Attention is called to the advertisement of Fuller & Elliott, printed elsewhere in this paper. The members of the new firm are W. V. Fuller and F. A. Elliott. These gentlemen will handle timber lands exclusively, a business for which both are well qualified. Mr. Fuller has spent the greater part of his life in the woods, having been engaged in the milling and logging business many years before coming to Oregon. Mr. Elliott was for 10 years Chief Land Examiner for the Southern Pacific Company. He has personal knowledge of every tract of timber from California to the British Columbia line, especially on the west side of the Cascade and Sierra Nevada mountains, and is an expert judge of quality and values. Messrs. Fuller & Elliott will soon complete their contract for cruising the timber of Polk county for assessment purposes and will then devote their whole attention to buying and selling timber lands.
