There is a feeling in the air that the Republicans of Oregon, with a normal majority of 10,000 votes, are becoming tired of seeing the best offices in the state filled by Democrats, and are waiting until the June election to place these offices in Republican hands again, where they rightly belong. Is Oregon to be a Republican state or a Democratic state? Here we have a Democrat for Governor, a Democrat for United States Senator, a Democrat for Supreme Judge, a Democratic Mayor of Portland and a Democratic Sheriff of Multnomah county, and all elected, directly or indirectly, by Republican votes. Small wonder that the Democratic newspapers protest against the Republican papers urging a straight party vote. The Democrats have all to gain and nothing to lose by breaking up party lines in Oregon, and, being in the minority, cannot be blamed for protesting against a straight party vote. It is shrewd politics on the part of the minority to pursue such a course, which is all the better reason why a Republican should cast a straight Republican ballot in the approaching election. The Republicans have allowed themselves to be cat-hopped long enough.

Although the books have been open 15 days since the primaries, only 22 voters have registered. Many of the larger precincts have not furnished a single registration in this period of time. The books will be finally closed next Tuesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, and it is safe to predict that no great number of voters will register between now and the closing time. Out of about 3000 voters in the county, only 2200 have registered. Of this number, 1400 are Republicans and 700 are Democrats. The new primary method has taken most of the excitement out of elections, and it would not be at all surprising if the vote of June should prove fully as light as that of April.

W. C. Hawley, Oregon's next Congressman from the First District, will speak in Rickreall on Friday, June 1, at 2 p. m., and in Dallas in the evening at 8 p. m. Mr. Hawley has already spoken at Independence and Falls City, and was greeted by large crowds at both places. He is an able talker, and no voter should fail to hear him.

The Republican Congressional Committee met in Salem, Saturday, and elected Claud Gatch chairman for the ensuing two years. A resolution thanking Walter L. Tooze, the retiring chairman, for his untiring efforts in the past was adopted by an enthusiastic vote. Mr. Tooze responded to the resolution, pledging his active and earnest support to every man on the Republican ticket.

A Linn county farmer milking six cows, and selling his butter-fat at 27½ cents, netted $60.52 for the month of April. It would take pretty smooth argument to convince that farmer that dairying doesn't pay.

In these days of strife between political parties we should not forget that we are, after all, just a band of brothers here on earth—traveling from the cradle to the grave. The same thing can be said of matters of business and social relations. We live side by side, our children attend the same schools and Sunday schools, and after the smoke of battle has cleared away, we should and will still be friends and neighbors. At best, life is short, and we get out of it a full measure of sorrow. Let us, then live as one big good-natured family. With this idea in view only can we hope to build up and prosper.—Brownsville Times.

M. D. Ellis, Republican candidate for Sheriff of Polk county, was in town the latter part of last week looking after his political interests. Mr. Ellis is well known here and will get a large vote from this place. He is well qualified for the position to which he aspires, and if elected will discharge the duties of that office in an honorable and business-like manner. —Falls City Logger.

Public School Exhibit.

The public school exhibit given by the teachers of the Dallas public school Thursday afternoon was largely attended by the patrons of the district. An exhibit of the general work of the pupils for the year had been carefully arranged by the teachers in their respective rooms and most of the afternoon was spent by the parents in examining the work of their children. State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. H. Ackerman gave a very pleasing address to the parents, and Superintendent Starr also delivered a short address on educational topics. The exhibit was highly creditable to both teachers and pupils, and a pleasant afternoon was spent in looking over the work of the year.

NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

Let the greatest athlete have dyspepsia and his muscles would soon fail. Physical strength is derived from food. If a man has insufficient food he loses strength. If he has no food he dies. Food is converted into nutrition through the stomach and bowels. It depends on the strength of the stomach to what extent food eaten is digested and assimilated. People can die of starvation who have abundant food to eat, when the stomach and its associate organs of digestion and nutrition do not perform their duty. Thus the stomach is really the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is "weak" the body will be weak also, because it is upon the stomach the body relies for its strength. And as the body, considered as a whole, is made up of its several members and organs, so the weakness of the body as a consequence of "weak" stomach will be distributed among the organs which compose the body. If the body is weak because it is ill-nourished that physical weakness will be found in all the organs—heart, liver, kidneys, etc. The liver will be torpid and inactive, giving rise to biliousness, loss of appetite, weak nerves, feeble or irregular action of heart, palpitation, dizziness, headache, backache and kindred disturbances and weaknesses.

Mr. Louis Paré, of Quebec, writes: "For years after my health began to fail, my head grew dizzy, eyes pained me, and my stomach was sore all the time, while everything I would eat would seem to lie heavy like lead on my stomach. The doctors claimed that it was sympathetic trouble due to dyspepsia, and prescribed for me, and although I took their powders regularly yet I felt no better. My wife advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—and stop taking the doctor's medicine. She bought me a bottle and we soon found that I began to improve, so I kept up the treatment. I took on flesh, my stomach became normal, the digestive organs worked perfectly and I soon began to look like a different person. I can never cease to be grateful for what your medicine has done for me and I certainly give it highest praise."

Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good."

To gain knowledge of your own body—in sickness and health—send for the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A book of 1008 pages. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

MACHINERY IS ORDERED

Dallas Cheese Factory Will Soon Be Ready to Begin Operations.

Machinery for the Dallas cheese factory has been ordered and will probably arrive on tonight's train. Some little difficulty was experienced in securing a plant, owing to the destruction of the supply houses in San Francisco by the recent earthquake, but Mr. Robinson had the good fortune to find a suitable outfit in Portland and is now ready to proceed with the installation of the machinery.

The factory will occupy a portion of the ice factory building on Main street. Mr. Robinson will personally superintend the remodeling of the building and placing of the machinery, and will probably remain in Dallas until the factory is running in good shape. He will then turn the business over to one of his most experienced employes, who is now on his way to Dallas from Coos county to take charge of the plant.

Mr. Robinson says the new manager is a skilled cheese-maker and a man that understands the business in its every detail. Work in placing the machinery will be rushed, and, as the factory will secure its steam from the ice factory boilers, it is hoped to have the plant in operation within the next two weeks.

While butter is selling at a low figure, the price of cheese continues high, and farmers selling their milk to cheese factories have made big money since the first of the year. Mr. Robinson informs us that his Coos county factories paid the farmers 34½ cents for their April butter fat.

The new factory will prove an important industry for the farmers of western Polk county, and incidentally, for the merchants of Dallas. It is to be hoped that the concern will receive the liberal encouragement and support of every farmer and business man, so that it may be conducted on a successful and paying basis from the start. The operation of a first-class cheese factory will add greatly to the prosperity of Dallas and all of the surrounding country.

Destruction of San Francisco.

I have a prospectus of Bishop Fallow's great book on the "Destruction of San Francisco," which I will sell to some one who has time to get out and use it right away. There will be thousands of these books sold in the next few weeks, and big money will be made by the agents who handle them. You can just as well make some of this money. I have other business and cannot handle it. If you have never canvassed, I will give you advice and help you start.
