P. A. Fineth, Lee Smith, Chet Coad and George Whitehorn returned to their Siletz claims this morning.

Miss Etina Hayes went to Independence yesterday to camp during hop-picking with the family of A. W. Teats.

Arthur Laurensen of Dallas, Polk County, after several days sojourn here left for home, Tuesday.—Albany Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith returned from a visit to Portland, Sunday. Mr. Smith will start for his claim on the Siletz today.

County Commissioner John Teal came to Dallas today to attend the session of the County Court which begins tomorrow.

Ralph Carter started today for Klamath Falls, where he is to take a position similar to the one he held in Cherrington's drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Miles started for their home in Los Angeles yesterday, after a two weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Ramsey.

Professor C. W. Kantner, of Seattle, was in Dallas, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Kantner are visiting at the home of B. F. Whiteaker, near Monmouth.

Professor I. M. Glen, of Eugene, returned to that city yesterday to resume his work in the Department of Music at the U. of O., after an extended visit among relatives in Dallas.

Cleveland Sears and Will Paul returned from their work in the Eastern Oregon harvest fields yesterday. Harrison Barendrick and Edward Shaw, the two other members of the party, will return next week.

Mornay Athey, formerly connected with the Dallas papers and the Falls City News, has been promoted to the position of manager of the Vancouver, Washington, Chronicle. His many friends in Polk county will be pleased to hear of his success.

Henry Voth's new prune evaporator on his farm one and one-half miles east of the Salt Creek schoolhouse is completed and ready for operation. It is a modern stack drier with a capacity of 300 bushels of prunes a day. Besides handling the product of his own orchard of 12 acres, Mr. Voth will dry prunes for his neighbors. He expects to dry about 3000 bushels within the next 15 days. Mr. Voth's announcement to the farmers will be found elsewhere in this paper.

John Taylor returned to Airlie Saturday.

Born, August 30, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Shaw, of Dallas, a daughter.

Miss Lina Stouffer went to St. Helens Saturday, for a short visit among friends.

Mrs. C. E. Davidson, of Halsey, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dr. L. A. Bollman.

Owing to the fact that yesterday was Labor Day, the City Council adjourned its regular meeting until the coming Wednesday.

Mrs. Ella J. Metzger returned, Friday, from Portland, where she has been laying in her fall supply of millinery goods.

F. S. Ramsey, G. H. Miles and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Uglow returned yesterday from a pleasant and successful hunting and fishing trip on the Siletz River.

Edward Boyd, of Halsey, is visiting his cousin, Miss Ella Roy, in this city. He will soon go to Missouri where he will hold the chair of Latin and German in the theological seminary at Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Black will leave tomorrow for Denver, Missouri, where they will visit Mr. Black's aged father. They will also visit Mrs. Black's relatives in Kansas and expect to be gone several weeks.

Ray & Stoner have installed their feed store in the Iron Clad Building, which has been remodeled for the purpose. Their new location is much more attractive and convenient than the one which they formerly occupied.

George Scott returned from Buena Vista yesterday, where he has been camping with his family in the hop fields. The severe illness of his partner, Willis Simonton, made it necessary for him to come back and take charge of their store.

C. L. Starr was in Dallas, Sunday, returning to Salem the same day. This week he will be in Ashland, assisting in the preparations for the opening of the normal school. When he returns from that place he will move his home from Dallas to Salem, so that his mother can be with him.

The amusement lovers of Dallas and vicinity will have the opportunity, Thursday evening, September 5th, of witnessing the dramatization of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's masterpiece—"Uncle Tom's Cabin," given under the management of John F. Stowe, a nephew of the celebrated authoress.

A. M. Trent returned Friday from an extended visit in the East, during which he stopped for some time at his former home in Morristown, Tennessee, and also spent a short time at the Jamestown Exposition. He says that his residence in Oregon has forever destroyed the charm that Tennessee once held for him, and that after spending a short time in that state during the most sweltering days of the summer, he was entirely cured of any dreams he had cherished in his memory as to the quality of the climate there in comparison with our own state. The Jamestown Exposition, he adds, was an utter failure as compared with the Lewis and Clark Centennial, and even the people of Virginia were disappointed in it.

A. N. Halleck, of Monmouth, was a Dallas visitor today.

Earl Wisecarver visited his parents in McMinnville, Sunday.

George and Louis Gerlinger went to Portland, today, on business.

Gilbert Tyson, a former Falls City merchant, and Miss Nelle Hampton, of Eugene, will be married at the home of the bride's mother in the latter city tomorrow. Mr. Tyson is employed as a bookkeeper by the Columbia River Packers' Association. His bride-to-be is a daughter of one of Eugene's prominent and wealthy families.

Hop picking is well under way and in consequence life in the town is for a season become rather dull and uneventful, since the currents of interest and excitement have been temporarily diverted from their customary channels. The majority of the hop raisers in this vicinity are picking their hops this season, although a few will allow their hops to stand unharvested.

The Colosseum Skating Rink opened its winter season Saturday evening, with over a hundred pairs of skates out and a large throng of onlookers in the galleries. Stockwell's band furnished the music, and from 7.30 to 10 o'clock the merry crowd of skaters enjoyed the session to the utmost. At present the rink will be open only on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Later in the season, however, when permanent arrangements for music have been made, the doors will be open every evening.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.
