NEWS OF COUNTY TOWNS.

BUENA VISTA.

Mr. Reynolds left for Portland, Friday.

J. E. Wells was an Independence visitor, Tuesday.

Mrs. E. C. Hall and Clyde Hall are visiting in Portland.

G. C. Bolter made a business trip to Independence, Wednesday.

C. P. Wells made a business trip to Independence, Wednesday.

Marion Witt was in the vicinity of Jefferson last week on business.

The steamboats are now running on the Willamette river above Independence.

W. J. Steele was in Monmouth, Monday, visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McLaughlin made a business trip to Dallas, Wednesday.

An entertainment was given at the Buena Vista schoolhouse Saturday, November 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Troxell will leave soon for Albany, where they will spend the winter.

Mr. Arnold and family will soon leave for Heppner, where they will make their home in future.

EOLA.

The West Salem school will have a Christmas tree.

Born, November 21, to Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Reese, a seven-pound girl.

Arthur Stewart has returned from Tennessee, and will make his future home in Oregon.

Thomas Cromley has arrived from Montana, and will spend the winter with his brother, William Cromley.

William Knower, William Cromley, A. O. Brown and Alfred Brown have had phones installed in their homes.

Owing to the stormy weather, the basket social which was to be held at Popcorn last Saturday, was postponed until December 7.

Arrangements are being made to have a Christmas tree here on Christmas eve. If work and energy will do it, the committees in charge expect to make it a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mitty arrived here from Wanatchee, Saturday, and will spend the winter with his parents. Mr. Mitty owned a young apple orchard of five acres at Wanatchee, which he sold recently for $5,500. He says that old apple orchards are selling as high as $2,000 an acre at that place. Mr. Mitty intends to continue in the fruit business, and will investigate several fruit sections before locating permanently.

While constructing the new telephone line, A. O. Brown met with a very serious and painful accident. In nailing up an insulator, his hammer glanced and broke the glass. A piece struck him in the eye, cutting through three films. Dr. Fisher, of Salem, is attending him and it is hoped that he will suffer no permanent injury from the accident. Mr. Brown's father also met with an accident, escaping instant death almost by a miracle. One of the men working at the top of the pole dropped a double bit ax and struck the old man upon the head. Fortunately the blow was a glancing one and nothing more than a long and ugly gash resulted from it.

A very enjoyable day was spent at the home of Mrs. O. G. Savage last Monday. Mr. Savage had several geese to be prepared for the Thanksgiving trade, so he proposed to his wife to have a "goose picking," and combine business with pleasure. Mrs. Savage prepared a sumptuous dinner and invited in several of her lady friends. The enjoyment they had will never be forgotten, and they will all have pleasant memories of their first goose picking party. Those present were: Mrs. R. Brunk, Mrs. Jess Chamberlain, Mrs. L. W. Davis, Mrs. John Shaffer, Mrs. T. H. Dunsmore, Mrs. William Antrican, the Rev. and Mrs. Walker and Mrs. B. I. Ferguson.

FALLS CITY.

Mayor Sam Tetherow and wife went to Portland Saturday on a visit to relatives.

Bert Dennis, formerly of Dallas, has opened up one of the most modern confectionery stores in this part of the state in the new Kirkpatrick building.

Ray Masters, who has been here for the past week visiting relatives, returned to Portland Saturday, where he is taking a course in a business college.

Mrs. Kate Muscott, who has been employed as cook at The Tavern since its opening, resigned her position Monday and returned to her home in Dallas.

H. S. Butz, of Dallas, who owns a large orchard near that city, was in town Saturday on business. He was accompanied by his brother, V. P.

FALLS CITY.

Mayor Sam Tetherow and wife went to Portland Saturday on a visit to relatives.

Bert Dennis, formerly of Dallas, has opened up one of the most modern confectionery stores in this part of the state in the new Kirkpatrick building.

Ray Masters, who has been here for the past week visiting relatives, returned to Portland Saturday, where he is taking a course in a business college.

Mrs. Kate Muscott, who has been employed as cook at The Tavern since its opening, resigned her position Monday and returned to her home in Dallas.

H. S. Butz, of Dallas, who owns a large orchard near that city, was in town Saturday on business. He was accompanied by his brother, V. P.

Butz, and a friend, E. F. Smith, of Ohio. Mr. Butz was in this city some time ago looking for a location for a large cherry orchard.

H. S. Calkins is still marketing strawberries and if the weather doesn't change to colder, the probabilities are that he will have strawberries for Christmas dinner.

Mrs. J. S. Paekard, Miss Mabelle Parokard, Mrs. F. B. Spaulding and Miss Lena Morse, of Portland, arrived in this city Monday and will visit at the home of W. T. Grier until after Thanksgiving.

G. A. Griswold received a telegram last week conveying the sad information of the death of his father at Vermontville, Michigan. Mr. Griswold left at once for that place to be in attendance at the funeral.

The steel for the new bridge arrived in town last Friday and was promptly unloaded and hauled to the bridge site. Foreman J. A. Quinn and a large force of experienced workmen will not stop for rain or Sundays, but will push the construction work along with the greatest possible rapidity.

Sunday, November 24, the romantic engagement of Mr. Joseph Floria and Mrs. Lucy Lyons ended in a quiet wedding, the ceremony being performed by Justice of the Peace A. N. Robinson. The peculiarity connected with their marriage is, that they had never seen one another until last Friday, although they had been corresponding with each other for some time. Mr. Floria is an old and highly respected citizen of this community and his bride was a resident of Bellingham, Washington.

INDEPENDENCE.

Miss Bertha Bohannon, of Portland, is visiting her parents.

Edwin Wallace came down from Corvallis and spent Thanksgiving.

The O. C. T. boats are now making the run from Corvallis to Portland.

Mrs. Wallace Huntley has gone to Tacoma for a two weeks' visit with relatives.

Mrs. Julia Douty, of Winlock, Washington, visited here during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Locks, of Salem, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Damon, over Thursday.

Misses Grace Wallace, Lorena Sperring and Mabel Porterfield are home from Mt. Angel for a few days.

Mrs. N. O. Clodfelter and daughter, Miss Mary, of Portland, are visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Moore.

Mrs. Rose McGrath and little daughter, of Portland, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson.

Marion Mix, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Mix, died at the family home, Monday, aged 23 years. He had been ill for some time.

The annual chrysanthemum fair was held Friday evening. The display of flowers was beautiful. An excellent program, including a farce which was exceedingly well played, was rendered. The entertainment netted the ladies a neat sum.

PERRYDALE.

Mrs. P. Lung left last week for an extended visit in Seattle.

Jack Lynn made a business visit to McMinnville, Wednesday.

Mrs. Tyndall, of Tennessee, was a guest at the home of Alph Jones, Monday.

Adolph Neuman and F. McKenny have returned from a pleasure trip to the coast.

Fred Jennings' home-coming Tuesday evening was a happy surprise to his parents.

Mrs. Lawrence, of Lafayette, is visiting at the home of her brother, Anthony Dent.

William Reetz and Henry Richter have returned from an extended stay on their farms near Dallas.

A merry company assembled at the home of Mrs. Parks last Friday and passed a most enjoyable evening.

Among the invited guests at the home of Will Seargent were several from Perrydale. The happy occasion was in honor of the host's birthday.

POLK.

The rainy weather has made plowing easier.

The clerk of the school board took the school census this week.

Many hunters are out daily watching for a chance to bag a few geese.

The Menonite Sunday School is preparing a program for Christmas.

D. D. Peters is putting up about 200 rods of wire fencing on his place south of here.

Prices of hogs are reported to be down to 4 1/2 to 5 cents a pound, which is lower than they have been for several years.

The Smithfield telephone line has been cut at two places over the railroad by the telegraph linemen.

The stork visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Rempel on November 12, and brought them a daughter.

The train ran amuck six telephone lines between here and Dallas last week and considerable damage was done both to the lines and the train.

RICKREALL.

Misses Mary and Josephine Burch are visiting relatives in Albany.

J. R. Casteline, of Portland, is visiting friends in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, of Springfield, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clark.

A crowd of young people from here attended the mask skating carnival at Monmouth, Tuesday night, and all report a pleasant time.

The Masonic social Saturday evening was a very pleasant affair, but the crowd was small, owing to the stormy weather.

E. A. Stenson has gone to Bellingham, Washington, where he will make his future home. Mrs. Stenson will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Orr in Portland, before going to Bellingham to join her husband. They will be greatly missed in our community.

NEED SPECIAL SESSION

Polk County Representative Advocates Immediate Convocation of Oregon Legislature.

Believing that the legal holidays now existing will probably be necessary for the benefit of the banking institutions much longer than is now evident, B. F. Jones, state representative from Polk and Lincoln counties, who is at the Hotel Perkins, advocates the calling by Governor Chamberlain of a special session of the legislature for the purpose of passing a law which would give the governor the power to declare holidays which would effect the banks only.

The legislative body could be assembled at Salem within 24 hours, Mr. Jones says, and in a short time could enact laws which would be of great benefit to the business of the state. In case this was done the business of the state courts could be carried on as before the holiday proclamation of the governor was announced. At the same time the new constitutional provision would make allowances which would make holidays for banks legal as long as the people should desire.—Portland Journal.

Successful Skating Carnival.
Several young men from Dallas attended the mask carnival at T. A. Riggs' skating rink in Monmouth, Tuesday night. The floor, although of soft wood, was in splendid condition, and excellent music was furnished by the Normal Cadet Band. During a short intermission, George Brown, floor manager at the Colosseum rink, entertained the audience by some of his clever trick skating and dancing on rollers. He also gave an exhibition of broad jumping on skates, but was unable to do his prettiest owing to the smallness of the floor. Earl Shultz, who wore a Zouave uniform, won the gentleman's prize for the handsomest costume. It is claimed that over two hundred masks were on the floor. Among those going from Dallas were Verne Johnson, George Brown, Charles Lynn, Peter Greenwood, Hallie and Grover McDonald, Nolle Dimick, George Fuller, Norval Gates, Maurice Dalton, Earl Shultz and Arthur Phelps.
