M. B. Grant, of Dallas, was elected Second Vice-President by the Association of Rural Mail Carriers in Portland last week. Mr. Grant is a faithful employe of the Government, and takes an active interest in the welfare of the rural mail carriers.
The Dallas Tribunes defeated the Dayton boys' baseball team Monday afternoon by the decisive score of 12 to 5. A large crowd attended the game and greatly enjoyed the excellent playing of both teams. The Tribunes are fast developing into a first-class ball team.
The electric light office is to be moved to more commodious quarters in the building recently vacated by Heath & Cornes, where a complete stock of supplies and fixtures will be carried.
Attention is called to the electric light advertisement of the Willamette Valley Company on Page 1 of this paper, in which Manager Rhodes sets forth some excellent reasons why you should install electric lights in your house, if you are not already using them. The new company is out for business, and the people of Dallas are assured that customers will be given good service, low rates and courteous treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McGraw, of San Francisco, are visiting Mrs. Nancy Wise at Perrydale. Mrs. Wise will soon go to Weston, Umatilla county, to make her home.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stowe feel very thankful toward the people of Dallas for the generous financial aid received in helping them to rebuild their home after the destructive fire which destroyed all their household goods.
Pen sketches of scenes from "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," displayed in the windows of many Dallas stores this week, have attracted much attention and have been the subjects of highly favorable comment. The artist is Miss Genevieve Aldrich, one of the accomplished young ladies who is to take part in the performance tonight.
The official count of the vote of Polk county was made Wednesday by County Clerk E. M. Smith, assisted by Justice Hardy Holman, of Dallas, and Justice B. Wilson, of Independence. The count did not make any material change in the first returns. The official figures are printed elsewhere in this paper in a shape that will be convenient for reference.
Burch & Reiss' circus and trained animal show gave two performances in Dallas, Tuesday. A large crowd attended the afternoon show, and at night there was not a vacant seat in the large tent. The performance of the trained ponies, dogs and monkeys was a rare treat for the children, and was greatly enjoyed by the older people. A number of the animal people were seen in Dallas last year with the Cozad dog and pony show. Messrs. Burch & Reiss have a nucleus for a menagerie, and also give a fine exhibition of athletic work, by skilled performers, in connection with the animal acts. The proprietors are pleasant, courteous gentlemen, and their employes are a well-behaved lot. The show is furnishing clean and enjoyable entertainment, and is deserving of liberal patronage.

A meeting of the Local Option Club will be held in the lecture room of the Evangelical church at 8 o'clock tonight. All people interested in civic righteousness are invited. W. P. MILLER.
Dr. Arthur R. Butler, an examining physician in the Civil Service Department at Washington, in ordering the Observer sent to his new suburban home in Newington, Virginia, writes: "City life with three children is too strenuous, so I have moved them out to watch the grass grow."
The Lee Willard Company closed a three nights' engagement at Woodman Hall, Friday night, with the enjoyable comedy, "A Gay Deceiver." Owing to the political speaking, commencement exercises and other counter attractions, the attendance was small on the closing night. The play was presented with as much care, however, as if the house had been filled to overflowing. Mr. Willard is a conscientious actor, and is certainly doing his best to give the people of the interior towns a superior class of plays. He has surrounded himself with a clever company, and has used rare judgment in selecting his repertoire. He promises to return to Dallas next Fall with a still better company, and announces that he will include this city in his regular circuit if sufficient encouragement is offered at that time.

IN CUPID'S REALM
Marriages Take Place in Two Well-Known Polk County Homes This Week.
The pleasant farm home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baxter, near Ballston, was the scene of a pretty wedding, Wednesday afternoon, when their daughter, Lillie May, became the bride of Mr. George A. Wood, of Walla Walla. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock, Rev. Barton Z. Riggs, of Salem, officiating.
The house was handsomely decorated with roses, ferns, and Oregon grape, and the young couple stood before a beautiful bank of evergreens and trailing vines while the ceremony was being pronounced. The bride was prettily attired in white silk and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The wedding march was played by Mr. William Caldwell, of Dallas. Many handsome gifts were received.
The wedding guests were: Rev. and Mrs. B. Z. Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Conner, Mrs. Fannie Mulkey, Mrs. Martha Conner, Misses Lydia Campbell, Neva Campbell and Belle Conner, Messrs. C. L. Starr, William Caldwell, L. H. and Frank Conner.
CHAMBERLAIN—ALDERMAN.
A beautiful home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Alderman, at Falls City, Wednesday, when their daughter Mina and Mr. J. O. Chamberlain took the vows that made them husband and wife. Rev. A. H. Dodd was the officiating clergyman.
The bride was tastefully gowned in cream silk organdie, and carried a bouquet of white roses. At 7 o'clock, lunch was served, after which the guests took their leave of the happy couple.
Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain are held in the highest esteem in Falls City, where they will be at home to their friends after June 15.
Vote on Prohibition.
Prohibition was defeated in Polk county by 269 votes. The question came last on the ballot, and several hundred voters did not express their choice one way or the other. The vote by precincts follows:

THANK YOU

Spring is with us once again and all the world seems full of gladness. We think it a most fitting time to thank our friends for their liberal patronage during the past season.

Every effort has been made to give each patron of this store the fullest measure of satisfaction possible. So well have our efforts to please you been appreciated that it has encouraged us to do still greater things, and we hope to give our patrons better values this coming season than ever before.

BUY YOUR CLOTHING AT THIS PLACE.

Stores don't own people now, as in the day gone by—now you rather own the store—making that one yours which pleases you best. There is satisfaction in it all for you to invite your friends "to the store where I generally go."

Our Clothes have made for us a mighty host of friends in this vicinity who will gladly testify to their goodness. There's just one thing we would like to have you do—stop in some day and spend ten minutes looking over this Spring stock. That's all.

Make this your store, and remember your presence is always a pleasure.

Very truly yours,

The Uglow Clothing House

Commencement Week Ends.
The commencement exercises of Dallas College came to an end with the annual Alumni banquet, Wednesday night. In the morning, a class of promising young men and young women received their diplomas of graduation. The recital given by Miss Smith's piano pupils on Monday evening evidenced skillful and thorough training. The lecture before the literary societies on Tuesday evening by Dr. Burgette Short, of Portland, was an intellectual treat. At a trustees meeting, Wednesday afternoon, Dr. C. C. Poling handed in his resignation as President of the school, and the board elected Professor D. M. Metzger to take charge of the work for the coming year. The graduates receiving their diplomas Wednesday were Hattie Teats, Edna Hays, Bert Teats, Wintha Palmer and Henry Pfandhofer.

Justice and Constables.
The only contest for the offices of Justice of the Peace and Constable was in District No. 5, where B. Wilson (Dem.) defeated A. Wilson (Rep.) for Justice by a vote of 339 to 238. In the same district, J. H. Moran (Rep.) was elected Constable over A. S. Newton (Dem.) by a vote of 402 to 288. Other district officers elected are:
District No. 1—O. E. Focht, justice; E. F. Craven, constable.
District No. 2—J. R. Shepard, justice; Marion Putnam, constable.
District No. 3—H. Holman, justice; J. S. Ashbaugh, constable.
District No. 4—Frank Butler, justice; Roy McMurphy, constable.
District No. 6—H. G. Keyt, justice; L. Wolf, constable.

Many Attended Picnic.
The Artisans' picnic at Rickreall, Saturday, was largely attended by people from all parts of Polk county, and a goodly number of visitors were present from Salem. H. M. Hudson and Dr. W. O. Manion, of Portland, both high officials in the order, were present and spoke in the forenoon. The afternoon was given over to athletic sports and games. The day's festivities closed with a ball given by the Rickreall orchestra. About 75 couples were present, and the dance lasted until midnight. Many compliments were heard for the excellent music, and the evening was greatly enjoyed by all the visitors.
