CRESCENTS ARE COMING

Eastern Champions Will Meet Dallas College Team Next Wednesday Night.

The Dallas College basketball team will play a game with the Crescent team of Evanston, Illinois, in the home gymnasium next Wednesday night. The Crescent team is reported to be one of the strongest teams in the Middle West, having defeated the Wheaton Illinois team, winner of second place in the world's championship games in St. Louis. The Crescents are on their way to the Sandwich Islands. When they return to the United States, they will have finished the longest tour ever made by a basketball team.

Concerning the Crescents, the Chicago Daily Journal says: "As a nucleus around which to build a strong team, the Crescents have John I. Davis, who is well known around the city and Middle West as a center. Last year, Davis was the mainstay of the Evanston Y. M. C. A. championship team, and in a series of games with Yale he held Fargo, who has been termed by basketball critics as the strongest center in the East, to a standstill. Davis, as a defensive player, cannot be equalled, not excepting Palmer and Smoot. Offensively, Davis proves invaluable to his team. At the blow of the whistle, he invariably out-jumps his opponent.

"Young the Indian forward, will again be with the Crescents. In the championship games of 1904, Young was credited with being the best individual player of the tournament. His strong points are found in his ability to start and execute trick plays."

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON IX, FIRST QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, MARCH 3.

Text of the Lesson, Gen. xviii, 10-33. Memory Verses, 23-26—Golden Text, Luke xviii, 1—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1907, by American Prom Association.] I cannot find in me a willingness to pass over chapters xvi and xvii with their many important events, written for us by the Holy Spirit, and one important lesson of chapter xvi is that God will always do as He has said, and not in any roundabout or wrong way, for He cannot be a partner to anything wrong. Concerning the promised son it is finally written, "The Lord visited Sarah as He had said, and the Lord did unto Sarah as He had spoken" (xxi, 1).

Ten years had passed since Abraham entered the land (xvi, 3), and no son having been given, the devil has a trap for Abraham, into which he falls, making a lot of family trouble and seemingly breaking intimate fellowship between Abram and the Lord for thirteen years. Compare xvi, 16, and xvii, 1. In chapter xvi, 7-11, note the first mention of the angel of the Lord (four times), and in connection with a poor, wronged-outcast woman, and take comfort from the ministry of angels (Heb. 1, 14). Find greater comfort in the truth that God lives and sees and cares (xvi, 13, 14, and margin). Note how important is submission not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward (xvi, 9; 1 Pet. ii, 18). Submission is said to be the highest mission on earth. It is interesting to notice that of the seven men mentioned in Scripture as being named before their birth Ishmael is the first.

After the thirteen years of silence the Lord revealed Himself to Abram by a new name, the Almighty God (El Shaddai), or the God who is all sufficient or enough. This name is used more often in the book of Job than in all the rest of the Bible and can only be understood and appreciated when we are brought to the end of ourselves and our own resources (Job xlii, 5, 6); then if we walk before God uprightly, sincerely (xvii, 1, margin), we will see the all sufficiency of God. Then follow in this wonderful chapter the covenant with Abram confirmed, Abram's change of name to Abraham by putting into it the principal letter of God's name, Jehovah; the rite of circumcision, suggesting death to the flesh, and the assurance that the long promised son would be given the next year and his name would be Isaac.

Today's lesson chapter begins with another appearance of the Lord to Abraham, the sixth, I think, if I have counted correctly, and this time He is accompanied by two angels, the three appearing as men, and they accept Abraham's hospitality and rest under the tree while water is brought for their feet and an abundant meal provided by Abraham and Sarah, of which they all partake. Contrast the unleavened cakes which Sarah quickly makes with her three measures of meal with the leavened bread of the woman of Matt. xiii, 33. If you feel like saying how gladly you would have stood by or helped prepare the food or shared it with them, think of John xii, 1-3, and see the same Lord, and if that does not help then believe Rev. iii, 20.

See the reassurance of a son for Sarah, hear her unbelieving laugh and the Lord's patient rebuke and His searching question, "Is anything too hard for the Lord?" (Verses 9 to 15.) Compare Jer. xxxii, 17, 27, and say before Him if you are believing or unbelieving.

The visitors rose up and looked toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to bring them on their way, and so the four start off, and we can easily imagine Sarah following them with her eyes as far as she could see them and thinking many things in her heart. Soon the two angels are on their way to Sodom, and the record of their visit to Lot and their hurrying him and his wife and daughters out of the doomed city is found in chapter xix along with the story of the destruction of the cities because of their sin. The angels' inability to destroy the cities until Lot was safely out suggests that the church must be taken out of the earth before the judgments can come upon it. Our Lord Jesus indorses this record also (Luke xvii, 28-30) and tells us that as it was so it shall be again at His coming. Contrast the willingness with which the visitors accepted Abraham's hospitality and Lot's difficulty in constraining the angels to enter his home.

Turning back to our lesson and to our Lord's words, "Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do?" (verse 17) we are reminded of Amos iii, 7, "Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but He revealeth His secret unto His servants the prophets." We therefore do well if we take heed to all prophecy and are foolish if we do not (II Pet. i, 19; Luke xxiv, 25). The Lord is looking for those with whom He can commune, for He seeks fellowship with us (II Chron. xvi, 9).

The cry of Sodom and Gomorrah reaching the Lord brings to mind such passages as Gen. iv, 10; Hab. ii, 11; Jas. v, 4; Num. xxxii, 23. The words in verses 22 and 23, "Abraham stood yet before the Lord and Abraham drew near," remind us of our great privilege set forth in Heb. iv, 14-16. Abraham's sixfold petition for the sinful city and his prevailing until the Lord agreed to spare it "for ten's sake," taken with such illustrations as the woman of Tyre and Sidon, the Roman centurion, the four friends of the palsied man, our Golden Text, etc., should greatly encourage us to persevere in prayer.

How to Remain Young.

To continue young in health and strength, do as Mrs. N. F. Rowan, Mcintosh, Ga., did. She says: "Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured me of chronic liver and stomach trouble, complicated with such an unhealthy condition of the blood that my skin turned red as fannel. I am now practically 20 years younger than before I took Electric Bitters. I can now do all my work with ease and assist in my husband's store." Guaranteed at Belt & Cherrington's Drug Store. Price 50c.

A Merrill man paid $5.50 a head for 2,900 ewes.

"In 1897 I had a stomach disease. Some physicians said Dyspepsia, some Consumption. One said I would not live until Spring. For four years I existed on boiled milk, soda biscuits, and doctors' prescriptions. I could not digest anything I ate; then I picked up one of your almanacs and it happened to be my life-saver. I bought a fifty-cent bottle of KODOL and the benefit I received from that bottle all the gold in Georgia could not buy. In two months I went back to my work, as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. May you live long and prosper."—C. N. Cornell, Roding, Ga., 1906. The above is only a sample of the great good that is daily done everywhere by Kodol for Dyspepsia. It is sold here by all druggists.

Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in His House.

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept on hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by Stafrin Drug Co.

Saved Her Son's Life.

The happiest mother in the little town of Ava, Mo., is Mrs. S. Ruppen. She writes: "One year ago my son was down with such serious lung trouble that our physician was unable to help him; when, by our druggist's advice I began giving him Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noticed improvement. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks when he was perfectly well. He has worked steadily since at carpenter work. Dr. King's New Discovery saved his life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure by Belt & Cherrington, Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

McMinnville is to have a fruit cannery.

Given Up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended, and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let it help you? Belt & Cherrington, Dallas; M. L. Thompson, Falls City.
