A remarkable pageant will be seen at Portland, on the waters of the lake inside the Lewis and Clark Exposition grounds, on the night of August 31. The Emperor of Japan has instructed his commissioners to prepare a grand peace jubilee carnival, in anticipation of a speedy declaration of peace between his country and Russia. The birthday of the Crown Prince of Japan, August 31, has been selected as the day for the celebration. Consul-Aiba, the Mikado's diplomatic representative at Portland, is co-operating approved; J. D. Kelty, C. O. Merritt wish in curing rheematizm, pain in the with Japanese Commissioners Ito and C. L. Hawley appointed apprais-Kushibiki, and the affair promises to ers. be the most highly interesting of any that has been held at the exposition. Its international significance adds to its importance.

through the water in splendid procession, each float typifying some Japanese idea of historical or sentimental interest. For instance, there will be a battleship float, sixty feet long, with Japs aboard representing Admiral Togo and Marshal Oyama. Another float will be an enormous s, r7 w. dragon, and still another will be in the form of a huge chrysanthemum, Right of way over land in t 6 s, r 7 w. Right of way over land in t 6 s, r 7 w. At least a hundred other boats will tss. r7w. be on the water, lining up in the grand parade. Half a dozen electric launches, to each of which is to be attached a line of ten or more rowboats, will take part in a serpentine procession, performing wonderful evolutions, and as each boat will be brilliant with Japanese and Chinese lanterns one needs no further description in order to appreciate the fact that this promises to be a strikingly interesting feature of the carnival. There will be Japanese music, Japanese songs, Japanese juggling, fencing and acrobatic exercises. grand features, preceded or inter-American fashion.
