

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS

Who will permit themselves to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, hangover. Why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. Because it goes to the kidneys, the help they need to perform their work. It has been used, even out of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure your self now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in.

Mr. L. H. Hagan, of 707 West 11th, Pendleton, Ore., says: "I just as enthusiastically endorse Doan's Kidney Pills today as I did nearly three years ago. They relieved me of kidney trouble which had bothered me for a considerable time. There was aching pains across the small of my back and throbbing through my kidneys, which were aggravated by urine which settled in the back and legs and caused an awful lameness. This was my condition when I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy banished the backache and pain through the limbs, regulated the kidney secretions and removed every symptom of the trouble. From that day to this there has been no recurrence, and I give Doan's Kidney Pills all the credit. I consider them to be the best kidney remedy procurable and recommend them whenever the occasion arises."

For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Foster-Williams Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Advice For The Tired Women

Is it a headache, a backache, a sensation of trembling or shaking and uncontrollable nervousness? Something must be wrong with the head or back. The woman naturally says, but all the time the real trouble very often centers in the womanly organs. In nine cases out of ten, the cause of the difficulty is here, and women should take radical treatment for the cure. The local disorder and inflammation of the delicate internal organs of the sex should be treated steadily and systematically.

Dr. Pierce, during a long period of practice, found that a prescription made up of the active medicinal principles of native American roots, extracted by the use of chemically pure glycerine, cured over ninety per cent of such cases. After using this remedy for many years in the private practice he put it up in a form that would make it easily procurable, and it can be had at any store where medicines are handled.

There are not asked to close your eyes to what is in this prescription of Dr. Pierce's. He tells you all about it and puts a label with all the ingredients upon the bottle—they are Lady's Slipper root, Golden Seal root, Black Cohosh root, Cinnamon root, Blue Cohosh root and wild yam root. These various ingredients are all excellent and recommended by various medical authorities. These 5 ingredients, of the famous Medical College, Chicago, sets of Lady Slipper root, "exercises special influence upon nervous conditions depending upon disorders of female organs, relieve pain," etc.

Prof. John King in the American Dispensary, says of Black Cohosh root: "This is a very hot and powerful and useful remedy. It is especially affords for the female system. It is an efficient agent for suppression. It is sometimes painful periods is relieved by other drugs, being of greatest utility in irritable and congestive conditions, characterized by dragging down pains. The same author says of Blue Cohosh that it has enjoyed a well-merited reputation for when used by delicate women it gives tone and vigor to the parts and relieves much pain." Prof. King says "It exercises a powerful influence over the female system and gives tone to the system."

Dr. John F. King, of St. Paul, Minn., says of the chief ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription: "A remedy which invariably acts as a tonic on the female system, and is a condition which makes for normal activity of the entire system, cannot fail to be of great usefulness and of the utmost importance to the general practitioner of medicine."

"In selecting a medicine, a physician which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication of this remedial agent."

Coming from head to toe—that is the condition that afflicts some women at stated periods—headache, dizziness, and pains across the back, a hot and red face and a sore mouth which women are often led to use the opportunity of trying for the cure of these distressing complaints which women's ailments are the result of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—all honest medicine of the world has the largest number of cures to its credit and a deserved popularity which has won for it all over the United States.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness, sick and windy headaches, dizziness, constipation or irregularity of the bowels, loss of appetite, coated tongue, sour stomach, windy belching, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

Persons who are subject to any of these troubles should never be without a box of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets at hand. In proof of their superior qualities, we can probably be said that they are always adopted as a household remedy where the family is well.

One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are cathartic. They regulate, invigorate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels. As a "kitchen pin" to promote digestion, ease the sick headache, relieve the distress arising from over-eating, nothing works out of these little "Pellets." They are safe, unobtrusive, and without any poisonous, acrid or irritating ingredients.

POULTRY WISDOM.

Common Sense Hat Game Drawn From Various Sources.

The only medicine that keeps a flock healthy is a good supply of egg.

Keep the poultry quarters clean and half the battle against disease is won.

Be careful about carrying a large basketful of eggs. The basket may bend enough to crush some of them.

Keep the hens that lay in the fall, when the price of eggs is on the up grade. Brown Leghorns and Rhode Island Reds will do it.

Don't pamper your birds with so many patent foods and medicines. Give more of nature's food and you won't find so many dead ones.

Waxen contain more of the egg producing material than wheat, and hens like them quite as well. Their cost is often only the time spent in gathering them.

Keep a stock handy and in it have all the shells from the egg used. Then when convenient break them up into small pieces and feed to the fowls. Never give whole shells, as they have a tendency to touch the egg during habit.

Water in the chicken yard is an important item. The atmosphere seems to absorb water very fast, and the chickens will drink a great deal. Growing chicks as well as the older fowls often leave their feed to get a drink.

Milk fed in the regular drinking vessels soon sours and is not apt to become unwholesome from the fact that milk takes place as nothing else does. The better plan is to mix the bran or meal with milk and thus insure the birds getting it in its purity.

The beautiful connection that some manufacturing firms are getting out with which to paint the inside of chicken coops to kill ticks and lice may do the work all right, but imagine what it cost means to the chickens to be shut up for the night in such a room.

It need to be considered a foolish performance to count chickens before they were hatched, but a great many never count them after they are hatched, at least not often enough to find out if they are being kept or not. Chickens running at large are exposed to many dangers.

ROBERTINE

The Secret of a Beautiful Face lies in keeping the skin prompt and well-cleansed, just washing is not enough—that only leaves the delicate surface more exposed to the irritation of dust and germs, to insect-like attacks of sun and weather. After washing, apply Robertine and experience its delightful refinement. You will admire the lineless softness it imparts to face, neck and arms. It not only stimulates a radiant glow, but protects the skin from becoming chapped. Prevents burning, sun and freckles.

All over Oregon for the best quality of the world's most famous skin cleanser.
