MERRY HALLOWEEN PARTIES

Young People of Dallas Keep Vigil of All Saints' Day Last Thursday.

Miss Ruth VanOrsdal entertained a company of about thirty-five of her young friends at the home of her parents, Thursday evening, with one of the most elaborate Hallow'een parties that has ever been given in Dallas.

The rooms upstairs and down were richly decorated in evergreens and autumn leaves, while in every room two or three big jack-o-lanterns glowed at the guests with jovial effluence. A black-robed spook greeted them at the door with a clammy handshake and half a dozen ghosts, swathed in white, and stationed at various points on the hall stairs, directed them silently to an upper room where they relieved themselves of hats and wraps.

The major part of the evening was spent in Halloween games, during which ghosts and goblins kept the more timid guests in an incessant flurry of excitement with their sepulchral voices and the dismal clanking of chains, and an enchantress in the parlor dealt out fortunes that were sometimes confirmed and sometimes confuted by a witch who ran opposition in a room upstairs. Miss Opal Mc-Devitt added to the many pleasures of the evening by several instrumental and vocal solos.

After an elegant luncheon had been served the guests amused themselves by turning down the lights and telling ghost stories until the striking of the clock warned them that Halloween had ended.

Those present were: Misses Edna Hall, Frances Byers, Emroy Mc-Devitt, Ada Ostfeld, Emma Dempsey, Eula Phillips, Vera Cosper, Nola Coad, Frankie Hayter, Georgia Martin, Almeda Fuller, Jennie Muscott, Dessa Ridgeway, Flora McCallon, Maud Robertson, Anna Stafrin, Olive Smith, Lena Byers, Opal McDevitt, Etta Phillips, Roberta McCallon; Messrs.
John Simonton, August Risser, Claude Simson, Harry Byers, Lelf Finseth, Max Hamilton, Chauncey Crider, Elmer Streyer, Irwin Cone, Vernie Compton, Carl Fenton, Dean Collins, Gilman Nunn and Walter Muir.

A pleasant Halloween party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
G. L. Hawkins, Thursday night. In both decoration and entertainment, the young men who gave the party made every effort to produce the most weird and unusual effects possible, and they succeeded perfectly.

After various games had been indulged in, luncheon was served in two courses. The first was a bogus banquet to whet the appetite of the guests, and the second a most delicious spread consisting of all kinds of dainties appropriate to the season.

Among those present at this entertainment were: Mr. and Mrs. G. L.
Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Soehren, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Guy, Mr. and Mrs.
Fred West, Mrs. W. R. Ellis; Misses Caroline Burch, Ollie Howe, Olive Smith, Jessie Pugh, Effie Brown, Fannie Dempsey, Ora Collins, Ednelle Collins, Evangeline Hart, Maude Hart, Nora Robertson, Mina Hughes, Myrtle DeHaven, Phoebe Lamberson; Messrs. Harry Gaynor, Wes Elliott, C. D. Chorpening, R. E. Williams, R. B. Hill and W. I. Ford.

Halloween was celebrated by the young people of the Christian Church, in a most appropriate manner, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Seymour, Thursday evening. The guests were welcomed into rooms weidly decorated with autumn leaves and jack-o-lanterns, by a host of uncanny sprites.
They were then brought into the presence of a Hindoo philosopher, who told their past, present and future in a most blood-curdling manner.

After this they were seated and each one requested to relate his or her "experience" in earning money for the church organ fund. The lights were turned out at the end of their "experience" session, and the evening's celebration was closed by a series of ghost stories, followed by a midnight banquet.

MARRIED TWENTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Coad celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary by entertaining about seventy of their evening. The house was prettily decorated with autumn leaves, and the delicately shaded lights cast a soft glow over the gay assembly.

After being received by the host and hostess, the guests spent the evening in a delightfully informal way. Vocal solos by Mrs. T. J. Warren, of McMinnville and Mr. F. H. Morrison, a piano solo by Miss Olive Smith, and a reading by Mrs. D. J. Becker were greatly appreciated and added much to the pleasure of the evening. Mrs. W. C.
Cook, of McMinnville, presided at the punch bowl, and at a late hour dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Coad received many beautiful presents appropriate to the anniversary, and were also the recipients of numerous letters of congratula-tion and good-wishes from friends

PRETTY FALL WEDDING

M. A. Ford and Miss Velma Ground Are Married at Bride's Home in Monmouth.

Mr. Marcus Aurelius Ford and Miss Velma Veta Ground were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ground, in Monmouth, Sunday morning, the Rev. E. C.
Wigmore, pastor of the Christian church, officiating.

The parlor was beautifully decorated in white and green, and the room adjoining in red and green. The young couple stood under a large floral arch and while the minister pronounced the words that made them husband and wife. The bride was becomingly gowned in white perline, made over white silk and delicately trimmed with lace. About thirty relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford left on the afternoon train for Portland, where they will make their home. Mr. Ford is a son of Ex-Sheriff and Mrs. J. T. Ford, and is employed as a salesman in the wholesale tobacco house of M. A.
Gunst & Company. His bride is a member of one of Monmouth's prominent families. The many friends of the young couple will wish them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

An English Author Wrote:

"No shade, no shine, no fruit, no flowers, no leaves—November!" Many Americans would add no freedom from catarrh, which is so aggravated during this month that it becomes constantly troublesome. There is abundant proof that catarrh is a constitutional disease. It is related to scrofula and consumption, being one of the wasting diseases. Hood's Sarsaparilla has shown that what is capable of eradicating scrofula, completely cures catarrh, and taken in time prevents consumption. We cannot see how any sufferer can put off taking this medicine, in view of the widely published record of its radical and permanent cures. It is undoubtedly America's Greatest Medicine for America's Greatest Disease—Catarrh.

FIX DATES FOR GAMES

Schedule of Games Arranged for Southern Division of State Basketball League.

Edgar Craven went to Salem, Saturday, to represent Dallas College in a meeting of the Oregon Basketball League, held for the purpose of arranging a schedule of games for the coming season.

The following schedule was drawn up for the southern division of the League, which is composed of Dallas College, Willamette University, Salem Y. M. C. A. and Oregon Agricultural College.

December 13—Y. M. C. A. vs. W. U. at Salem; D. C. vs. O. A. C. at Dallas.

December 20—D. C. vs. W. U. at Dallas; O. A. C. vs. Y. M. C. A. at Salem.

January 10—W. U. vs. Y. M. C. A. at Salem.

January 17—D. C. vs. Y. M. C. A. at Salem; W. U. vs. O. A. C. at Corvallis.

January 24—D. C. vs. W. U. at Salem.

January 31—W. U. vs. O. A. C. at Salem.

February 8—O. A. C. vs. Y. M. C. A. at Corvallis.

February 15—D. C. vs. Y. M. C. A. at Dallas.

February 21—D. C. vs. O. A. C. at Corvallis.

The O. A. C. had no representative at the meeting Saturday, but was, nevertheless, included in the schedule.
Should this college draw out of the league, it is highly probable that the northern and southern divisions will reunite, since Pacific University has already withdrawn from the former.
A move of this kind will result in several material changes in the schedule.

HER DAYS DONE

Mrs. Elizabeth Lawrenson Passes Away at Her Home, Aged 76 Years.

Mrs. Elizabeth Parker Lawrenson died at her home in Dallas, Sunday afternoon, November 3, 1907, aged 76 years, 1 month and 11 days.

Elizabeth Parker was born in Liverpool, England, September 23, 1831, and was married to Thomas Lawrenson, January 28, 1855. They moved with their family to America in 1873, and settled in Iowa. After her husband's death, Mrs. Lawrenson came to Oregon in 1904, and was practically a resident of this city until the time of her death. Of her ten children, six are now living—Margaret Palmer, Fannie Habrink, Lillian, Thomas, William and Arthur Lawrenson.

Mrs. Lawrenson was a woman of many noble qualities, and was greatly beloved by her neighbors and friends.
The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. M. P.
Dixon, pastor of the M. E. Church, will conduct the services. The body will be taken to Albany for burial.

Astoria Laughs at Portland.

The money stringency is laughed at in Astoria. A number of leading business men who enjoy personal acquaintance with Governor Chamberlain and wanted to "jolly" the chief executive got together Saturday and framed a petition asking him to continue the holiday. The petition was inscribed on a large sheet of paper, his portrait was pasted on the lower part, and the signatures of the petitioners written around it. The petition reads as follows:
"Astoria, Nov. 2.—To His Excellency George E. Chamberlain—Dear Sir: In view of the fact that we have had nearly 48 hours of continuous rainfall since April 1 last, and in view of the further fact that the salmon catch this year is only $2,468,000 as against $2,468,050 last year, and also considering the fact that immigration and the birth rate have largely increased Astoria's population this year, but more especially because we would enjoy a holiday, being constitutionally opposed to work, we have the honor to petition your excellency to declare a legal holiday for a period of six months to enable us to stand off our creditors while taking life easy.
"P. S.—We have changed our minds.
Give us a year."
