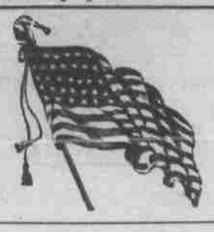
DALLAS, OREGON, APRIL 23, 1907

The way to build up Dallas is to patronize Dallas people.



TO VOTE ON NORMALS.

Professor A. F. Campbell, writing to the Oregon School Journal from Monmouth, says:

"The legislature for 1907 has come and gone. It made provision for support of the old Normal, but fixed it so that the Governor felt obliged to veto the bill. We were greatly disappointed but are not discouraged, for the vital fact still remains that we are, just as much as ever, a Normal school of the state of Oregon, though the important matter of securing funds for the next two years has been postponed to the next session. We feel sure that we can find patriotic citizens who will temporarily supply this deficiency, after next July, as we have already found those who will finance the institution until that time.

"While we feel reasonably sure of our finances, as matters now stand we will be compelled to go to Salem biennially and beg for appropriations, and hear it said that Normal schools debauch the politics of the state. As we fall under the stigma of this hard accusation, we want the system eliminated from politics. To accomplish this a bill will be initiated to place the names of each of the existing Normal schools before the people at the next general election, so that they may say how many and what schools they want. All the Normal schools are anxious to have the matter finally settled in this fair manner.

"In the meantime, the old bell will call to the students of the O. S. N. S. just as usual—our classes will be graduated just as they have been for the past twenty-five years and the summer school will furnish a pleasant and profitable retreat for those who desire to spend the vacation in study."

The new editor of the McMinnville Reporter starts out by swiping items from the OBSERVER, thus proving himself to be a man of keen discernment and good judgment—one who knows a good thing when he sees it. Up in this shop, we give credit for news taken from other papers, but we hasten to assure our brother that he is welcome to any of our items after we are through with them, credit or no credit.

The Beaver State Herald, published by Timothy Brownhill at Gresham, Oregon, is now printed in 7-column folio form. The Herald is a welcome visitor to our exchange table each week, and it is pleasing to note that Brother Brownhill is enjoying the prosperity merited by the excellence of his paper. The Herald stands boldly and fearlessly for all that is best in the home and community, and the splendid support accorded him speaks well for the moral standard of his home town.

DALLAS GIRL WINS

Miss Maude Robertson Successful Over All Candidates in Evening Telegram Contest.

Miss Maude Robertson is the winner of the Evening Telegram contest in this district. The news of her victory was wired from Portland to W. R. Ellis, the local agent for the Telegram, this morning. As a result of this vote, the young lady will be a member of the party of young women that the big evening daily will send to the Jamestown Exposition. Miss Robertson is a popular girl in Dallas, and she is being kept busy today acknowledging the congratulations of her many friends. Her sister, Miss Nora Robertson, was the winner of the St. Louis Exposition contest in Dallas in 1904.

Wagner Corner Sold.

Wagner Brothers, the well-known blacksmiths and machinists, sold their lot and building at the corner of Main and Oak streets to Ray & Stoner, of Dallas, and E. J. Boyd, of Coburg, this week. The price paid for the property was not made public. Wagner Brothers will continue to occupy the building until further notice, and invite all of their old patrons to call and see them when in need of any work in their line.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle-wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it under oath. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, ofttimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nervine and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.
