J. E. Beesley, secretary of the Polk County Poultry Raisers' Association, says that the interest taken in the Poultry Show, which will be held in Dallas on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, is far greater than was at first anticipated by the executive committee of the organization. It was thought that the 200 catalogues issued a short time ago, would be sufficient to supply the demand, but Mr. Beesley reports that that these were exhausted within a week after the time they were issued, and that he is still receiving inquiries from poultrymen in all parts of Oregon, requesting catalogues and information concerning the show.

GET A CALENDAR

Register Your Name at Uglow Clothing House and Receive a Work of Art.

This dainty calendar is worthy of a place in every home in the community, and as it will cost you nothing, there is no reason why you should not have one. They are too valuable and beautiful to be given out indiscriminately, but if you will call at our store any time before December 25 and register your name, we will reserve a copy for you when they are ready for distribution, which will be right after the first of the year. This offer is limited to grown-ups only. We cordially invite you to call and register, and incidentally invite you to inspect our line of Holiday goods.

It is not Economy

To do the family washing at home. When you figure up the cost of water, soap, starch, extra fire and time, and most of all the mess and trouble that it makes, and compare it with our price of 6 cents a pound, washed, starched and dried and 25 cents a dozen for flat pieces, you will see that you can't afford to wash at home.
