

Polk County Observer

Ralph Adams made a business trip to Portland, Wednesday.

F. E. Lynn is building a fine new house on his farm near Perrydale.

Hop picking will be commenced in many of the yards around Dallas in about ten days.

Mrs. W. G. Griffin went to Airle, Wednesday, for a week's visit among friends and relatives.

Frank Butler, Justice of the Peace, of Falls City, was a business visitor in Dallas, Wednesday.

Miss Maggie Critchlow, of Baker City, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Critchlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keralake returned, Wednesday, from an outing of several weeks at Newport.

Harold Rich, an employee of the Portland Gas Works, visited his father F. B. Rich, in Dallas, Wednesday.

Miss Edna Scott returned Tuesday, from a trip to Seaside and a week's visit with her friend Miss Ada Ostfield, in Portland.

Mrs. J. L. Herschner and children returned to Hood River, Wednesday, after a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Loughary.

Miss Ruby Reese returned to McMinnville Wednesday, after a two weeks' visit among friends and relatives in Dallas and Perrydale.

Mrs. Vester Swain and daughter, of Burns, are visiting relatives in Dallas. Mrs. Swain is a sister of Mrs. F. J. Coad and Mrs. D. C. Orider.

W. F. Johnson, an engineer for the Burley-Moran Lumber Company, of Oregon City, is spending the week at his home in Dallas, and will return to his work Monday.

Mrs. V. Zolin, Mrs. Henry Van Marter and S. L. Van Marter, all of Lind, Washington, have returned to their home town after an extended visit with G. E. Outler and family.

Dr. Lowe, the eye specialist, who is to be in Dallas next Monday and Tuesday, has been coming to Dallas for more than 16 years and has many pleased patrons in Old Polk.

The Dallas-Portland passenger train was delayed by a slight freight wreck, Wednesday morning, and was forced to go through Independence on the West Side line, and come into Dallas from the South.

Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Caldwell returned Wednesday from a short outing at Bay City. Mr. Caldwell says that this new resort is building up remarkably, and thinks that it will eventually eclipse Newport.

J. W. Sweeney and his niece, Miss Desie Ridgeway, of Dallas, were over Sunday guests at the residence of Joseph A. Bernard. Mr. Sweeney and his brother, J. L. Sweeney, are proprietors of the flouring mills at Dallas-Salem Statesman.

All the churches will unite in a union temperance service at the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening.

E. F. Zimmerman, Acting Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, will be the speaker. Mr. Zimmerman will preach in the M. E. Church, Sunday morning.

M. G. Ellis, of Falls City, was a Dallas visitor, Wednesday.

Miss Hallie Morrison went to Falls City, Wednesday, for a short visit.

B. F. Lucas and family, of Rieckreall, returned Wednesday, from a week's outing at Newport.

Mrs. Charles Hoag, of Suvor, was a visitor in Dallas, Wednesday, on her way home from Portland.

U. S. Loughary, Fred Toner, Roy Sparks and Joe Craven have gone to Rock Creek for a week's fishing trip.

The ladies of the Epworth League will have home baking on sale at William Faul's hardware store, Saturday afternoon.

Leave your orders for hop tickets at the OBSERVER office in Dallas, or at the News office in Falls City, and they will be promptly filled.

J. D. McDonald returned, Wednesday, from an extended tour of inspection in the timber land of the Southern Pacific Company, in the Siletz Basin.

S. M. Ray went to Independence, Wednesday, to make arrangements for the purchase and installing of an electric motor in Ray & Stoner's feed store.

L. C. Koser has recovered from the injury received more than a month ago, and has resumed work on the house he was building when his accident occurred.

Dr. Lowe, the well-known ophthalmologist, will be at the Hotel Gail two days, next Monday and Tuesday, August 26 and 27. Have him give your eyes a genuine test and examination.

Jack Hayter, of Bandon, Coos county, visited at the home of his uncle, T. J. Hayter, in Dallas this week. The young man is a marine engineer, and is employed on a steamship making regular weekly trips between Bandon and San Francisco.

Mrs. Fred B. West visited in Dallas this week. While here she rented the Poling property on Church street, and, with her husband, who has been employed in Aberdeen, Washington, for about a year, will move back to Dallas this winter.

Dr. A. B. Starbuck went to Falls City, Wednesday, to assist in moving Dr. P. F. McMurdo to St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland. Dr. McMurdo has been ill for some time, but it is only lately that his condition has been such as to cause uneasiness.

A spark from the engine set fire to the strawpile, while Piaster's threshing crew was at work on the H. C. Fox place, near Rieckreall. They were able to drag their machinery away without serious damage to it, and the only loss was in the destruction of the straw.

A new steam feed has been received at the sawmill of the Willamette Valley Lumber Company, and will be installed at once. This machine will make the carriage much more rapid than the old feed that has been in use, and while it will lighten the work of the sawyer, it will also increase the daily output of lumber considerably.

The Fall fights are on.

B. Gildner was a business visitor in Dallas, yesterday.

F. S. Ramsey went to Portland, yesterday, on business.

Miss Hazel Hollister returned from Newport, Wednesday.

Mrs. M. J. Coper is in Perrydale nursing Mrs. Will Key.

Miss Julia Nunn is slowly improving from her long illness.

McCargar and little son, and Mrs. Anna Craven, of Portland, Mrs. Charles Carter and daughter, of Oakland, Cal., arrived in Dallas Tuesday evening, in Mr. McCargar's handsome and powerful touring car, enroute to Tillamook. They spent Wednesday visiting in Dallas before proceeding on their journey.

The Corvallis basketball team was unable to raise sufficient money to defray the expenses of an Eastern tour, and the trip to Jamestown will be abandoned. It is likely that the team will not play together this coming winter, as Captain Swann was graduated from the college in June and one or two of the other players have secured employment.

The old bridge across the slough north of the LaCroce river, between the Kirkpatrick and Graat hopyards, has been removed and a broad and substantial fill put in. This will add materially to the appearance and convenience of that part of the county road, and the expense of keeping it in good condition will be very much less than the cost of repairing the bridge.

Wagner Brothers have closed all their business affairs in connection with the machine shop formerly conducted in the Iron Clad Building, and Ray & Stoner will have the entire stock from their feed store moved in by the end of this week. W. J. Wagner and family will move to a ranch in Saskatchewan, Canada, as soon as he can secure a car to transport his household goods. His brother Fred and family will remain in Dallas for the present.

TRUE TO "OLD NORMAL"

President Reaser Says That Enough Funds Have Been Pledged for School to Open as Usual.

A dispatch from Monmouth in yesterday's Oregonian says: "The conditions required by the new State Board of normal schools will be met by the Monmouth school and it will continue to run. President Reaser says that the canvas for funds has proceeded far enough to justify him in making this definite announcement, although only one day's time was given to meet the terms imposed by the board.

"Many letters are being received from the alumni of the school sending in their pledges and assurances of loyal support, and the loyalty of the citizens of Monmouth, which has always been an important factor of the 'Mother Normal,' is again manifested in the quick response with pledges to complete the cash deposit asked by the board.

"By the loyalty and sacrifice of the faculty all departments of the school will be maintained the same as heretofore and the institution will open promptly at the announced time."

Miss Hallie Reynolds returned to Portland yesterday, after a two weeks' visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Reynolds.

At an adjourned meeting of the Marion county commissioners' court, held Tuesday, the city of Independence was granted a license to operate a free ferry across the river at that point, Marion county to donate the sum of $25 per month and Polk county a like amount.
