WALTER L. TOOZE FOR CONGRESS

Walter L. Tooze, candidate for congress from Woodburn, has not burdened himself with a multitude of promises which he knows he could never fulfill. He has touched upon all the important issues before the people of the first district in his platform and wrote it from his own knowledge of conditions in Oregon. His platform was not written for the purpose of making a run for congress, but embodies those economical matters so important to the people of this district, with which he has had personal experience. He advocates a large number of "planks," but if you will examine his public and private life you will find that he has had ACTUAL PERSONAL EXPERIENCE in the issues incorporated in his platform. His platform is a summary of needed legislation which his long TRAINING has brought him to thoroughly understand. He has known for years that the honored members of the G. A. R. have been sorely neglected by the Government in the matter of liberal pensions. He has known for years of the discouraging efforts of the Indian War veterans to secure relief. He has known for many years the drawbacks to the postal service, and is the first man to advocate better pay for the rural carriers. He has been aware, for a long time, of the "bottled-up" conditions of our coast harbors and the undeveloped districts of Southern Oregon. All these things and many more Mr. Tooze has been cognizant of for many years, and his platform shows on its face that it is not, nor was it intended to be, a campaign document created for the express purpose of getting him into congress. One of his opponents has remarked that he is not seeking congressional honors as a matter of finance. Neither is Mr. Tooze. Mr. Tooze has been making his own way in the world ever since childhood and has asked no man to earn him his livelihood. He has a competence, as is well known, and he does not need the emoluments of the office. He believes that after 20 years hard service in the ranks of the Republican party, all the while spending his time and freely giving his services to the interests of his party, that he is, by all that is right and fair, entitled to this honor. He was ever ready at the beck and call of the moment, and when the silver issue threatened to wreck and ruin the party, he was found upon the stump boldly appealing to his comrades to stand by the party and not allow the disintegrating issue to destroy the party.

His great originality and independence of spirit has again showed itself during the present campaign. When he decided to make the run for congress he did not run hither and thither to consult with bosses and wealthy interests but wrote his own platform. Without waiting for favorable wind he launched it on its merits and he has not departed one iota from it during his present campaign. The platform represents his ideas upon timely issues moulded by long years of practical experience. He has lived among the producers and laborers. He knows their needs for he was one of them and is one of them. Today he is a successful dealer in hops and other produce and has actual knowledge of all these matters. He promises to stand by Roosevelt in his railroad rate plan and his selection of position and his decision to stand by the President is based upon many years experience as a shipper.

Walter L. Tooze expects to go to congress with his hands free, and, coupled with inexhaustive energy and the spirit of determination to succeed (characteristic of him), he will make a strong representative of the common people. He realizes fully the great opportunity which rests in his hands. If he can succeed in reaching the helping hand of congress for the neglected harbors, the poorly paid rural carriers, the old soldiers, sailors and Indian War veterans and secure Government aid to the general improvement of the public highways, he well knows that he will have been a good representative of the people and that he has done his best for their interests and that his work will be appreciated. A vote for Walter L. Tooze means the timely recognition of his 20 years service to the party and a keen sense of discrimination by the voter as to the candidate entitled to the honor.

M. D. ELLIS

Sold Dairy Herd.

W. O. Morrow, of Polk county, has sold his dairy herd of grade Jerseys to Harrison & Yoder, of Yakima valley Wash., and will grow another herd, as he now has a number of young stock. Harrison & Yoder shipped about three car loads out of Polk county. Mr. Morrow did not state the exact price, but said it was in the neighborhood of $50 per head. Dr. Crowley, of Monmouth, was among those selling Jerseys to Harrison & Yoder. He sold fourteen head. They also got a herd near Lincoln, and picked up a number from various dairymen and farmers.—Salem Statesman.

"Hoyt for State Treasurer" is the slogan of the many friends of Mr. Ralph W. Hoyt. Mr. Hoyt is gaining strength every day through his liberal policy of "State funds collected in a county should remain on deposit in that county."

Good Words For Cake.

The editor of the Sherman County Observer in his issue of March 9, has the following to say of H. M. Cake of Portland, candidate for United States Senator:

"The writer knows personally that Mr. Cake has been one of the foremost men of Oregon in originating and helping to get under headway the Oregon Development League and its good work for Oregon, and the educating of the people to a realization of what this state is and the resources of our commonwealth. This was just the work to broaden a man for the responsible position of United States Senator for Oregon.

"Also we know of our own knowledge that when Mr. Cake decided that he would ask the voters of Oregon to send him to Washington as their Senator, he resigned his office as President of the Portland Commercial Club, before he made his senatorial aspirations known. He is a broad minded gentleman, and is well able, from his long term of years amongst us, to fitly represent our State in the United States Senate at a time when we need our best men as we never have before.

"The commercial era now dawning for us in the far East, and the near approach of the completion of the Panama Canal, demands that we send our best men to Washington; men who are not disinterested, but who are interested in the upbuilding of our entire state."

The Better Way

The tissues of the throat are inflamed and irritated; you cough, and there is more irritation—more coughing. You take a cough mixture and it eases the irritation—for a while. You take and it cures the cold. That's what is necessary. It soothes the throat because it reduces the irritation; cures the cold because it drives out the inflammation; builds up the weakened tissues because it nourishes them back to their natural strength. That's how Scott's Emulsion deals with a sore throat, a cough, a cold, or bronchitis.

JUDGE E. B. WATSON

Peoples Republican Candidate for United States Senator, at Direct Primaries, April 20.

The most popular and prominent candidate for the nomination before the people in the primary election for the office of United States Senator is Hon. E. B. Watson, Portland. Judge Watson was born in Iowa, and crossed the plains with his parents in 1853. The first stop in Oregon was near Eugene, from which place they moved to Douglas county the following year. The early years in Judge Watson's life were spent upon the farm, and his early education gained in the district school. Later he attended the Pacific University from which institution of learning he was graduated in 1896. Taking up the study of law in the office of his brother, Hon. James E. Watson, in Roseburg he was admitted to practice in 1898. Since that time Mr. Watson has been continually engaged in the legal profession. He served Jackson county both as county judge and county clerk, in 1880 he was elected to the Supreme Bench of the State of Oregon, where he served until 1884 when he came to Portland. Since which time Judge Watson has been engaged in the practice of law in the city. A wide acquaintance with the affairs of this State and a deep interest in everything pertaining to its welfare coupled with a splendid record of ability of a high order together with a record unspotted and loyalty to the Republican party unquestioned makes Judge Watson an ideal candidate for his party to present to the Legislature for its endorsement.
