The Dallas handle factory is turning out from 20 to 25 dozen handles daily. Manager Hoff is preparing to install a bracket lathe for the manufacture of telephone brackets and other small fixtures from bolts that are not suitable for first-class handles. With this machine in operation, there will be practically no waste of material in the factory.

Leon Elder was over from Salem for a few hours' visit, Wednesday. He is employed on Engine No. 1 of the Dallas & Falls City railroad, which is now in use in the construction of the electric railway between Portland and Salem. He says that the line will be completed from Salem into Tualatin by tomorrow night, and that the ultimate completion of the entire line will be a matter of only a short time. John Bewley, Frank Riggs and Will Paul, all of Dallas, are employed in the construction of the new road.

IN SOCIAL REALM

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lane, Jr., Entertain Friends at Halloween Party.

One of the most enjoyable events of the week was the Halloween party given on Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lane, Jr.

At the entrance of the hallway stood a white form with red gleaming eyes and wide grinning mouth. The guests were admitted by a ghostly figure who silently pointed to the stairway, where they were met by an old witch in customary garb and carrying a broom.

The evening was merrily spent with games and music until 11:30, when a delicious Halloween luncheon with favors consisting of real four-leaf clover, was served.

The invited guests were: Misses Frankie Hayter, Ethel Gwinn, Alice Grant, Genevieve Aldrich, Bertha Collins, Leta Grant; Messrs. William Caldwell, Arthur Phelps, Verne Launer, Louis Carter, Fred Toner and Frank Kersey.

The Brooks shooting gallery was opened for the winter season Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Loughary, of Luckiamute, are visiting at the home of their son, Hon. U. S. Loughary.

U. S. Grant, of Dallas, and James Riddell, of Monmouth, have been elected directors of the American Angora Goat Breeders' Association.

Dr. Mark Hayter will be in Portland the first four days of next week, where he will help conduct the examination of students desiring to engage in the practice of dentistry. His office will be closed during his absence.

The officers of the city should enforce the nuisance ordinance against the careless persons who make a practice of throwing waste paper on the sidewalks and in the street in front of the postoffice. Court street is already littered from Main to Church street with this trash. The street will be a disgrace to the city if the practice is not stopped soon.

Kerslake & White announce that the first masked skating carnival of the season will be held in the Colosseum rink on Thursday evening, November 15. The carnival last winter was a great success, and an effort will be made to render the coming event even more enjoyable. Excellent music will be furnished, and an abundance of good skates will be on hand. The success of the carnival will be limited only by the ingenuity of those choosing to mask. If as much interest is shown in the competition for prizes as was exhibited last year, the carnival will be one of the most enjoyable events of the winter.

To do the family washing at home. When you figure up the cost of water, soap, starch, extra fire and time, and most of all the mess and trouble that it makes, and compare it with our price of 6 cents a pound, washed, starched and dried and 25 cents a dozen for flat pieces, you will see that you can't afford to wash at home.
