The way to build up Dallas is to patronize Dallas people.

CANNERY WILL PAY.

A meeting of the Horticultural Society has been called for tomorrow afternoon to decide definitely whether Dallas is to have a fruit cannery, and if so, to take immediate steps looking to the establishment of this new industry in our city.

The OBSERVER believes there is no enterprise before the citizens of Dallas for consideration that is more worthy of active and substantial support, inasmuch as the founding of this industry in our city would mean the beginning of an era of commercial growth along an entirely new line, the results of which can scarcely be estimated now.

Dallas is located in the center of a district whose soil is unsurpassed for its richness as a fruit land, but the industry of fruit raising is yet barely in its inception. Let a cannery be established, creating at once the demand and the ready market for those products, and a few years will see such a girdle of orchards and small fruit farms encircling our city as we have never dreamed of.

Salem has tried it, and the successful results of its enterprise are manifested in the rapidly widening belts of well-kept orchards along either bank of the Willamette River for miles above and below the city. Where men cultivated one acre of fruit five years ago, they are maintaining ten now, and are forming plans for an even larger addition in future.

Monmouth, our neighbor town, has determined to establish a cannery, and although it has no better support in the form of productive orchards backing it than Dallas has, the men who are engineering the enterprise have (and justly, too) perfect confidence in its ultimate success.

Wherever it has been tried in Oregon, this industry has been successful, and there is no reason why it should not succeed in a locality whose resources are as great as they are in the country lying immediately about our own city.

The law requiring citizens to register before being entitled to vote is a good law and one that will doubtless be retained in Oregon. The law in its present form, however, is troublesome and expensive, and should be amended in at least one important particular. It should be made to provide that after a voter has once registered he shall not be obliged to register again as long as he does not change his place of residence. With the law so amended, it would only be necessary to register new voters and changes of residence. Such additions and changes in two years would be comparatively few in number, and the task of registering them would be light. A change of this kind in the registry law would relieve the County Clerk's office of much unnecessary work, save the voters great trouble and annoyance, and result in a neat saving to the county every two years.

The foothills of Polk county are one of the choicest fruit regions in the world, and are beginning to prove themselves.—Portland Journal.

Farmers Fight Coyotes.

Farmers in various parts of Polk County have organized coyote runs at various times during the past six months, and have succeeded in destroying a large number of these troublesome beasts—and in having plenty of real sport at the same time. In Kings Valley especially the war against the coyote pest is waged with increasing vigor. Mounted on horseback the men drive them with hounds, in much the same way as a fox hunt is conducted, and many of the young hunters are making a fair amount of pocket money from the bounty on the hides.

How Is Your Blood?

If you lack strength, are nervous, have no appetite, don't sleep well, get tired easily, your blood is in bad condition. You cannot be strong without pure, rich blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes good, rich blood and keeps it good.

Dyspepsia—"For six months my system was out of order with dyspepsia and impure blood. Spent lots of money in vain, but Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me." JOS. S. ZAUBA, Genoa, Neb.

Had No Appetite—"I was troubled with dyspepsia and had no appetite. I had a faint feeling after eating. My constitution was all run down, but Hood's Sarsaparilla has fully relieved me." FLORENCE STOWE, Sailderville, Wisconsin.

Weakness—"I bless the day I heard of Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it cured me of extreme weakness after grip, built my husband up after pneumonia, and cured eczema and blood-poisoning in our children." MRS. M. A. DELMARTH, Box 4, Embreeville, Pa.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold everywhere. In the usual liquid, or in tablet form called Sarsatabs. 100 Doses One Dollar. Prepared only by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, rapid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.
