The following residents of Polk county have been summoned to appear before the Federal Court in Portland, July 10, as jurors in the land fraud cases: B. I. Carey, farmer Falls City; W. O. Cook, laborer, Independence; William Faull, merchant, Dallas; H. B. Flanery, farmer, Perrydale; A. J. Goodman, merchant, Independence.

A Sunday-quiet prevailed in Dallas Tuesday the Fourth, as nearly everyone went out of town to celebrate. A few went to Portland, many to different places on the LaCreole, and others to Falls City and the favorite resting place on Brown Creek near the home of Frank Butler. All report an enjoyable day of social intercourse and rest. In the evening several families made merry with fire-crackers and the town was ablaze with fire-works. The red light from Mount Hood was plainly visible about nine o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. John H. Albert, of Salem, was seriously injured in an automobile accident Wednesday evening while riding with her husband and Mrs. Harry E. Albert, in Polk county. Her left lower jaw, her right collar-bone and three ribs were broken, and she sustained severe bruises on the face. Though an elderly person, it is thought she will recover. Mr. Albert went out in the evening to try his automobile on a steep hill, just across the river from Salem. When near the top of the hill the engine ran out of steam, and Mr. Albert applied the emergency brake. The brake would not work, and the machine ran back down the hill, and tipped over throwing the occupants into the road. Mr. Albert and Mrs. Harry Albert escaped without serious injury.

Osteopathic Results Achieved in Polk County.

The record of 46 cases of Chronic disease treated by me in the past 9 months, shows the following results:

Number treated	46
Number cured or greatly benefited	24
Total number benefited	40
Number receiving no benefit after fair trial	2
Still under treatment	10
Average number treatments given each case	16

All the above cases of disease were of from 14 months to 16 years standing, and a number of them were regarded as incurable. Nearly all had received much treatment—medical and otherwise—with little or no permanent benefit.

It is safe to assume that had sufficient treatment been taken, the average of cured and greatly benefited would have been doubled.

Among diseases cured and greatly benefited in the above list, I will mention Paralysis, Asthma, Organic Heart Disease, Consumption, Cystitis, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Stiff Joints, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Chronic Headache, Neuralgia, Deafness, Throat Trouble, Painful Menstruation, Uterine Displacements, Ovarian Congestion, Nervous prostration, Vertigo, Kidney Disease. By permission, I can give reference to many whom I have treated.

Kind reader, results similar to the above have given Osteopathy the high standing it has attained all over the United States, and has won for it special legislative recognition in over half the states. Do not confound (as many have in this vicinity) Osteopathy with massage, magnetic healing, faith cure, or any like cult. If you are interested in the attainment of health please call on me, and I trust I will be able to prove to your satisfaction, that Osteopathy is entitled to the distinction it claims, as a rational therapeutic science; able to cope with the majority of diseased conditions of the human body.
