Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blyeu, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Viggers spent Sunday on the Luckiamute above Falls City.

Miss Pearl Shelton went to Falls City yesterday to accompany her brother back to Dallas. His broken leg is improving rapidly, and it will be but a short time until he is fully recovered.

J. J. Fidler and family have returned from a two weeks' outing at Ocean Park, and Ed Dunn, who took his place on the Dallas-Salem stage during his absence, has resumed work in Loughary's grocery store.

T. J. Cherrington started for Columbus, Ohio, where he will attend the Old Home Week among his friends and relatives, whom he has not seen for more than twenty years. He expects to remain in the Buckeye state until the middle of September.

Mrs. Mark Embree, who was called to Pioneer, Lincoln county, last week by the illness of her father, Barney Morrison, writes that his condition was not so serious as at first reported. Mr. Morrison is one of the earliest pioneers of the Yaquina Bay country.

Oscar Haytar's handsome new residence in South Dallas is nearing completion. The plasterers have finished their work, and the carpenters and painters are putting on the finishing touches. A sidewalk 400 feet in length has been built to connect the property with the walk on South Main street.

State Railroad Commissioner Oswald West was in Saver, Sunday, investigating the merits of the petition of the people of that community for a better railroad depot. Since the destruction of the old depot by fire, the company's business has been transacted in a shed, and complaint is made that passengers and freight are often exposed to rain and sun. The petition also asks for the appointment of a station agent by the company.

Union services were held at the Methodist church, Sunday evening, Dr. C. A. Moeck preaching the sermon. Similar services will be held at the Evangelical church next Sunday. The presiding minister has not yet been chosen.

Professor Metzger was in Corvallis, Wednesday, having just returned from a trip through the Stuslaw and Aleska country, where he had been holding meetings for six weeks. He departed yesterday for his home at Dallas.—Corvallis Times.

A party of Portland capitalists, with several of their friends, were in Dallas, Sunday, to arrange some business regarding timber lands in the Coast Range. The names of those in the party were as follows: W. S. Nash, John Duggin, W. M. Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Taggart, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McDonnell, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Thies, Miss Dorothy K. Taylor and Miss M. A. Soule.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Bartlett and children, formerly of Independence, are visiting relatives and friends in Polk county. Mr. Bartlett is a skilled musician, and will be remembered by many as a member of the Dallas orchestra two years ago. Since leaving Polk county, he has been living in Walla Walla. He may decide to move his family to Dallas this winter, if he can find remunerative employment with some local business firm.

Frank Holman was in McMinnville one day last week, the purpose of his visit being to examine into the merits of the milking machine owned by Coffee Brothers, the dairymen of that city. He was informed that when the machine was in working order it gave entire satisfaction, the milking capacity being 30 cows an hour. At the time of Mr. Holman's visit, it was laid up for repairs. Mr. Holman says that from all he can learn, the new invention is proving quite successful in other parts of the state, being a saver of both time and money to the dairymen.

Edgar Craven has been visiting friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Harris went to Newport yesterday for a short outing.

Miss Ollie Howe returned from a two weeks' visit in Portland, Friday.

Fred Olin went to Portland, Saturday, and will work there in the future.

A Flame Tokay grapevine in the yard of William Grant, in Dallas, attracts much attention and comment. While only three years old, it is heavily laden with fruit. Mr. Grant says he has never heard of another vine of this kind coming into bearing in Oregon. He received the slip directly from California and knows that it is of the genuine Flame Tokay variety.

Mrs. Martha Holmes, of this city, was pronounced insane and committed to the asylum by County Judge Coad yesterday. The examination of the unfortunate woman was conducted by Doctors Embree and McCallon. Mrs. Holmes' mind has been failing for several months, and it is hoped that a course of treatment by the asylum physicians will restore her reason. She is the mother of a large family of small children.
