WAS A PIONEER OF 1853

Mrs. Beulah Riggs Dies at Her Home Near Rickreall, Aged 85 Years.

Mrs. Beulah Riggs, an honored and respected pioneer of Polk county, died at the family home on Etna Farm, at 1:40 o'clock. Her death was the result of old age, and the end came quietly and without apparent pain or suffering. Her children and grandchildren were all present at her death-

Mrs. Riggs was born in Indiana, April 2, 1819. She moved with her parents to Illinois in 1825, and in the latter state was married to Thomas J. Riggs in 1846. Mr. and Mrs. Riggs crossed the plains to Oregon in 1853, and early in 1854 settled on a farm near Oak Grove, where both lived until the time of their death. Mr. Riggs departed this life 33 years ago, leaving his family well provided for. The widow continued to reside on the home farm, where she raised her children to manhood and womanhood, and in turn was tenderly cared for by them in her declining years. Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Riggs, five of whom are still living. They are: " 32X4 Reddicopp Peter, residence Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Miss Emma Riggs, Cass, Pierce and Seth Riggs. The youngest son, Seth Riggs, is serving Star Bakery, Frank Fuchs his second term as Commissioner of Polk county.

> Mrs. Riggs was a kind and charitable woman, and was beloved by all her neighbors and acquaintances. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church for 75 years, and lived a consistent Christian life. The funeral was held from the residence on Wednesday, at 12:30 o'clock, and burial took place in the family cemetery on Etna Farm.

Krebs Bros., of Salem, still have the strongest faith in the future of the hop market. It is learned that they have lifted the $9000 mortgage of the Lee Hop Company, of Aurora, in order to prevent the hops being placed on the market, and they have undertaken to carry the firm until June 1. Krebs Bros., have 1800 bales of hops on hand, which they refuse to sell at prevailing prices, being firmly convinced that prices will go very much higher this Spring than any point yet reached.
