Between 13,000 and 14,000 boxes will be shipped from Merlin by express during the next two months.
 The Southern Pacific section gang, under the direction of Foreman Charles Schaffer, has made a great improvement in the appearance of the depot grounds and switch yard in this city. The grass and weeds have been carefully removed, scraps of paper and rubbish cleaned away, and all rubbish and waste material burned. The depot grounds in Dallas are more attractive than those of any of the larger cities in Western Oregon, and, with 18 trains arriving and departing daily, present a busy scene at all hours.
 Frank Collins arrived in Dallas from San Francisco, Tuesday, and is visiting at the home of his parents, Judge and Mrs. J. L. Collins. Frank is one of the leading mechanical draughtsmen of the Bay City, his specialty being the designing of steamship machinery. He served his apprenticeship in the Union Iron Works, where he gained much valuable experience in construction work for the Government. His office was totally destroyed by the recent earthquake and fire, but he is not in the least discouraged, and will soon return to San Francisco to take up his work again. Frank has many friends in Dallas, and all are proud of him for the success he has achieved in his chosen profession.
