be enjoyed.

The Albany Herald is eminently correct when it says: "The legislature is composed of a fine-looking body of men. The Senate averages up with its predecessors, while the House is the best and most intelligent appearing body of men gathered there in many years. Dr. Steiner, of Lakeview, is the handsomest man in the House, but the Third House Committee on Beauty has not agreed on the senator entitled to the ribbon."

A. C. Miller and E. F. Long, of Jefferson, purchased the meat market in Dallas and took possession of the property Wednesday. Messrs. Gorke and Shaw will have charge of the business until the new owners arrive. Messrs. Miller and Long are experienced butchers, and promise to conduct an up-to-date market. Among the first improvements to be added will be a delivery wagon, insuring prompt delivery of all purchases. Both gentlemen are pleased with their new location, and have decided to make Dallas their permanent home.

IMPROVE THEIR VOICES

Professor Aylsworth Organizes Large Class in Vocal Music in Dallas.

Professor W. C. Aylsworth, of Portland, organized a class in vocal music at the M. E. Church, Monday evening. The class will be divided into two grades—one for the study of rudiments, and the other for the study of choruses. At the close of the series of lessons, a recital will be given.

Two lessons will be given each week in the College chapel. The tuition is very low, and many are taking advantage of the opportunity to cultivate their voices. Pupils will be received next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. At the second meeting, the chorus more than doubled in numbers, and it is expected that a still greater number will be enrolled Tuesday evening.

Legal Blanks for sale here.

Mrs. John E. Miller Dead.

Mrs. E. N. Miller died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Salls, in Portland, Saturday. She was a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Powell, pioneers of Powell's Valley, near Portland. Her death was the result of a surgical operation, from the effects of which she was too weak to recover. She was the wife of John E. Miller, who, with two children, survives her. She was 41 years of age and an esteemed member of the Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Gresham. Mrs. Miller had many friends in Polk county, her husband having been a resident of Monmouth for many years. Before her marriage she spent much of her time in Dallas at the home of her brother-in-law, Rev. Thomas Salls, who was the pastor of the Dallas M. E. Church. Mrs. Miller was a most estimable woman, and the news of her death came as a shock to her friends in Polk county.
