PERFORM LAST SAD RITES

Masons of High Degree Take Part in Funeral Ceremonies over Remains of Late Charles F. Belt.

The solemn and impressive mid-night funeral ceremonies of the Scottish Rite Freemasonry were held over the remains of the late Charles F. Belt, at the Methodist Episcopal church, Saturday night. The attendance of friends was large, notwithstanding the lateness of the hour, and every seat in the large building was occupied when the services began at 12 o'clock. The beautiful service was conducted by Supreme Judge F. A. Moore, of Salem, assisted by Scottish Rite Masons of Marion and Polk counties.

The officers taking part in the ceremony were: Judge F. A. Moore, Judge George H. Burnett, G. G. Bingham, Dr. A. B. Gillis, Hal D. Patton, F. K. Lovell and E. M. LaFore, of Salem, and Oscar Hayter, of Dallas. The members of the Guard of Honor were Dr. E. L. Steiner, of Salem; Dr. Mark Hayter, B. E. Williams and E. C. Kirkpatrick, of Dallas. Other Scottish Rite Masons in attendance were: H. Hirschberg and Dr. O. D. Butler, of Independence; J. B. V. Butler, of Monmouth; Edgar J. Bryan, of Falls City; Morgan Baker, O. O. Johnson and E. C. Apperson, of McMinnville.

The church was again filled to its capacity at the Sunday afternoon funeral exercises, and many people were unable to gain admission. This service was brief and simple, but beautiful and impressive throughout. Dr. Thompson's sermon was a message of comfort and consolation to the bereaved relatives and friends, and the tribute of the gentle old pastor to the memory of his departed friend was most tender and appropriate. Music was furnished by a special choir consisting of Mrs. G. W. Conkey, of Independence; Mrs. D. M. Metzger and Mr. R. E. Williams, of Dallas, and Dr. R. E. L. Steiner, of Salem, with Miss Olive Smith as organist. The floral offerings were sent from friends in all parts of the state and were strikingly beautiful and artistic. Especially handsome were the tokens from the Masonic lodges, the Dallas Woodman Camp, and the local lodge of Knights of Pythias.

At the conclusion of the service at the church, the remains were given in charge of the Masonic fraternity for burial. The pallbearers were W. H. Dancy and Dr. Steiner, of Salem; D. L. Keyt, of Perrydale; Edgar J. Bryan, of Falls City; N. S. Burkh, of Rieckreath; and E. C. Kirkpatrick, of Dallas. A large crowd of friends and relatives joined in the sad procession to the Odd Fellows' cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest with Masonic honors by the officers of Jennings Lodge, No. 9, A. F. & A. M.

POOL WILL CLOSE MARCH 15

Mohair Growers Hold Enthusiastic Meeting and Decide to Sell Their Product at Public Auction.

The Polk County Mohair Association met in Brown's Hall, in this city, Saturday afternoon and decided by a unanimous vote to pool the 1906 mohair clip. The meeting was largely attended, nearly 100 goat raisers being present.

The pool will be formed on the same plan that has been followed for the last nine years, save that growers will be required to sign a contract for delivery. The pool will be closed March 15, after which a date will be fixed for selling the mohair at public auction.

The growers will pay to the association 1 cent for each pound of mohair delivered, to pay for sacks and incidental expenses. The importance of careful shearing and neat packing was strongly urged, and the growers pledged themselves to furnish clean mohair.

The meeting to fix a date for selling the mohair will be held in Dallas on Saturday, March 17, at 10 o'clock p. m.

Secretary H. L. Fenton desires to inform the growers that free sacks can be obtained at the following places outside of Dallas: Miller & Alcorn and F. J. Chambers, King's Valley; Simpson Bros., Elsie, T. A. Rigby, of Monmouth; D. C. Walker, Bull; Peter Cook, Ballston; D. L. Keyt, Perrydale; W. B. McKown, Falls City.

Some of the growers have already begun shearing, and the greater number of fleeces in the county will be ready for delivery before March 15.

VOTERS SLOW TO REGISTER

Less Than 50 Per Cent of Electors Have Enrolled Their Names in County Clerk's Office.

If the registration of voters can be taken as any indication of interest in the approaching primary election, the new-fangled, populist plan for placing candidates in the field was not as seriously in demand as its promoters would have had the people believe. With two months gone, and less than 40 days remaining in which to register, less than one-half of the voters of Polk county have qualified to take part in the election, and it is going to require some lively rustling on the remainder of the names enrolled before the books close on April 10. The total registration in Polk county two years ago was 2590; this year it is estimated that the number of voters is not less than 3000. Of this latter number, only 1487 have registered to date.

The following table shows the number and name of each precinct in the county, the total registration by precincts two years ago, and the number of voters that have registered this year. The figures will be revised each week until the books are closed for the primary election.

No.	PRECINCT	1904	1906
1	Douglas	123	35
2	Jackson	124	80
3	Salt Lake	85	26
4	Spring Valley	75	50

Falls City Notes

Our school has been closed this week on account of the measles.

L. C. Tyler, of Alexander, Ohio, is here visiting his cousin, H. C. Seymour.

V. P. Fiske has been here several days, working to organize a W. O. W. lodge.

Stet Cook, who was injured at the mill a few days ago, is much improved.

E. C. Kirkpatrick and Col. Matthews, of Dallas, were seen on our streets, Tuesday.

T. S. Brown, of Salt Creek, has been here taking care of his sons, who have the measles.

Several men have been working on the Wagner building, which is being changed into a bakery.

Sidney Trask, of Corvallis, has arrived here and will take charge of F. A. Lucas' store as manager.

Improvements on the Lucas hall are still being made. The latest is an elevator, which will be put in soon.

A brother of H. W. Bancroft lately arrived here from the East with his family, and expects to make this his home.

ORATORS WILL COMPETE

Local Tryout Will Be Held by Dallas College Students Next Friday Night.

The local oratorical contest of the Dallas College prohibition club will be held in the chapel, Friday evening, March 9. The winner in this contest will represent Dallas in the state contest to be held in Corvallis, April 13.

The orators and their subjects are: Lillian McVicker, "The Individual Citizen"; Edna Hayes, "The Benefits of Prohibition"; Dean Collins, "Hereditarity"; Walter Critchlow, "Co-operation"; Clarence Dodson, "Retributive Justice"; Orrie Arnold, "My Nation's Life."

Special music will complete the program. An admission of 10 and 15 cents will be charged to help defray the expenses of the winning orator's trip to Corvallis.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to tender my sincere thanks to the many friends who were so kind during the last illness and after the death of my husband, and to assure them that their kindness will always be gratefully remembered.

MRS. EMMA BELT.

The Mission Band children of the United Evangelical church will render a public program next Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. You are cordially invited to attend this service.
