A Cheap Boast.

That was a cheap boast made by Manager DeVarney, of the Home Telephone Company, that in driving his automobile from Dallas to Salem in 37 minutes, he beat the record of Bert Dennis by one minute. Cheap for the reason that Mr. Dennis has never made, nor has he ever claimed to have made, the run in 38 minutes. His offer of $100 to Mr. Dennis to "repeat" the 38-minute run is cheaper still. Mr. Dennis says he is not in the racing business and has no desire to beat anyone's record, his only concern being to run his machine in a decent and careful manner that will insure the safety of his passengers and win the respect and good-will of the farmers living along the road between Dallas and Salem. It is evident that DeVarney is seeking a little notoriety, or has rushed into print on the strength of a "fill" given him by some person who desired to have a little fun at his expense.

TRAVEL SUCCEEDS RICE

President Ressler Complimented Upon Fine Showing Made by Monmouth Normal.

At a meeting of the State Normal Regents, held in Salem last week, L. R. Traver, formerly superintendent of the Pendleton city schools, was elected principal of the training school at Monmouth, to succeed C. A. Rice, resigned. Professor Traver ranks as one of the strongest men in educational work in Oregon.

President Ressler was called upon for a statement of the financial condition of the Monmouth school. He said the friends of the school had pledged $6000 and they would receive from the Monmouth school district from $3000 to $3500 a year. They had levied five mills additional taxes, which would make $2000 more. Upon his showing President Ressler made it appear that the Monmouth school was well provided with funds. August 22, he had deposited $3000 with the board, and last week he offered another check for $1600.

In other years the school had received from tuition $4000 to $4700. Counting $4750 from the district and $4000 from tuition, he said the friends of the school had raised $6000 in the way of donation. He said to do his best, he had cut his estimate from $19,400 to $14,000.

The favorable showing made by Monmouth was commented on by several of the regents and President Ressler was complimented. The action of the executive committee of August 22, and the tenders made by President Ressler, offering $6000 as a donation were accepted and approved.
