DALLAS, OREGON, APRIL 12, 1907

The way to build up Dallas is to patronize Dallas people.

INSULT TO PEOPLE.

In inaugurating the movement for the referendum on the Freeman compulsory pass law, the executive committee of the Oregon State Grange takes occasion to pay its respects to the recent Legislature in the following caustic paragraph:

"The entire country has grown heartily tired of the pass evil and at our last biennial election the people of Oregon expressed their opinion of the matter in no uncertain terms by a very large majority which they gave in favor of the initiative anti-pass bill. Through the unfortunate omission of the enacting clause this bill failed to become a law and the legislature took advantage of this circumstance and passed a law in direct opposition to the expressed will of the people. This is vicious legislation if we have ever had such in this state. It is an insult to the intelligence of the voters of the state as in effect by this act the legislature has said to the people that they did not know what they wanted. There can, however, be no question of the people's desire in the matter and the legislature should have considered itself in duty bound to respect their wishes and should have taken steps to correct and complete their work rather than to have taken advantage of the opportunity to throw it down."

A prominent authority on advertising says that many a local editor by his attitude in approaching merchants encourages them to treat him more as an object of charity than as a fellow business man. Unfortunately, this statement is true, but the publisher who conducts his affairs in a dignified, business-like way, treats his customers with the courtesy due from one business man to another, and devotes his attention to making his paper all that a local paper should be, need never fear the competition of the man who goes out and begs for business. The average merchant is quick to discriminate between the paper that is winning on its merits and the paper that is existing by the charity graft alone. The merchant who carries good goods and sells them at right prices never finds it necessary to peddle them from house to house, or to appeal to people to buy them on the ground that he needs the money. Neither does the publisher who has something really worth selling ever find it necessary to beg for business or hawk his wares in the street. In the printing business, as in all other lines of legitimate business, merit alone will win.

Spring Medicine

The best is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the best because it does the most good.

While it makes the blood pure, fresh and lively, it tones the stomach to better digestion, creates an appetite, stimulates the kidneys and liver, gives new brain, nerve and digestive strength.

An unequaled list of cures—40,366 testimonials in two years—proves its merit.

Mrs. J. F. Gee, 56 Gould Street, Stoneham, Mass., says: "In 25 years experience I have never known Hood's Sarsaparilla to fail, for spring humors and as a general blood purifier: It cures scrofula, eczema; has no equal as a general spring medicine. It gives me genuine satisfaction to say this."

Sarsatabs—For those who prefer medicine in tablet form, Hood's Sarsaparilla is now put up in chocolated tablets called Sarsatabs, as well as in the usual liquid form. Sarsatabs have identically the same curative properties as the liquid form, besides accuracy of dose, convenience, economy,—there being no loss by evaporation, breakage, or leakage. Sold by druggists or sent by mail. C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

FIRST MOHAIR POOL SOLD

Herman Metzger Secures Four Thousand Fleeces at Sodaville at 29 1-4 Cents.

The first mohair pool sale of the season occurred at Sodaville Tuesday. Four thousand fleeces, amounting to 12,000 or 14,000 pounds, were sold at auction. The successful bidder was Herman Metzger, of Portland, whose bid of 29¼ cents a pound secured the lot.

The next pool sale will be held at Scio on April 23, when some 20,000 pounds will be offered. Sales will later occur at Silverton, Sublimity, Dallas, Lebanon and other points in the goatraising section. Comparatively little shearing has been done as yet, owing to the bad weather. Some of the growers who sheared too early have lost their goats as a result.—Oregonian.
