DALLAS, OREGON, SEPTEMBER 21, 1906

The way to build up Dallas is to patronize Dallas people.

It is rumored that W. S. U'Ren will be a candidate for United States Senator when a successor to Charles W. Fulton is to be chosen. If he is a candidate, he will doubtless go before the people on his record as an initiator of legislation vesting greater powers of popular government with the voters. Should Mr. U'Ren enter the race, he would prove a formidable candidate. The people of Oregon have already seen enough of his work to make them know that he usually gets what he wants. The fact is, Mr. U'Ren is the biggest man in Oregon today. He secured the adoption of the initiative and referendum; he wrought an entire change in the manner of holding elections in Oregon; he secured the adoption of no less than a dozen important state laws and constitutional amendments in the last election, and he made Jonathan Bourne the people's candidate for United States Senator. With the popularity and influence gained in bringing about these results, it is doubtful if any man in Oregon is stronger than W. S. U'Ren. Senator Fulton has done nothing to strengthen himself with the people during his term of office, and it is certain that he will have strong opposition if he asks for the nomination a second time. Mr. Fulton, it is true, announced his indorsement of many of U'Ren's Populist measures, after they had become laws, but this late-hour approval will avail him little in the event that the next Senatorial election narrows down to a contest between himself and Mr. U'Ren. The Oregon City statesman has not been working up his game all these years for nothing. He can give Fulton cards and spades and still beat him at it.

President Roosevelt wires congratulations to Prosecutor Heney upon his success in securing the conviction of so many land fraud operators in Oregon. The President might have added a word of commendation for the law-abiding people of Oregon who have made these convictions possible. Just a little word of confidence in Oregon and her people would have been gratifying, especially to those Oregon politicians who have called so loudly upon the voters to "Stand by Roosevelt" every time there has been a contest to elect. The voters have "stood" all right, but the President doesn't seem to appreciate it. Is it possible that Strenuous Teddy looks upon all Oregon people as sealawags? Perish the thought!

WOULD MAKE FINE DISPLAY

Principal Reynolds Urges Parents to Interest Their Children in School Fair.

Are you taking the interest in the Industrial Fair that will enable this district to make a creditable showing September 28th and 29th? Encourage your children to do something to help in making a fine display. You can have the girls prepare jellies, canned fruits, bake bread and cake, and gather up their flowers and exhibit samples of sewing. You can have the boys bring in their popcorn, sweet corn, field corn, pumpkins, cabbage, beets, onions, potatoes and any other garden product that they may have raised. Boys and girls if you have raised or prepared anything, bring it in, even if you think you cannot get a prize. It may help your school to win the prize offered by Superintendent Starr for the best district exhibit, a piano.

Do not leave the work for someone else, for if you do the district will not be represented as it might have been. Of course it is too late to grow anything, but it is not too late to gather what is grown and to make jellies, etc. Bring garden truck, potatoes, cabbage, etc, and canned fruits Thursday, September 27th. Flowers, bread, cake, on Friday morning, very early. There are many valuable prizes offered by the County Superintendent, as well as the $100 in prizes offered by the district. Yours truly,

W. I. REYNOLDS,
Principal Dallas School.

Rye Grass Seed.

English rye grass seed for sale at 5 cents per pound; won first prize at State Fair. C. D. NIXON, Amity R. F. D. 2.

Liver and Kidneys

It is highly important that these organs should properly perform their functions. When they don't, what lameness of the side and back, what yellowness of the skin, what constipation, bad taste in the mouth, sick headache, pimples and blotches, and loss of courage, tell the story.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Gives these organs vigor and tone for the proper performance of their functions, and cures all their ordinary ailments. Take it.

WELL EQUIPPED FACTORY

F. J. Chapman Adds Carpet Sewing Machine and Other Needed Conveniences.

An Eschweiler carpet sewing machine is the latest addition to F. J. Chapman's well-equipped furniture factory and store in this city. This interesting little piece of mechanism does it work quickly and well, the sewing being far superior to the old-style hand work. It is the only machine of its kind on the West Side, and cost its owner $125. It is a great time saver, and its purchase was made necessary by a rapidly increasing carpet trade.

Mr. Chapman is steadily adding to his stock to meet the demands of a growing trade and now occupies two floors of the Campbell block, in addition to two large warehouses back of the store. With the increase of his business he has steadily added to his facilities for manufacturing furniture, and his output now includes nearly all classes of house furniture. He also does a large amount of upholstery, his work in this line being of the very best quality. His next addition will probably be a machine for the manufacture of bed springs, of which he sells several hundred each year.

The axe-handle factory run in connection with his business is operated to its full capacity, and more orders are received for these useful articles than he can fill. The handles are of a superior quality of oak, and cannot be surpassed for shape and finish.

SEND THIS BOOK EAST

O. R. & N. and S. P. Book Tells About This Country.

If possible, the Passenger Department of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company and Southern Pacific (Lines in Oregon) has surpassed itself in the 1906 issue of its new publication, "Oregon, Washington, Idaho and their resources."

The purpose of the publication is to attract homeseekers and investors to the Pacific Northwest and this publication is undoubtedly the best messenger that could be sent by residents of Oregon, Washington and Idaho to their friends in the East and Middle West. Beautiful half tones, printed on superb book paper, make the publication, which contains 88 pages and a map of the section, a work of art, but far superior to the typographical make-up is the contents of the book. Under many heads covering practically all the resources of the states are short, pithy stories of what has been accomplished, not what might be done, but actual facts and figures accompanied by names and addresses of well known farmers, who are daily laying aside an income that would be a fortune to an Eastern Agriculturist.

INDEPENDENCE NOTES

Grant Robertson has gone to Portland to reside.

T. J. Fitchard was a Eugene visitor the first of the week.

The last of the big log drive passed here last Sunday. There was 12,000,000 feet of lumber in the drive.

Dean Goodman, of Pendleton, is visiting friends here, on his way to Corvallis, where he will enter the O. A. C.

Mrs. Willard Ireland returned to her home in Corvallis, Wednesday, after a week's visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Taylor.

There was a special meeting of the city council Saturday night for the purpose of considering police regulations. A. Huston, president of the council presided, and the council voted that the marshal be instructed to carry out all laws on the city ordinance books. This referred especially to the Sunday closing law, in consequence of which all saloons kept closed doors last Sunday.

Hop picking is progressing rapidly in most of the yards. A number of pickers have returned to their homes and several yards are working with a short crew, and in fact most all of the yards could use more pickers. The hops are being affected by the lice and mold and all growers are anxious to complete the harvest. The rains and wind of last week caused many vines to be down, which is proving a detriment.

Two Majority for Water.

Only 45 votes were cast at the special election held Monday for bonding the town for $8,000 to put in a system of water works. One ballot was marked both yes and no, twenty-one against and twenty-three for bonding the town. It is now up to the city council to proceed in the matter of mapping out the preliminaries and getting down to business.—Falls City Logger.

SCHOOL FAIR NEXT WEEK

State Superintendent Ackerman Will Deliver an Address on Friday Evening.

The Polk County School-Children's Industrial Fair, an event awaited with impatient eagerness by the school-children all over the county, will be held in Dallas next week, beginning at noon on Friday, September 28th, and closing at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. On Thursday and during the forenoon Friday, the exhibits will be installed in the college gymnasium, which has been secured for that purpose. People generally are manifesting interest in the Fair, and the business men of Dallas have been very liberal in their contributions of cash and other prizes. During the progress of the fair there will be interesting sports, and good music will be provided for the entertainment of visitors. State Superintendent Ackerman will be present, and give an address Friday evening.

Tomorrow morning in the office of the county superintendent, the men's and women's committees on the fair will meet with committees from the city council and LaCreole club to make arrangements relative to the coming event, and it is a foregone conclusion that nothing will be left undone that might contribute to the success of this most worthy enterprise.

Two More Teachers.

The board of directors of the Dallas public school met Wednesday night and elected Miss Naana Forbes and Miss Inez Allen members of the teaching corps. Grades will be assigned to all the teachers tonight. The board decided to furnish a room in the school building for the new 9th and 10th grades and instructed Clerk Campbell to purchase the necessary furniture. The two new teachers chosen are highly competent and their selection will be pleasing to the patrons of the school.

Want Public School.

People living at the sawmills and logging camps in the mountains above Falls City have petitioned Superintendent Starr for a public school. The Willamette Valley Lumber Company, the Oberer-Meyer Mill Company, and others interested generously offer to build a schoolhouse and pay a part of the teacher's salary. Superintendent Starr hopes to make arrangements whereby the school will be provided as a part of the Falls City district. About to children live in the logging camps and educational facilities are badly needed.

Where Do You Buy Your SHOES

REASONS Why You Should Buy them at the Dallas Boot and Shoe Store

1. We make a special study of Shoes and the fitting of them. They are not a side line with us as they are with general stores.
2. We buy only the best makes direct from the factories. They are made to our order and guaranteed by the makers. We make good all defective Shoes.
3. We have more kinds to select from, newer and better styles than general stores, because we have the pick of best lines, and keep them coming all the time.
4. We have shoes to fit all feet and shapes to suit every one. The long narrow shoes, the short, wide ones; we have lace, button, congress, low slippers and boots, and a good line of Rubbers of all kinds.
5. We can and do give better values for the money than general stores and we repair shoes bought here free—this helps some.
