The work of painting the steel bridge across the Willamette river has been completed and that thoroughfare now looks very handsome and respectable as a consequence. The counties interested got a thorough piece of work, there being not an inch of the steel work on the bridge that has not received a good coat of paint. The wooden railings have been painted white and this with the red of the steel work makes the structure "loom up" in fine style.—Salem Statesman.

GREATEST STOCK OF MERCHANDISE IN WESTERN OREGON

To give you an idea of the size of our store, we give the following comparison:

If all the stocks of groceries, hardware, drygoods and furniture in the city of Dallas were combined our stock would more than cover. If the five floors of our store were put on one floor, it would cover a space 40 feet wide and 820 feet long, or more than as long as two blocks in the city of Dallas. To buy for a store of this size, we must buy in enormous quantities. We buy direct from the factories and in such large quantities that we get the lowest jobbers' prices. Therefore we can sell for what our competitors pay, and still make our profit. We advertise no prices, but guarantee to duplicate any prices given by our competitors. Don't forget our great SATURDAY SURPRISE SALES. They mean dollars to you every time you come.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING

Miss Dora Roy Becomes the Bride of Mr. Harrison Barendrick, of Portland.

A pretty Autumn wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roy, Sunday, October 6, 1907, at noon, when their sister, Miss Dora Roy became the bride of Mr. Harrison Barendrick. Only a few relatives and intimate friends of the young couple were present to witness the ceremony.

The house was prettily decorated with white clematis and Autumn leaves and presented a most attractive appearance. Just before the ceremony Miss Ella Roy, a sister of the bride, sang "Because I Love You." Professor William Caldwell then took his place at the piano, and to the inspiring strains of "Lohengrin," the young couple entered the parlor and stood under a wedding arch of white clematis, while the Rev. D. M. Metzger pronounced the words that made them husband and wife. The bride was tastefully attired in cream French serge. After the ceremony and congratulations, light refreshments were served. Many beautiful presents were received.

Mr. Barendrick was a former popular student of Dallas College, and is now attending a medical college in Portland. He is an honorable, worthy young man, and has a host of friends. His bride was also a Dallas College student, and has recently taught in the public schools of Polk county with great success. Her many friends hold her in the highest esteem for her amiable and winsome ways. Mr. and Mrs. Barendrick left on the afternoon train for Portland, where they will begin housekeeping. They have the best wishes of all for a long and happy life.
