NEWS OF COUNTY TOWNS.

BALLSTON.

Thomas Woodley has been severely ill.

Alfred Griffith, of Dallas, was a Ballston visitor Saturday.

Rev. Stuart, our former pastor has been sent here for another year.

Miss Orpha Shipley, of Monmouth, visited relatives and friends here last week.

Our school is progressing nicely with Miss Foster and Mr. Dunton as teachers.

Mrs. Jesse Newbill is visiting at the home of her son Tom in Portland.

Mrs. Lillie Bowman has returned to her home in Eastern Oregon after a two weeks' visit with relatives here.

N. M. Conner, who has been quite sick, has gone to Portland for treatment.

C. D. Nairn shipped a car of Shade-land Challenge oats to the Portland Seed Company last week.

Two wood saws have been buzzing in this town the past week. Ballston is as well supplied with winter fuel as any town in the valley, the wood being mostly oak and ash.

F. W. Royal and Charles Spagle came up from Bertha, Saturday night, to look after their interests in Ballston. Mr. Royal reports things booming along the line of the Portland-Salem road.

Wallace Yates has some fine Franquette and Mayette walnuts and Cynal chestnuts on his place here. The crop was heavy, and the nuts of large size. The Cynal chestnut is an importation from Formosa, and cannot be beaten as a heavy bearer of very fine nuts. [The Observer received samples of these nuts through the kindness of Mr. Yates, Tuesday. We can truthfully say that they are the finest specimens of their kind we have ever seen. Oregon needs no better advertisement as a nut-growing state than the product of Mr. Yates' trees.—Ed.]

BUELL.

Jim Myer was through here this week.

Claude Meador and his mother are visiting relatives in Portland.

A party was held at the home of Mr. Miller and all report a good time.

Stanley Bennett made a trip to Dolph, Saturday, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Jones, of Harmony, were visiting relatives here Sunday.

BUENA VISTA.

Elmer Nash was a visitor in Salem, Saturday.

A. J. Richardson was a visitor in Salem, Monday.

Commodore Wells and family were in Albany, Friday.

Mr. South has moved into town to send his children to school.

The sheepmen of this vicinity have been busy of late killing dogs.

Nelson Anderson made a business visit to Independence, Saturday.

Miss Edna Wells, of Albany, is visiting her parents in Buena Vista.

Elmer Nash has hired a professional candy maker to work in his store.

Mrs. Ralph Hall left Sunday for Portland, where she will visit relatives.

Messrs. Knighten and Tyler have recently added fresh coats of paint to their residences.

Harley Prather has gone to Salem to attend business college. He is naturally adapted to that line of work, and we wish him success.

Herman Prather, who is attending the O. A. C., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Prather, Sunday. Herman is playing in two bands, which speaks well for his talent.

EOLA.

Ed Mitty has rented the farming land of G. W. Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Ferguson visited at Independence, Friday.

T. C. Gosser has sold his farm to Squire Johnson, of Salem.

Clifford Brunk is attending the Staley Business college in Salem.

Pryer and Riley Robertson have rented O. G. Savage's farming land.

R. Brunk and family visited at the home of his brother, H. D. Brunk, in Independence, last week.

Mrs. Grover Farmer has returned to her home in Salem after several weeks visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. Stewart.

H. B. Brophy has been having a great many calls lately for goats. Mr. Brophy's goats are all registered, and are all extra fine.

Our school has a daily attendance of 25 now, and prospects of several more. All the grades from the primary to the ninth are represented.

Miss Beale Foster, of West Salem, visited friends in Eola last week. Miss Foster is the teacher at West Salem and reports a very interesting school of 42 pupils.

Our new pastor, the Rev. Walker, was given a warm welcome Sunday night. He preached a splendid sermon. He will preach here next Sunday evening at 7:30.

Mrs. Jessie Bennett, of Shelton, Washington, has returned to her home after an extended visit with her parents. Her father, T. C. Gosser, accompanied her as far as Portland.

Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, accompanied by Mrs. W. P. Lord and her son, State Printer W. S. Duniway, drove out from Salem this week and visited in the Eola neighborhood. Mrs. Duniway taught school at Eola in 1883. Breeze Gibson and other shining lights of the neighborhood were her pupils. It was at the home of a Mr. Ingalls on the Eola hills that Miss Abigail Scott first met B. C. Duniway, and their marriage took place a short time afterward. Mrs. Duniway greatly enjoyed her visit to the scenes of her girlhood.

FALLS CITY.

J. C. Talbott was a business visitor in Portland last week.

Sheriff John Grant, of Dallas, was a Falls City visitor, Saturday.

Misses Gertrude and Etta Waters were visitors in Dallas, Saturday afternoon.

Mayor S. H. Tetherow, who has been on his farm near Monmouth for the past week, returned home Saturday.

C. S. Easterday, of Fairberry, Nebraska, contractor for the Easterday Bridge Co., was in the city Friday on business concerning the construction of the new steel bridge.

F. J. Cobb, of Cadillac, Michigan, a member of the firm of Mitchell & Cobb who own a big acreage of timber around here, is in Falls City this week, looking after the interests of his firm.

H. Fugitt expects to have his new hotel open to the public by the first of next week. It is one of the most up-to-date hotels in this part of the state.

The dance given at Wagner's Hall last Saturday night was an enjoyable affair. The Falls City orchestra furnished the music.

HARMONY.

Mrs. Coy has returned to her home in Dallas.

Miss Leah Syron now has employment in Sheridan.

Miss Madie Blair spent Sunday night at the McLean home.

The fish man did excellent business in this community Monday.

Harry Hinshaw and Rainey Blair are enjoying an outing at the coast.

Our school commenced with an attendance of thirty-eight and Miss Geneva Miller as teacher.

The Harmony Literary Society was organized last Saturday evening and meetings will be held every two weeks on Tuesday night.

There will be a box supper and program at the Harmony School, November 9. All are invited to come and bring boxes. The following program will be rendered: Song, by ten children; Recitation, May Strickler; Recitation, Velna Blair; Solo, Janie Guttery; Recitation, Georgia Goldsmith; Japanese drill, seven girls; Duet, Cora McLean and Della Hicks; Paper, Editor Byron Maine; Debate, Resolved: The country boy is greener in town than the city boy in the country. Affirmative, Byron Maine, Mrs. Wanless; Negative, Miss Miller, Rainey Blair. Last but not least, the selling of the baskets.

INDEPENDENCE.

W. A. Messner made a trip to Portland and Vancouver this week.

Mrs. J. S. Bohannon is visiting her daughter, Bertha, in Portland.

Dr. Miller, of Pennsylvania, is visiting his old friend, J. L. Hanna.

Walter Lyon, a former editor of the West Side, visited here this week.

Mrs. J. D. Whiteaker and Mrs. S. Hays were Portland visitors this week.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Dickinson and Mrs. Perry Dickinson visited in Salem, Thursday.

The family of J. M. Stark left for Eugene this week, where they will make their home.

The women of the Methodist Church have commenced preparations for their annual chrysanthemum fair.

Mrs. Dickey, of Seio, whose husband recently died, is making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Ella Irvine.

Mrs. Ralston, wife of Editor Ralston of the West Side, and little daughter

THE CAR FAMINE.

BY DEAN COLLINS.

Oh, the long and weary shortage! Short of cars, but long of season! While the owner of the sawmills Waited for the cars that came not. Ever higher, higher, higher Piled the lumber 'round their saw-mills!

Ever shorter, shorter, shorter Grew the lead in their blue pencils. While they cancelled unfilled orders. Scarcely from the silent office Could the millmen find a passage; Groping 'mid the piles of lumber, Threading through the unshipped timbers.

'Til they stood among the milkweeds Waving o'er the sleeping railroads; Saw the silent rails beneath them Vanishing into the distance. Every day they came and stood there; Month by month they stood and waited, Bowed their heads among the milk-weeds.

To the rusted rails beneath them, Listened for the faint vibrations Of a string of "flats" approaching; But no sound disturbed the silence, Save the soft and gentle rustle. Of the wind among the milkweeds. Oh, the pangs of disappointment! Oh, the anguish of the millmen And congestion of the market! Ever thinner, thinner, thinner Grew their little rolls of greenbacks. As they paid the men who labored, Making lumber that they sold not. Sawing timbers that they shipped not. And across the growing milkweeds And the lumber-crowded sidings, Rang their cry of lamentation: Give us cars, O Uncle Edward! Give us cars to ship our lumber! Cars, James J., in mercy give us! Handcars, Pullmans, give us some-thing.

Wherewith we may ship our lumber! But no sound was wafted backward, Save a faint and feeble echo, Saying weakly, "ship our lumber."

left this week for South Dakota to visit relatives.

Dr. Vaughn, who recently purchased Dr. Nehrbas' dental office, has sold to Dr. Dugane, a recent graduate from the Portland Dental College.

MONMOUTH.

Mrs. Charles Herron was a visitor in Salem last week.

What will the hunters do when they have killed all the pheasants? They are complaining of the birds being scarce now.

Fred Huber has sold the old Mac Waller place to Mrs. Mary Coates for $1500. He has also sold the Hoskinson place, west of town, to John Walker.

Burris Hastings died at his home in Monmouth, Monday night, aged 76 years. He had been sick for several weeks. He left a wife and a large number of relatives. Mr. Hastings was a good neighbor and was liked by all. Burial took place in the Smith cemetery.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Goode celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary last Friday. The house was filled to overflowing with guests. A merry evening was spent, and a mock wedding ceremony was pronounced by Mrs. M. J. Munaw. A beautiful China set was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Goode.

PEDEE HILLS.

Claud Lewis was in the hills the first of the week, buying stock.

Frank Woods and Albert Eschricht have finished their residence on their hill ranch.

B. Pickens is confined to his bed by an attack of rheumatism. Dr. Bollman, of Dallas, is waiting on him.

Mr. Fleecer' representing the Corvallis creamery, was around this week establishing the winter route for the cream wagon.

Sunday baseball seems to be more of a drawing card than the Sunday school. Well, we believe in a survival of the fittest, so give us more ball, boys.

WILL SHOW FINE BIRDS

Polk County Poultry Raisers Make Active Preparations For Annual Exhibit.

At its meeting, Saturday night, the executive committee of the Polk County Poultry Raisers' Association fixed the dates of the annual poultry show for December 26, 27 and 28. The show will be held in the implement room of Ralph Adams' new store building, on the corner of Main and Washington streets. This building is well lighted and exhibitors will be able to display their fowls to the best possible advantage, while the convenience of the location will be appreciated by all who desire to attend the show.

A catalogue containing the regulations governing the exhibits will be published and may be secured by all who are interested in poultry raising. A large list of special prizes will be offered in addition to the regular cash prizes, and it is believed that these will be a great incentive to exhibitors. Elmer Dixon, of Oregon City, who is considered to be among the best poultry authorities on this coast, will act as judge.
