 The Dallas College first basketball team will meet the Multnomah first team in Portland tonight. In the game recently played in Dallas between these teams, the Dallas boys were the winners by a score of 14 to 10. Both teams have been practicing diligently since that time, and the people of Portland may expect to see a good game tonight.
 The sporting editor of the Oregonian says that the Corvallis basketball boys have been recognized as the snappiest lot of players in the valley, and that Dallas has the reputation of being about the best team in this section. Corvallis may have the "snappiest" team all right, but the fact remains that Corvallis has been defeated in four consecutive games by the Dallas team, which, according to the Oregonian writer, is not quite so "snappy."

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS

Rev. J. E. Snyder is Preaching to Crowded Houses at Presbyterian Church.

The evangelistic campaign under the splendid leadership of Rev. W. C. Chapman, D. D., has found a large response. The great meetings held in Pittsburg, Denver, Atlanta and Los Angeles will culminate in Portland in March and April. All winter, men of ability have been working in Oregon, eighteen men from various parts of the country leading the forces.

Since Sunday last, Dallas has been in the campaign. Rev. J. E. Snyder and Singer Wakefield have held meetings in the Presbyterian church both night and day, and people have flocked to hear them.

Greater work is in store, and the merchants have courteously consented to close their places of business today from 11 a. m. until 1 p. m., in the interest of a Business Men's Meeting in the Presbyterian church, when Mr. Snyder will preach, at 11 o'clock, his great sermon on "The Reasonableness of Christianity."

Tomorrow afternoon a meeting will be held in the interest of children and youth, and on Sunday morning a Union meeting will be held in the M. E. Church. A Men's Meeting will be held in the Courthouse, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A male quartet will sing, and Evangelist Snyder will deliver his lecture to men. At 7:30 p. m., a mass meeting will be held in the Evangelical church.

So far as is known, the Sunday night mass meeting will terminate Mr. Snyder's visit in Dallas.

ST. VALENTINE PARTY
 Bachelor Maids Entertain at Home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Pollock.

Miss Elizabeth M. Pollock, assisted by members of the Bachelor Maids' Club, gave a delightful valentine party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Pollock, Tuesday evening. The parlors were prettily decorated for the occasion, green and red being the color scheme. Each guest received a valentine, and the reading of these missives proved highly amusing. Progressive trix was the game of the evening. At a late hour, a dainty luncheon was served.

Those present were: Misses Mina Hughes, Mabel Holmes, Maggie Peebles, Emma Dempsey, Viola Martin, Elizabeth Pollock, Effie Brown, Flora McCallon, Claris Brown, Nora Robertson, Ollie Howe, Minnie Robertson; Messrs. Fred West, Ralph Hill, W. L. Soehren, Ralph Adams, N. L. Guy, R. E. Williams, J. C. Hayter, Ross Ellis, B. M. Guy, John VanOrsdel, Chester Gates and Lee Smith.

The bill to amend the Dallas charter was passed by the House, Wednesday, all objections to the measure having been withdrawn. Hereafter, the City Marshal will be elected by the council in the same manner as the City Treasurer and other officers are now elected.

Valentine Party.
 Miss Vera Cosper gave a pleasant Valentine party to several of her girl friends Tuesday evening. Fortune-telling, a heart hunt, guessing contest, and a valentine basket were features of the evening. Miss Frankie Hayter won the first prize in the guessing contest. Dainty refreshments were served. Miss Cosper's guests were Misses Ruth VanOrsdel, Nola Coad, Alta Savage, Alice Grant, Iva McDaniel, Veva Burns, Mamie Allen, Leona Allen, Frankie Hayter, Bessie Hayes and Ella Butler.

Itch—Ringworm.
 E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 25, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for ring worm and it cured me completely." 50c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Wilson Drug Company.
