

Polk County Observer

Roland Holman went to Newport, yesterday.

George Cobb has gone to Yaquina to work during the summer.

Mrs. Mary Savage has gone to Sheridan to visit her parents.

Mrs. J. A. Elmhurst, of Medford, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. Boyd.

W. H. Boals and family went to Newport yesterday, for a short stay.

Mrs. M. E. Beary from Nebraska is visiting at the home of her brother, O. H. Cobb.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Backtel, of Salem, are visiting at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Stiles.

Arthur Moore, of Independence, was in Dallas, Wednesday, returning from a fishing trip on Slab Creek.

Mrs. Rebecca Scobert is home from Dallas, where she has been visiting her daughter.—Eugene Guard.

W. H. Beseker sold his 40-acre tract of land, one mile east of town, to J. M. Wilson yesterday for $3500.

Mrs. C. Richter and granddaughter, Miss Lina Stouffer have returned from a visit among Sheridan friends.

P. A. Flanseth went to Falls City yesterday, from whence he was accompanied to the Siletz by W. L. Wells.

Mrs. E. E. Gilliam, of Salem, accompanied by her daughter, Velma, and son, Densel, was a Dallas visitor, Wednesday.

Miss Alice Grant has been in Salem working in the Journal contest. She is reported to be over 10,000 votes ahead at the present time.

A. B. Dalgity, of Portland, was a business visitor in Dallas, Wednesday. Mr. Dalgity is the Grand Secretary of the Foresters of America.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Campbell left for Pullman, Washington, yesterday. From there they will go into Eastern Oregon to spend some time visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoag, of Broughton Springs, and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Foland, of Beaver, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harris.

Sunday dinners at the Dallas Hotel are the best that can be served. Come, Sunday, and be convinced. Only 25c. Prepared and served by white help exclusively.

Miss Veva Morrison returned to Independence yesterday, after spending three weeks working in the store of F. S. Ramsey in the place of Miss Rotta Campbell.

Mrs. Jessie Jellerson, of Cohasset, Minnesota, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fuller for a short time this week, while on her way to Falls City to visit her daughter, Mrs. Richard Paul, who is very ill with pneumonia.

The Board of Regents of the Oregon Agricultural College has rescinded its action of deposing Dr. James Withycombe from the position of Director of the Agricultural Experiment Station. He has been reinstated in that position and will continue to be known as Director instead of Vice Director, as contemplated by the action recently taken.

C. P. Bevens, of Airlie, was in Dallas yesterday.

Morris Fowle, of Pedee, was a Dallas visitor yesterday.

W. R. Craven made a business trip to Falls City yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Dunn are spending the week at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hubbard made a visit to the Hubbard farm, near Suver, Wednesday.

Virgil Ballantyne went to Dayton, Wednesday, to visit his sister, Mrs. S. F. Headley.

Home folks and the traveling public find the Sunday dinners at the Dallas Hotel positively unequalled anywhere. They are marvels of cuisine excellence, and are sure to please the most fastidious.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kearth, of Dallas, visited old friends in Corvallis, Saturday and Sunday, going from here to Albany for a brief visit, enroute home. They are looking well and Mr. Kearth is well satisfied with his position in Dallas, which he left Corvallis to accept.—Corvallis Times.

At the Elk's convention in Philadelphia last week, Jerry D. Sullivan, a member of the Roseburg lodge of Elks, won the $25 prize for being the smallest Elk in the country. Jerry will be remembered by many Roseburg people as the comical little acrobat with Hamlin's Wizard Oil theatrical and advertising troupe.—Roseburg Review.

J. M. Stark, of Independence, purchased the bankrupt stock of Polk Bros., which was sold at Portland last Wednesday by the United States Marshal. Mr. Stark arrived here on Tuesday morning's stage and the keeper, J. M. Foster, turned the stock over to him forthwith. The new owner is now in the midst of stock-taking. This will be completed in a day or two, at which time his plans are to be announced to the public.—Prineville Review.

John VanOrsdell's crew of timber cruisers, which has been working for the past two weeks in the region of the Bohemia mining district, cruising timber for the Belcher-Stine Lumber Company, is having a short period of rest at present, and several of the employees have improved the opportunity to make a visit to Dallas. They tell us that deer were so plentiful in those parts that not a day passed without their seeing four or five. If that is the case, it ought to be a veritable huntsman's paradise after the season opens.

T. J. Cherrington is making preparations to attend the "Joyous Buckeye Homecoming," to be held in the city of Columbus, Ohio, the first week in September. The Oregon "Buckeyes" will start from the Hotel Perkins in Portland on Wednesday, August 7, and will travel over the Northern Pacific railroad, taking advantage of the stop-over privilege to visit various points of interest along the route. Special railroad rates have been granted, and a large number of native Ohioans in Oregon are preparing to attend the big reunion.
