

Polk County Observer

Get your seats for "Mr. Bob."
Best 25c coffee in town at Howe's.
Samples free.

Remember that Crider carries Santos coffee—the very best.

The Observer office wants the printing you are particular about.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Soehren visited relatives in Hillsboro, Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Uglow and little daughter are visiting relatives in McMinnville.

Come and see those oil cans at Howe's; they never overflow your lamp.

Amber Blend, the most popular coffee in town, at Loughary & Ellis.

The newest thing out! Those Lewis and Clark dishes, at Loughary & Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elliott, of Brownsville, are the parents of a new-born son.

Drink Amber Blend coffee once, and you will use no other. Loughary & Ellis sell it.

County Coroner R. L. Chapman was in Falls City on a business visit, Wednesday.

James Olmsted, a former resident of Polk county, has moved from McMinnville to Salem.

Now is the time to paint your house. Ten per cent reduction on all paints at Crider's Grocery.

Dr. S. A. Bartlett was a Portland visitor over Sunday, returning home on Monday's evening train.

Mrs. S. J. Richmond, Mrs. Minnie Holman and Miss Leone Williams visited in Portland this week.

Arnold's Carnival Company is billed to appear in Independence, next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Samuel Orr, a prominent stock-raiser and hop farmer of Rickreall, was in Dallas on a business visit, Tuesday.

Lewis and Clark dishes, beautifully decorated with pictures of Fair buildings and Oregon scenery, just in, at Loughary & Ellis.

Miss Hallie Reynolds came up from Portland Saturday evening for a short visit at the home of her parents, Prof. and Mrs. W. I. Reynolds.

Mr. George Fiddeman, of Albany, visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Blessing in this city, a few days during the week.

Many in this vicinity have found in Osteopathy a cure for diseases which had stubbornly resisted other methods of treatment. Call for free consultation. Dr. Bartlett.

Dr. H. L. Toney, dentist; graduate of Ann Arbor, Michigan. Office upstairs Uglow building. Hours 8 to 12 and 1 to 5. Examinations free. Phone 45.

Lace curtains laundered in the latest style at the Dallas Steam Laundry. Spring house-cleaning time is here, and you should take your curtains to the Laundry if you want satisfactory work.

The drudgery of wash-day is relieved by using one of our Acme ball-bearing washing machines—the lightest running machine on earth. Don't say until you have examined this line. WAGONS & WEAVER.

The best galvanized eave-troughing at Guy Bros. 10c per foot.

Attorney Frank Holmes, of Salem, transacted business at the courthouse yesterday.

Money of private parties to loan at 6 per cent on well-improved farms. SIBLEY & EAKIN.

Eat Hollowell's delicious strawberries and be happy. For sale at Loughary & Ellis' grocery store.

Mrs. Jack Collins and little daughter, of Wrangell, Alaska, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kerr.

Harvey E. Lounsbury, traveling freight agent of the Southern Pacific Company, was a business visitor in Dallas, Wednesday.

Prof. A. M. Sanders, principal of the Roseburg High School, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abel Uglow this week.

Miss Evelyn Gehrke, of Albany, who has been visiting in Dallas for several weeks, left Monday morning for a visit in Portland.

Hon. Frank Fawc, Polk county's Democratic representative in the Oregon Legislature, was a business visitor in Dallas, Friday.

Children who are "backward" in their studies are often rendered so by eye strain. This cannot be corrected too early. I test eyes free. Dr. Bartlett.

Albert Teal's new residence in East Dallas is nearing completion. Mr. Teal has been down from Falls City, personally supervising its construction.

Next Sunday, being the 400th anniversary of the birthday of John Knox, Rev. W. T. Wardle, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will preach an appropriate sermon.

The young people of the M. E. Church were entertained at a Calendar Social at the home of Mayor and Mrs. Ed Biddle, Wednesday evening. A highly enjoyable time is reported.

A fine logging engine arrived in Dallas for the W. W. Johnson Lumber Company on Wednesday's freight train. The engine was built by the Willamette Iron Works, of Portland, and is one of the very best machines of its class. It will be taken to the logging camp on the headwaters of the LaCreele river, where the company has one engine in operation.

Charles Baker left on Tuesday for Hutchinson, Kansas, where he is associated with his brother in the grain-buying business. His son, Walter, who has a position in the office, will follow in a few weeks. Mr. Baker spends about nine months of each year in Kansas, and the remainder of the time with his family in Dallas. He expects to return home about the first of next March.

Miss Anna Hallock and her sister, Mrs. R. F. Robinson, of Portland, have associated a number of choice homes near the Exposition grounds under the name of the "1905 Home Association." Their home at No. 772 Quimby street, only six blocks from the main entrance to the Fair grounds, will afford excellent accommodation for visitors, and is headquarters for the Association. Those desiring to visit the Fair should write them, as they make no charge for their services in securing rooms.

Wagner Brothers, the machinists and wagon-makers of this city, are putting the finishing touches on a fine wagonette, and will have the vehicle on display in their implement store tomorrow. The wagonette is beautifully finished, the interior being handsomely varnished and the seats upholstered in leather. It is strongly built throughout, and will carry eleven people besides the driver. This is the first vehicle of its kind ever built in Polk county, and will prove a splendid advertisement of the Wagner factory.

Frank Lucas, Postmaster at Monmouth, has been chosen director of the Oregon Agricultural College Band, at Corvallis, for the remainder of the school year. He has been granted a temporary leave of absence from the postoffice. Mr. Lucas is a skilled musician, and is one of the best band leaders in the state.

The Lewis and Clark Fair will open a week from next Thursday. A fine program is being arranged for the opening day. President Roosevelt will not be present, but has asked Vice-President Fairbanks to attend in his stead. The President will touch the electric button that will set the machinery of the big Exposition in motion.

The Observer's job presses are running on the Dallas College catalogues this week. The catalogue this year will be much larger than those heretofore printed, and will be handsomely illustrated with half-tone cuts of the college building, dormitory, gymnasium, basketball team and members of the faculty. The book will be ready for distribution about June 1.

The people of Polk county should be careful about admitting certain classes of peddlers to their houses. Some of these men belong to the hobo element, and are the advance agents of an organized gang of house-breakers. Criminals will be numerous in Portland during the Lewis and Clark Fair, and when they are driven out of the city many of them will operate in the country towns. Beware of cheap peddlers and fakers for the next four or five months.

Wesley Vaughn, senior member of the hardware firm of Vaughn & Weaver, went to Portland last week and met his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Vaughn, their son and two daughters, who were on their way from Waterloo, Iowa, to their new home in Dallas. The family arrived in Dallas, Friday evening, and have moved into George Starr's house on Levens street. Mr. Vaughn, Sr., is favorably impressed with Oregon, and says that many of his old neighbors in Iowa are preparing to come to this state.

Marmion Lodge, No. 96, Knights of Pythias, recently instituted in this city, received its robes and lodge paraphernalia from one of the large Eastern supply houses this week. The supplies are all first-class, the officers' robes being especially rich and handsome. The new lodge is in a flourishing condition, and expects to make a large gain in membership before the end of the year. The Knights of Pythias have the third strongest lodge in the United States, outside of the insurance organizations, and the order is making a rapid growth throughout the Northwest.

The fine trotting stallion, "Young Rockwood," will be at Black's barn in Dallas every Friday and Saturday. Remainder of week on W. C. Brown farm north of Dallas. Terms, $10.

CLARENCE BROWN, Dallas, Oregon.

Horsemen, Attention! The imported German Coach stallion "Alban" will make the season of 1905 at Farmers' Feed Shed in Dallas, Polk county. Terms $10, $15 and $20. HUBBARD & McDANIEL, Dallas, Oregon.

Born, Friday, May 12, 1905, to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hayter, of this city, a daughter.

J. M. Davis, a prominent hop-grower of the Buell neighborhood, was a county seat visitor, Tuesday.

G. L. Hawkins, the Dallas marble cutter, has set up a handsome monument at the grave of the late James Ball, in the Bethel cemetery.

Many reflex nervous disorders are caused by eye strain. Hyperopia (far sight) is the most frequent cause. Eyes tested free. Dr. Bartlett.

L. Gorlinger, president of the Dallas and Falls City railroad, came up from Portland on a business visit, Tuesday. He returned to the city yesterday morning.

A called meeting of the congregation of the Presbyterian church, to act on the resignation of the Pastor, will be held next Thursday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. By order of Session.

Miss Marguerite Longacre, a well-known vocalist of Portland, and formerly of Dallas, will leave for Europe tomorrow. Miss Longacre has just returned from a successful concert tour of Alaska.

I. F. Yoakum, a leading hop raiser of the Bridgeport district, was in Dallas, Tuesday. He says the yards in his vicinity are free from vermin, but that the cool weather is retarding the growth of the vines.

Bert Wells, mail carrier on Rural Route 1, received a letter from his old home in Minnesota this week, saying that his house and barn had been totally demolished by a cyclone. The loss will amount to several hundred dollars.

City Marshal Grant desires to notify all dog owners that the annual dog tax is due and payable. After June 1, a penalty of 50 cents will be added to each license, and the Marshal will impound and kill all dogs not provided with license tags. The officers propose to enforce the dog law to the letter.

C. H. Burrows, of Elmira, N. Y., was a visitor at the home of Melvin Green, in this city, Friday. Mr. Burrows is a conductor on the New York Central railroad, and had been attending the conductors' convention in Portland. Mr. Burrows and Mr. Green were old-time neighbors and friends in New York.

Frank Lucas, Postmaster at Monmouth, has been chosen director of the Oregon Agricultural College Band, at Corvallis, for the remainder of the school year. He has been granted a temporary leave of absence from the postoffice. Mr. Lucas is a skilled musician, and is one of the best band leaders in the state.

The Lewis and Clark Fair will open a week from next Thursday. A fine program is being arranged for the opening day. President Roosevelt will not be present, but has asked Vice-President Fairbanks to attend in his stead. The President will touch the electric button that will set the machinery of the big Exposition in motion.

The Observer's job presses are running on the Dallas College catalogues this week. The catalogue this year will be much larger than those heretofore printed, and will be handsomely illustrated with half-tone cuts of the college building, dormitory, gymnasium, basketball team and members of the faculty. The book will be ready for distribution about June 1.

The people of Polk county should be careful about admitting certain classes of peddlers to their houses. Some of these men belong to the hobo element, and are the advance agents of an organized gang of house-breakers. Criminals will be numerous in Portland during the Lewis and Clark Fair, and when they are driven out of the city many of them will operate in the country towns. Beware of cheap peddlers and fakers for the next four or five months.

Wesley Vaughn, senior member of the hardware firm of Vaughn & Weaver, went to Portland last week and met his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Vaughn, their son and two daughters, who were on their way from Waterloo, Iowa, to their new home in Dallas. The family arrived in Dallas, Friday evening, and have moved into George Starr's house on Levens street. Mr. Vaughn, Sr., is favorably impressed with Oregon, and says that many of his old neighbors in Iowa are preparing to come to this state.

Marmion Lodge, No. 96, Knights of Pythias, recently instituted in this city, received its robes and lodge paraphernalia from one of the large Eastern supply houses this week. The supplies are all first-class, the officers' robes being especially rich and handsome. The new lodge is in a flourishing condition, and expects to make a large gain in membership before the end of the year. The Knights of Pythias have the third strongest lodge in the United States, outside of the insurance organizations, and the order is making a rapid growth throughout the Northwest.

The fine trotting stallion, "Young Rockwood," will be at Black's barn in Dallas every Friday and Saturday. Remainder of week on W. C. Brown farm north of Dallas. Terms, $10.

CLARENCE BROWN, Dallas, Oregon.

Horsemen, Attention! The imported German Coach stallion "Alban" will make the season of 1905 at Farmers' Feed Shed in Dallas, Polk county. Terms $10, $15 and $20. HUBBARD & McDANIEL, Dallas, Oregon.

Judge Galloway's court will be convened in Dallas, Monday, May 29. Only eleven cases appear on the docket.

William McHardy is up from Yamhill county on a visit. He is operating a sawmill in the mountains west of the town of North Yamhill.

Loughary & Ellis' grocery store is the only place in Dallas where you can find Hollowell's fine strawberries: grown on College Hill, Falls City.

Osteopathic treatment quickly relieves and cures acute and chronic diseases. Consult Dr. Bartlett free of charge, 2 doors east of R. R. on Oak St.

The handsome new dwelling houses of E. N. Hall and H. M. Ghorke, in the east end of town, are nearing completion. Work is progressing rapidly on Ralph Morrison's pretty cottage on Washington street, and Albert Teal is building a nice home south of the Christian church.

Louis Garbutt, a law student in the office of District Attorney Leroy Lomax, at Baker City, is visiting relatives in Dallas. He is making good progress in his studies, and is well pleased with his new location. He will return to Baker City about June 1.

Prof. H. M. Crooks, of Lisbon, Ohio, has accepted the office of President of Albany College, to succeed President W. H. Lee, resigned. Professor Crooks is at present superintendent of schools at Lisbon, Ohio. The new President is a young man, being only 35 years of age.

The Dallas boys' baseball team defeated the Monmouth boys' team on the college campus, Saturday morning, by a score of 27 to 3. Leon Elder pitched gilt-edged ball for the home team, and received strong support. Owing to the early hour, the game was witnessed by a small crowd.

Stockwell Cornelius, of Turner, has secured a position in Morris' jewelry store as assistant salesman and repairer. Mr. Morris now owns the Dallas switchboard of the mutual telephone companies, in the Staffin drugstore, and will devote a portion of his time to the telephone business.

D. W. Allen has sold his confectionery store in this city to W. R. McDonald, a recent arrival from Bethalto, Illinois. Mr. Allen and family will remain in Dallas until the end of the college year, and will then return to Washington, where he will take up his old profession of school teaching.

Floyd Williams has been elected captain of the O. A. C. track team. Williams, in addition to his skill as an all-around athlete, is one of the fastest sprinters in the United States. He has a record of 5 2-5 seconds in the 50-yard dash, tying the world's record. He is a son of W. E. Williams, of Airle, Polk county.

The Lewis and Clark Fair will open a week from next Thursday. A fine program is being arranged for the opening day. President Roosevelt will not be present, but has asked Vice-President Fairbanks to attend in his stead. The President will touch the electric button that will set the machinery of the big Exposition in motion.

The Observer's job presses are running on the Dallas College catalogues this week. The catalogue this year will be much larger than those heretofore printed, and will be handsomely illustrated with half-tone cuts of the college building, dormitory, gymnasium, basketball team and members of the faculty. The book will be ready for distribution about June 1.

The people of Polk county should be careful about admitting certain classes of peddlers to their houses. Some of these men belong to the hobo element, and are the advance agents of an organized gang of house-breakers. Criminals will be numerous in Portland during the Lewis and Clark Fair, and when they are driven out of the city many of them will operate in the country towns. Beware of cheap peddlers and fakers for the next four or five months.

Wesley Vaughn, senior member of the hardware firm of Vaughn & Weaver, went to Portland last week and met his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Vaughn, their son and two daughters, who were on their way from Waterloo, Iowa, to their new home in Dallas. The family arrived in Dallas, Friday evening, and have moved into George Starr's house on Levens street. Mr. Vaughn, Sr., is favorably impressed with Oregon, and says that many of his old neighbors in Iowa are preparing to come to this state.

Marmion Lodge, No. 96, Knights of Pythias, recently instituted in this city, received its robes and lodge paraphernalia from one of the large Eastern supply houses this week. The supplies are all first-class, the officers' robes being especially rich and handsome. The new lodge is in a flourishing condition, and expects to make a large gain in membership before the end of the year. The Knights of Pythias have the third strongest lodge in the United States, outside of the insurance organizations, and the order is making a rapid growth throughout the Northwest.

The fine trotting stallion, "Young Rockwood," will be at Black's barn in Dallas every Friday and Saturday. Remainder of week on W. C. Brown farm north of Dallas. Terms, $10.

CLARENCE BROWN, Dallas, Oregon.

Horsemen, Attention! The imported German Coach stallion "Alban" will make the season of 1905 at Farmers' Feed Shed in Dallas, Polk county. Terms $10, $15 and $20. HUBBARD & McDANIEL, Dallas, Oregon.

HIGH GRADE CLOTHING AT POPULAR PRICES

Most Clothiers sell clothing on its "looks." If the pattern's pretty and the cloth fair, the Suit is marked at a big profit. If the cloth looks good enough for a $15 Suit, no matter how much it costs or how it will wear—$15 the Suit is marked.

Our Clothing is sold on its tailoring, on its fit, on the wear of the fit, as well as on its looks. Tailoring isn't watched closely by most Clothiers because it isn't seen.—Then you must watch the Clothier.

What isn't seen in Our Clothing you needn't bother your head about. It's Right.

BOYS SHIRTS

We have a full line of Shirts for Boys, both Big and Little.—All sizes. We can fit the Little Fellow or the Big School Boy.

Our Boys' Shirts are made well, and made as we have them made for Men.

Bring the Boy here for his Shirts. He'll get the best and—

He'll Be Delighted.

The Uglow Clothing House MILL STREET DALLAS, OREGON

Christopher C. Patrick died of paralysis at his home in Spring Valley, Tuesday, aged 76 years.

Dr. H. L. Bancroft, eye and nerve specialist, will return to Dallas May 28. All eye troubles and chronic ills permanently relieved.

Mrs. H. B. Cosper, secretary of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, attended a meeting of the Grand Officers in Portland this week. The Grand Lodge will convene in Portland, June 6.

WILL PLAY "MR. BOB"
College Students Will Present Delightful Comedy at City Hall Next Wednesday Night.

The delightful two-act comedy, "Mr. Bob," will be presented by the students of Dallas College, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth M. Pollock, at the City Hall, next Wednesday evening. A short program of musical selections and reading will precede the presentation of the comedy. The people of Dallas are liberal patrons of entertainments by home talent, and a crowded house is assured.

PROGRAMME.
Vocal Solo, "My Old Oregon Home," (Harry Von Tilzer), Carl Williams.
Reading, "Traver's First Hunt," (Richard Harding Davis), Miss Ada Osfield.
Vocal Duett, "Oh, That We Two Were Maying!" (W. H. Neidlinger), Misses Emory McDevitt and Edna Morrison.
Reading, "The Heart of Old Hickory," (W. Allen Drumgoole), Miss Frankie Hayter.
Reading, "Trick vs. Trick," (John Seymour Wood), Walter Critchlow.
Vocal Solo, "Love's Revelry," (W. J. Lord), Miss Ella Butler.

"MR. BOB."
A Comedy in Two Acts.
CAST OF CHARACTERS.
Philip Royson.....Chester Gates
Robert Brown, clerk of Benson....& Benson.....Walter Critchlow
Jenkins, Miss Rebecca's butler....Orrie Arnold
Rebecca Luke, a maiden lady....Ada Osfield
Katherine Rogers, her niece.....Nola Coad
Marion Bryant, Katherine's friend....Florence Palmer
Patty, Miss Rebecca's maid.....Frankie Hayter
Act I—Breakfast room at Tresham; time, morning.
Act II—Scene, same as Act I; time, afternoon.

The Dallas College song, "The College 'Midst the Hills," will be sung by a students' chorus between the acts. Admission, 25 cents; reserved seats, 35 cents. The sale of seats will open at Belt & Cherrington's drugstore at 9 o'clock tomorrow, (Saturday) morning.

HIGHEST PRICE FOR WOOL.
I will pay 27 cents for any Polk county wool, clear of sacks. In other words, I will pay you 27 cents a pound for your wool, and also pay you for the sacks. Don't sell your wool without first seeing me. Call or address,

J. L. CASTLE, Dallas, Oregon.

Dr. W. H. Little's Early Risers
The famous little pills.

Mrs. Clara B. Burson and Miss Josephine Holmes drove up from McCoy and visited friends in Dallas, Monday. Mrs. Burson arrived from Beulah, Malheur county last week, and will visit friends in this county until late in June. Her brothers, Richard and Winnie, prominent stockmen of Malheur county, will attend the Lewis and Clark Fair and visit old friends in the Willamette Valley next month, and she will probably return home with them.

WHY NOT BUY THAT HAMMOCK NOW?
You will need one this summer and by buying now you gain pleasure and comfort. These spring days are too pleasant to miss. Our hammocks will save you money.

Meiser & Meiser, DALLAS, OREGON.

Re-Elect All Officers.
The meeting of the Polk County Woolgrowers' Association at Brown's Hall last Saturday was not largely attended, most of the sheep men being busy with their shearing. Several business matters of importance came up for consideration, and the best of harmony and good-feeling prevailed. George McBee was re-elected president, and H. L. Fenton was unanimously chosen to succeed himself as secretary and treasurer. These gentlemen were also re-elected president and secretary, respectively, of the Polk County Mohair Association, which organization held a meeting immediately after the adjournment of the wool meeting.

Ainsworth Chapter, No. 17, R. A. M.
Work in the Royal Arch degree has been postponed from Saturday evening, May 20, to Saturday evening, May 27. All Royal Arch Masons are cordially invited.

OSCAR HAYTER, High Priest.

Dress Goods
Something new to show you in beautiful Wash Fabrics, Merceline Silks, Organdies, Persian Lawns.—Just the things for hot days that are coming.

New Line Silk Gloves, Belts, Bags and Shell Goods.

NEW RIBBONS AT UNMATCHABLE PRICES.

Standard Prints 5c

Pollock's Cash Store
UGLOW BLDG. DALLAS, ORE.

BICYCLES Tribune and Ramblers
Light Lathe and Machine Work a Specialty.
Have your bicycle fitted with a coaster brake and re-enameled (baked on) before the riding season opens.

BASE BALL SUPPLIES.

LEE SMITH'S CYCLERY

The Leading Store of Dallas

Will have a CLOTHING SALE Tomorrow,

SATURDAY, MAY 20

All day to-morrow, from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m., we will give free of charge with each and every Men's Suit sold at our store, your choice of a "Gordon" Hat or a pair of W. L. Douglas $3.50 Shoes. We allow you the choice of any style Hats and Shoes in the house—only be sure to ask for the best—

You will be entitled to this offer on all Suits from $12.50 up.

The Beehive Store
NOT ONLY UP TO DATE, BUT A DATE AHEAD

A Reliable Place to Trade.
ODD FELLOW BUILDING, DALLAS, OREGON