

POLK COUNTY OBSERVER

WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEKLY

VOL. XIX

DALLAS, POLK COUNTY, OREGON, APRIL 12, 1907.

NO. 5

Courting Couples

are, of course, contemplating matrimony and subsequent housekeeping. They are the class we are looking out for particularly. We know that the majority of young married people must start economically, and our stock of

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE

includes all necessary articles for beginning housekeeping in a modest and economical way. We invite the attention of all couples now contemplating the setting up of their own establishment. We not only furnish your furniture, but also a line of

KITCHEN HARDWARE

Did you ever see our Toledo Range?

3 reasons why its better: No trouble to keep clean, all plain nickel, bakes quicker and more even than any other stove on the market.

A 10-year guarantee with every Toledo Range

Building Hardware

Our Furniture Department is becoming more complete every day.

Better see our new lines of

Carpets and Rugs
1907 Patterns of Wall Paper
Elegant China Closets and Buffets
Pretty designs in Linoleums.

We can and will sell you everything in the Housefurnishing Goods at a price that can't be beat.

GUY BROS. & DALTON

Dallas, Oregon

Pat. Sun-Proof Paint Good.

NEWS OF COUNTY TOWNS.

AIRLIE.

W. L. Phillips shipped a nice veal to Sperling Brothers, Monday.

Hawkins & McAdams gave an entertainment at the hall Monday night. "Cub" Hooker and Elmer Burroughs were doing business in Independence, Tuesday.

Grandma Grant is gradually growing worse, and Mr. Kerber's little child is no better.

A. Aebi has received a small threshing outfit, which he will use for threshing his own grain.

F. C. Burroughs has sold his ranch near here and will leave for Alabama in a couple of weeks.

J. C. Hastings was up from Independence last week, making arrangements for spraying his old orchard.

The axe-handle mill has finished up on the old Hastings place and will move in a few days to Mrs. Anna Brown's place.

M. W. Jones and Percy Hadley were elected representatives to the Woodman convention which meets in Portland next month.

Dr. O. D. Butler was up at the axe-handle mill last Saturday night to see Mr. Calkins' little boy, who was very sick but is much better now.

Diek Evans, of the confectionery store, says the Woodmen must have had a high old time at their meeting Saturday night, judging from the amount of candy, nuts and cigars they bought of him.

Another telephone line is being run to this place from the oak sawmill near Billy Burns' place. It will accommodate some five or six subscribers. This will make 17 drops in the switchboard here.

BRIDGEPORT.

The farmers are about all through shearing goats.

Clay Miller has gone to work in the Brown & Link sawmill.

Miss Dollie Guthrie is improving rapidly after her long sickness.

The directors of our telephone company met at Falls City, Wednesday.

Manson Crowley exchanged a young horse to Clarence McCaleb for $150.

Iry Schneider is talking of buying property on the coast and moving there.

We are all longing for good weather and to see that snow all out of the mountains.

Miss Jennie Gilson sprained her ankle at the skating rink a few days ago and has been unable to leave the house.

Miss Nellie Corrigan, accompanied by Clarence Gilson and Retha Schneider, visited her home near Armit, Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. A. W. Teats is in Portland at the bedside of his daughter, Hattie, who has been sick for two months. He reports her no better.

John Cameron's barn burned a few days ago, with all the hay, feed, etc. A horse and a hog in the barn were saved by Mrs. Cameron, her husband being away.

BUELL.

Edgar Yeater has returned to Sheridan.

Our merchant, D. C. Walker, made a business trip to Portland this week.

William Tillotson has sold his real estate and is spending a few days in Dallas.

Mat Glaze has returned from Falls City, where he was looking after his real estate.

N. H. March and sister, Mrs. C. L. Bennett, were Sheridan visitors on Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burk, of Dallas, attended the entertainment given by the young folks Saturday evening.

Miss Pearl Burk closed a very successful term of school Friday, and returned to her home in Dallas, Sunday morning.

BUENA VISTA.

Mr. Arnold was a visitor in Albany last week.

J. M. Prather was in Independence last Monday.

Arthur Porter, of Albany, was in town Wednesday.

Charlie Moore, of Parker, has moved to Monmouth.

T. D. McClain made a business trip to Albany last week.

R. P. Hall is decorating his residence with a new fence.

Calls promptly answered day or night.

R. L. CHAPMAN

FUNERAL DIRECTOR & EMBALMER

DALLAS, OREGON

Call Phone 100 Mutual Phone 1200

FALLS CITY.

D. Tollar's new building is nearly ready for the roofing.

Zimri Hoshaw's building is being plastered with wood fiber.

A. F. Courter's dwelling is nearly enclosed and the roof is on.

Frank Coad, of Dallas, was a business visitor in Falls City this week.

Postmaster Jacobson, of Elack Rock did business in Falls City, Wednesday.

C. Britts came out from his home in the Siletz country, Saturday, on his way to Portland.

William Southwell and J. Condon came out from their claims in the Siletz country, Tuesday. They report plenty of snow in the mountains.

The Hotel Walker has plenty to do and more coming. The hotel is being improved and made up-to-date in every way. Colonel Matthews is a rustler.

Joseph Edgar, a brother of Thomas Edgar, was drowned in the Columbia river near Kalama, Tuesday morning. Thomas Edgar left on the one o'clock train to aid in flooding the body.

Drs. Pfandhoefer and McMurdo are building a hospital on the banks of the Little Luckiamute near Dr. Pfandhoefer's residence. The building will be 32 by 42 feet, and will contain 17 rooms. It will be heated by steam and will contain all the modern conveniences. Charles Dierling is the contractor and builder.

LEWISVILLE.

Jasper Bagley made a business trip to Dallas, Monday.

A young man from Michigan is working for Frank Loughary.

The new Evangelical preacher at this place is Rev. M. B. Young.

Rev. Reagan has gone to Oregon City to hold a protracted meeting.

George Conn is working on the creek, getting in the wayland logs.

Miss Freeman is staying at William Lewis' while Mrs. Lydia Lewis is away.

Elmer and Everett McKinney, of Falls City, visited at the home of their uncle, Charles McKinney, Sunday.

W. W. Smith sold four beef, J. J. Leveck three and A. A. Lindeman one to Dave Grant, the Falls City butcher, Wednesday.

Miss Winnie Kelly, a student of Dallas College, spent her conference vacation at this place with her friend, Mrs. Myrna Bronson.

Airline will soon be a night station on the phone line. Two new lines will be built in. When the Mutual long distance gets through to Corvallis, they will also build to Airlie. We will then have as good long-distance service as Corvallis or Albany.

B. F. Smith shipped three number one Berkshire hogs to his brother, George, at Hood River, Monday. George says they do not have good hogs in his neighborhood in Hood River valley, but that they do have plenty of high-priced land. He recently sold part of his land for $400 an acre.

An "ebony man" visited our school, Tuesday, and gave the children an hour and a half talk on "China and Japan," and then begged his dinner. He succeeded in frightening some of the tots, as well as the teacher, half out of their wits. It was the first time many of them had ever seen a black face, and it equalled a monkey show.

MONMOUTH.

A. J. Shipley, of Sunnyslope, was in town, Saturday.

David Hampton, of Dundee, is in town on business.

Charles Herren bought a fine driving coil Saturday.

Rev. J. A. Goode went to Portland on a business visit, Monday.

William Fuqua, of Parker, was in town on business Friday.

James Murphy, of Corvallis, visited relatives in Monmouth, Saturday.

Carl Gardner left for Hood River, Wednesday, and will work there this summer.

Several parties came down from Airlie and attended the negro minstrel show, Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Robinson, of King's Valley, were the guests of A. N. Halleck last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Terry, of Baker City, are visiting their daughter, who is a student at the Normal.

Herbert Graves, editor of the Monmouth Star, bought the Peterson place from A. N. Halleck for $375.

W. T. Bradley, of Eugene, was in town on business Saturday. Mr. Bradley formerly lived in Monmouth.

A. N. Poole, of Newport, was home on a visit the first of the week. He reports things quite lively at Newport.

of Mr. Rogers, arrived here Saturday from Michigan. They expect to make Oregon their future home.

It was reported in last week's Monmouth Star that President Reaser had gone to Idaho to seek a position in a school in that state. The item was incorrect. Mr. Reaser will again be at the head of the Normal school the coming year.

W. R. Neal returned home from California, Friday, after having had quite an experience with floods. Mr. Neal liked some portions of California fairly well, but says that state, like any other country, has its drawbacks and undesirable features.

One of the young ladies of the Normal received a 50-pound box of oranges from California last Saturday. She put the box on her shoulder and carried it to her boarding house, seven blocks away. So much for being a basketball player.

PERRYDALE.

Rice Cook came up from Portland, Monday.

Home Foster was a Dallas visitor, Tuesday.

Blumer Strong has improved his premises with new fencing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Conner visited relatives in Dallas over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Morrison, of Idaho, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lee Conner.

Mrs. Rees was called to the deathbed of her mother in Newberg last Friday.

The ladies of the Christian Church netted a neat sum from their box social, Friday evening.

Charles Kau has secured employment in the sawmill at Carlton, whence he will soon move with his family.

Sheep-killing dogs have again begun their deadly work, having slaughtered several fine goats and sheep belonging to G. N. Townsend, Tuesday night. Let all the neighbors join a vigilance committee to destroy these midnight assassins.

POLK.

The fruit trees are beginning to bloom.

No farming has been done in this vicinity for some time.

Abe Rempel is laid up with a carbuncle on his left wrist.

Sam Smith sold a horse to Mr. Heitzer, of Portland, last week for $300.

Thomas Lyons has ordered a cream separator. He is milking 10 or 12 cows.

The oldest two Eans sisters, Anna and Elizabeth, have gone to Kansas for an extended visit.

Maria Friesen is reported seriously ill. Her injuries are internal, the effect of jumping from a hawk and falling against a cross-beam in the church shed.

RICKREALL.

William Hill is working in the store for Peter Cook.

Peter Cook was up from Ballston on business this week.

Mrs. Myer returned from her visit in Colorado last week.

Joshua McDaniel is up from Portland on business this week.

Frank Gibson was in Portland, on business a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ramsey visited in Dallas, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Jessie Stoner returned last Wednesday from a six weeks' visit in California.

Our school will close Friday, and the closing exercises by the school will be held Friday evening.

Hill McDaniel has traded his farm for property near Portland and will move there in a short time.

Quite a number of the young people have roller skates and have rented the lower floor of the hall for a skating rink.

Samuel Parker shipped 50 dressed lambs to Portland, receiving 12 cents a pound.

W. W. Edmondson, A. Wyatt and G. A. McKinley are attending the Presbytery in Brownsville.

Miss Edith Roy, who is teaching school near Woodburn, visited over Sunday with her parents.

The Lincoln school gave a basket social last Friday evening. The receipts went to the library fund.

The entertainment that was advertised for next Friday at the Zena schoolhouse has been indefinitely postponed.

Lawrence Marsh, formerly of this place, has secured a position in a soda factory in Astoria. He is well pleased with the place.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting held at

1907 SPRING 1907

You will find at our store up-to-date lines of

LADIES' SILK WAISTS

" WHITE WASH WAISTS

" READY-TO-WEAR SKIRTS

WASH FABRICS in profusion

MEN'S HATS

FANCY HOSIERY

UNDERWEAR

SHOES

Our prices appeal to the careful buyer, and we will appreciate your looking at our goods whether you buy or not.

CAMPBELL & HOLLISTER

Successors to L. M. Pollock.

Lincoln last Sunday evening was largely attended. The music was well rendered by a male quartette.

Rev. W. W. Edmondson has resigned his position as pastor of the Zena church to accept the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Ellsworth, Wash. The people of this vicinity regret very much to lose him, but wish him success in his new field.

COURT HOUSE NOTES

Items of Interest From the Records in the County Offices.

REAL ESTATE.

Ellen D Morrison to Minnie F Palmer, 10 acres, t 8 s, r 4 w, $950.

E C Rogers to David Edgar, 80 acres, t 8 s, r 8 w, $1.

David Edgar to Lane Lumber Co., 80 acres, t 8 s, r 8 w, $1000.

J L Dernbach to Lane Lumber Co., 80 acres, t 8 s, r 8 w, $1.

C E Herren to Harvey Robertson, lots in Monmouth, $450.

J L Somerville to Zed Rosendorf, lots in Independence, $1.

Ollie Cook to W J Stowe, lot in Dallas, $225.

J J Russell to C M Parker, lots in Monmouth, $1000.

C N Tharp to W H Walker, 4 acres, t 10 a, r 4 w, $129.

Polk County Bank to S J Hefelman, lots in Falls City, $50.

Mary A Dougan to Dr Mark Haytor, 7 acres in Dallas, $1191.

George Conlee to W F Tillotson, 80 acres, t 7 s, r 6 w, $500.

J G VanOrsdol to Fred Rock, lot in Dallas, $150.

George Sellers to Carl Sellers, lot in Dallas, $90.

George Sellers to Walter Sellers, lot in Dallas, $55.

M L Thompson to B E Williams, 160 acres, t 8 s, r 7 w, $1.

Conrad Stafrin to B Gildner, 80 acres, t 7 s, r 6 w, $1050.

WHEAT 70 CENTS.

We are offering 70 cents per bushel for good wheat delivered at the Dallas flouring mill.

SWENEY BROS.

Bishop Hill's Appointments.

Bishop W. E. Hill's appointments in Polk county for the remainder of the week are as follows:

Lewisville—Friday, 11 a. m.

Kings Valley—Friday, 7:30 p. m.

Bridgeport—Saturday, 11 a. m.

Dallas—Sunday, 11 a. m., 7:30 p. m.

Bickreall—Sunday, 2 p. m.

Bishop Hill will go to Lafayette, Monday, and after visiting the fields at Dayton, Brooks and Salem, will leave for the East next Wednesday.

There are many tonics in the land as by the papers you can see; but none of them are equal

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, 35 cents, Tea or Tablets, Belt & Cherrington.

That hacking cough continues because your system is exhausted and your powers of resistance weakened. Take Scott's Emulsion. It builds up and strengthens your entire system. It contains Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites so prepared that it is easy to take and easy to digest.

ALL DRUGGISTS, ETC., AND $1.00