THE TIME TO ADVERTISE

Is at All Times, and Especially When Business is Dull.

The question "Shall I advertise?" comes to every merchant at the time when business is dull. He sometimes satisfies himself with the conclusion that while business is dull he cannot afford it. This is the time when he should make an extra effort to afford it. When business picks up, one merchant will say that he has all the business he needs, and another will say that while business is good he will advertise.

There is with many merchants a mistaken idea in regard to advertising. A man who has a business should advertise it continually. When business is slow, endeavor to liven it up, and when it does liven up, endeavor to keep it alive. Some business men say that with their particular business they have nothing to advertise. If not, then they ought to keep their names before the public continually in a way that will attract attention. If you can't advertise your goods, advertise your personality, and if people do not buy your goods because of their merit, make them buy out of respect for your pluck and ingenuity in placing them before the public. Advertise with all the money you can spare. It pays.

A Thousands Dollars Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, and then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1000 worth of good." Belt & Cherrington.

Democratic candidates in Malheur county are getting thick as thieves at a big fair, says the Vale Oriano.

Chronic Constipation Cured.

One who suffers from chronic constipation is in danger of many serious ailments. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation as it aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels, restoring the natural action of these organs. Commence taking it today and you will feel better at once. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Belt & Cherrington.

Bend started in 1906 entirely clear of debt.

How to Avoid Pneumonia.

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop, of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." Belt & Cherrington.

Over 20,000 logs are in the two forks of Coos river, awaiting higher water.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are the best thing for stomach troubles and constipation I have ever sold," says J. R. Cullman, a druggist of Potterville, Mich. They are easy to take and always give satisfaction. I tell my customers to try them and if not satisfactory to come back and get their money, but have never had a complaint." Baker City is said to have the second finest hotel in Oregon.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Stafrin Drug Co.

WESTERN OREGON

Land of the cloud-mists, of emerald green,
Kissed by the fairies with garments of sheen.

Land of the rain, genial, welcome and warm,
Where cyclone nor tempests ere give their alarm.

Land of the flowers, of ferns and of mosses,
Where farmers fear not for crops nor for losses,

Land sought by ships flying flags of the nations,
To gather our fruit and grains for their rations.

Land of great rivers, cascades and of pools,
Whence come from Old Ocean the salmon in schools.

Land of huge ranges, sun-kiss'd and snow-clad,
Whence tumble the trout streams rushing and mad.

Land where the deer flies from cougar so bold,
Where bear makes its lair in fir trees so old.

Land of the grouse, of pheasant and quail,
Of wild duck and widgeon, of teal and of rail.

Land of cherry Royal Anne, of berry Magoon,
Of apples and peaches, of pear and of prune.

Land of great hopfields, with trellises green,
Where old folks and children, and lovers are seen.

Land rich in silver, and copper, and gold,
The quartz mill so mighty, the placer so old.

Land where the health giving rain-mist is sought,
Where vigor increases, where cures are wrought.

Land of pine and of cedar, of hemlock and fir,
Woods dense and mammoth, where winds seldom stir.

Land intersected by Cascade and Coast Range,
Where flows the Willamette, the Columbia so strange.

Land with its hoary sentinels of snow,
Keeping faithful their tryst o'er valleys below.

Land where the East and the West clasp their hands,
Project great endeavors, weave closer their bands.

O beautiful Oregon, let me utter thy praise,
Let me speak of thy glory, let me love thee always.

I love thy great ranges, thy tiniest rill,
The cataracts' music, the rains that distill.

I love thy green mosses thy emerald glades,
The wealth of thy forests, the depths of thy shades.

O beautiful land, with sunshine and haze,
Let me love thee forever, in thee end my days.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903. "Having been troubled with Lumbago, at different times and tried one physician after another, then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers." Sold by Stafrin Drug Co.

Of all the paper railroads built into central Oregon not one of them taps the Prineville country, and, in fact, they all give that city a wide berth, says the Review.

Rev. Carlisle P. B Martin, L. L. D.

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." Sold by Stafrin Drug Co.

The Coos bay channel, claims the North Bend Harbor, is constantly deepening, even when the government does nothing to improve it.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker of Porterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Stafrin Drug Co.

Strength.

Strength is one of the distinguishing attributes of a healthy man. In one of the most beautiful poetic flights known to literature, the inspired singer finds no finer figure to express the sun's majestic rising than "rejoicing like a strong man to run a race."

Who has not known such a man, the picture of health, hardy and athletic, suddenly begin to fail? At first he has a slight cough, which he laughs at. Presently the cough becomes deep seated. The scales tell him he is losing flesh. A little later and the lungs bleed. He grows weaker and more and more emaciated. Each day sees some circumscribing of his activities, until at last he does not leave the house, and friends shake their heads and say, "Poor fellow! Who would ever have believed it possible?"

But what are the doctors doing all this time! Doing their best probably, but usually doing no lasting good. The emaciation grows more marked, the weakness more apparent, until at last the sick man hears the sentence, "There's no hope."

It is just at this very point of hopelessness that the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has proven the first step to health to many a sufferer. It cures the cough, stops the hemorrhage, heals the lungs, puts sound flesh upon the body, and sends the man back to the activities of life as strong as ever. It's a wonderful statement, but it is literally true, that "Golden Medical Discovery" has cured time and time again when all other means had absolutely failed to benefit.

There is no alcohol in the "Discovery," and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

Persons suffering from disease in chronic form are invited to consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is private and the confidences of the sick are guarded with professional privacy. The success of the methods and medicines of Dr. R. V. Pierce, may be inferred from the fact that of the thousands treated by him and his assistant staff of nearly a score of physicians ninety-eight per cent. have been perfectly and permanently cured.

"A SURE CURE."

"I beg to state that I have used three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery since my correspondence with you, and find great improvement in my case," writes Mr. A. F. Novotny, of New York, N. Y., Box 1457. "I feel that I am in need of no more medical assistance. When I started to take your medicine I had a regular consumptive cough, of which I was afraid, and everybody cautioned and warned me concerning it. I was losing weight rapidly, was very pale and had no appetite whatever. Now my condition is changed entirely. I do not cough at all, have gained eight pounds in weight, have recovered my healthy color, and my appetite is enormous. I can recommend your medicine to everybody who may be in need the same, as it is a sure cure, no humbug as are most other patent medicines, and is far superior to all similar medicines."

THE DOCTOR WAS WRONG.

"When I commenced taking your medicines, eighteen months ago, my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. Cora L. Sunderland, of Chaneyville, Calvert Co., Md. "At times I could not even walk across the room without pains in my chest. The doctor who attended me said I had lung trouble and that I would never be well again. At last I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's medicines. I bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' took it, and soon commenced to feel a little better, then you directed me to take both the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Favorite Prescription,' which I did. Altogether I have taken eighteen bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' twelve of the 'Favorite Prescription' and five vials of 'Pellets.' I am now almost entirely well, and do all my work without any pain whatever, and can run with more ease than I could formerly walk."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 large pages and 700 illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps to defray expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in cloth binding, or only 21 stamps if paper covers are desired. Address Dr. R. V Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
