J. C. HAYTER, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER. Published Semi-Weekly at $1.50 per Year. Strictly in Advance.

Entered as second-class matter March 1, 1907, at the post office at Dallas, Oregon, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

DALLAS, OREGON, JANUARY 14, 1908. The way to build up Dallas is to patronize Dallas people.

POLITICAL ADVERTISING.

The Oregon state press association will meet in Portland, January 17 and 18. At that meeting many questions will come up for consideration that vitally affect newspaper interests.

To relieve state papers of this taint and loss of independence, no candidate should be allowed use of the paper with paid matter unless it appears under the head of paid "political advertisement."

The executive committee of the Polk County Mohair Association has completed the preparations for the annual show which is to begin tomorrow.

It was the intention of the management of the Dallas Lumber Company to open its sawmill in this city during the present month, but it now seems rather to favor putting this off until March.

If Heney makes good his threat and backs up his accusation against Senator Fulton with facts, it will damage the latter in this State somewhat as to political prospects.

George Bowles went to Portland yesterday, and will go from that city to Eastern Oregon for an indefinite stay.

How Is Your Blood?

If you lack strength, are nervous, have no appetite, don't sleep well, get tired easily, your blood is in bad condition. You cannot be strong without pure, rich blood.

The mohair industry of the Willamette Valley will be exploited at Dallas, Polk County, by an Angora goat show January 15-17.

The prize list for the Polk County School Childrens' Industrial Fair has been made out and will be made public to the parents and children in every district at an early date.
