

Polk County Observer

J. C. HAYTER, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER. Published Semi-Weekly at $1.50 per Year. Strictly in Advance.

Entered as second-class matter March 1, 1907, at the post office at Dallas, Oregon, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

DALLAS, OREGON, JANUARY 19, 1908. The way to build up Dallas is to patronize Dallas people.

BARELY ON THE MAP.

A subscriber residing in Idaho writes to ask the name of Polk county's State Senator. Bless your soul, brother, Polk county has no State Senator. It used to have one, but was deprived of that official by the grace of Newt Hart and the last Oregon Legislature. Polk has only half of a Senator now, and that half lives in Benton county.

Time was when the county had a Senator and a half. That was in the days when Old Polk was recognized as a factor in the state political game, and was represented in the Legislature by men who made it their business to see that their county was the gainer by addition instead of a loser by subtraction.

Polk County will not be permitted to choose a senator at the coming election. The county is now in a joint district with Benton, and A. J. Johnson, the Corvallis banker and hold-over Senator, will represent both counties until the year 1910. Two years hence, we may possibly be permitted to name the Senator—but not now. Polk county isn't exactly off the political map of Oregon, but it is the next thing to it.

The County Court asks the newspapers of the county to submit bids for publishing the notice of tax sale. The Observer, for one, must decline with thanks. None of the expense of this sale will come out of the county treasury, and we see no reason why we should out our prices and put our skilled workmen and valuable machinery at the disposal of a few people who have been slow in digging up their taxes. When this paper has any good things to hand out, it will give them to its friends and customers, and not to a little bunch of strangers and non-residents, of whom it knows little and cares less. Then, again, the tax sale notice this year is so small that bidding on it would be a good deal like asking the local grocery merchants to submit sealed bids for furnishing five pounds of beans and a peck of potatoes for the editor's household. No, thank you, gentlemen. The Observer does not care to scrap over a bone—especially when the bone has no meat on it. If any paper offers a bid, it will have to be one that needs money worse than this shop needs it.

Judge Coad and Commissioners Riddell and Teal are entitled to much credit for the way they have handled the county's financial affairs in the last year. The low tax levy will be gratefully appreciated by every taxpayer, and yet it has been made sufficiently high to provide for every important public improvement and keep Polk county in the ranks of the progressive counties of Oregon. That's the kind of good work that counts.

Right on top of his cold turn-down by the President in the appointment of a District Attorney, Senator Fulton is censured by the Oregon Labor Federation for allowing a non-union cigar to be named after him. Truly, the troubles of the great are many.

An exchange says that complaints of a scarcity of cars are no longer heard. Sure not. That little $3 raise on lumber put an end to the car shortage at one swipe. The railroads are now complaining that there is nothing to haul.

Hooray for Jonathan!

How Is Your Blood? If you lack strength, are nervous, have no appetite, don't sleep well, get tired easily, your blood is in bad condition. You cannot be strong without pure, rich blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes good, rich blood and keeps it good. Dyspepsia—For six months my system was out of order with dyspepsia and impure blood. Spent lots of money in vain, but Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me. J. O. S. LARSON, Orono, Neb. Had No Appetite—"I was troubled with dyspepsia and had no appetite. I had a faint feeling after eating. My constitution was all run down, but Hood's Sarsaparilla fully relieved me." FLORENCE STOWE, Salsville, Wisconsin. Weakness—"I have the day I heard of Hood's Sarsaparilla, as I had been of extreme weakness after grip, built my husband up, blood-poisoning in our children." Mrs. A. DAWSON, Box 4, Emberville, Pa. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold everywhere. In the usual liquid, or in tablet form called Sarsaparilla, 100 Doses One Dollar. Prepared only by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. B. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicine. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Medicines of Known Composition. By this bold step, Dr. Pierce has shown that he is not afraid to subject them to the light of scientific scrutiny.

Completely does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, liver, kidneys and all catarrhal diseases, wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into its composition. This list is a small book, has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, and is the strongest possible evidence, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicine. One of these books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. B. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicine is made of nothing but natural, medicinal roots of great value, also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, overworked, and ailing persons, and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their systems. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed," our knowledge of the uses of a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians. As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is an efficient remedy for regulating all the woman's functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, and other disorders, relieving, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and brain for the best state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.
