DALLAS DEFEATS EUGENE

Wins Game of Basketball on Skates by a Score of 27 to 4 at Colosseum Rink.

The Dallas skating team defeated the five from Eugene in a game of basketball on the home floor Saturday night, by a score of 27 to 4.

Although a hard game had been expected, the visiting team proved to be no match for the husky Dallas aggregation, either in their playing or in their skill on the roller skates, and the victory was easily in the hands of the home team from the first minute of play. The game was exceedingly rough, and many fouls were called on members of both teams.

Dallas has received and accepted a challenge from the Corvallis team, which claims the state championship, and the game will be played in this city next Saturday night. Corvallis defeated Eugene last Friday by a score of 30 to 5, which fact indicates that they will be nearly evenly matched against the Dallas five, and that the coming game will be fast and closely contested.

The line-up Saturday night was as follows:

Dallas	Eugene
Elder	F Church
Brown	F Apperson
Simonton	C Tingley
Magers	G Beisaw
Morton	G Williams

The Carnation Club gave a pleasant social dance at the Woodman Hall, Saturday night. A fair sized crowd attended, and music for the occasion was furnished by Stockwell's orchestra.

Miss Ella Roy went to Amity yesterday where she will sing in the choir of the Christian Church, during the revival services which the Rev. W. P. Marrs is conducting in that city.

W. J. Keath returned from Portland, Friday. Mrs. Keath will go on from that city to California, for a visit among relatives in Sacramento and San Francisco.

Mrs. H. L. Veazio, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. I. M. Glen, in Eugene, went to Corvallis today to visit her other daughter, Mrs. E. R. Bryson.—Eugene Guard.

Mrs. Julia Courter and daughter, Cecil, of Falls City, were in Dallas, Friday, on their way to Portland where they will make their home in future.

Miss Lydia Campbell has gone to Condon, Oregon, where she will teach school.

EDWIN CADWELL IS DEAD

Highly Respected Citizen of Dallas Passes Away After Brief Illness of Pneumonia.

Edwin Cadwell, one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Dallas, died at his home Friday night, as a result of an attack of congestion of the heart, followed by pneumonia.

The funeral was held at the Methodist Church, Sunday afternoon, and in accordance with the old gentleman's dying wish, the Rev. H. Gould, of Forest Grove, was summoned to Dallas and conducted the final services over the remains of the one to whom he had been a life long friend and adviser. A large crowd attended the funeral and followed the remains to the Oddfellow's cemetery, mutely testifying to the high esteem in which the deceased was held by all who had known him.

Edwin Cadwell was born in Morgan County, Illinois, April 25, 1834, and died in Dallas, January 31, 1908, at the age of 74 years. He spent the earlier part of his life in Illinois, and in his young manhood moved into Iowa, where he resided until the time of his coming to Oregon in 1893. He is survived by his wife and one adopted daughter, Mrs. Willard Siefert, of Portland.

During the fifteen years of his residence in Dallas Mr. Cadwell endeared himself to the people of this city, both young and old, by his genuine kind-heartedness and his rigid integrity. A man of stern and Puritan character, he was possessed of a gentle and spontaneous humor that softened and rounded the rougher outlines of his nature, and acted like a tonic of sunshine upon all who were near him.

School Meeting at Buena Vista.

The next school convention in the series that has been arranged, will be held at Buena Vista next Saturday. The main part of the program will be substantially the same as in all previous meetings. C. L. Hawley will speak on "Agriculture in the School," G. A. Wells on "School Conditions That Should Be Remedied," and Mrs. Anderson on "The School From a Mother's Viewpoint." A short program will be given by the school children of that district, and a luncheon will be served at noon by the women of Buena Vista.

The women of the Christian church will serve a chicken "hot tamale" supper in the basement of the church next Friday evening, February 7 from 5:30 to 7:30. These women have long been noted for their famous chicken pie suppers and this one will include all the good things as usual, the tamales taking the place of the chicken pie. The charge will only be 35 cents. Go and get a dollar supper for 35 cents.

At the meeting of the city council last night it was decided to improve the following streets in Dallas with macadam: Main street between Academy and Washington; Mill and Court streets between Church and Jefferson, and Washington street from Main to Church street. This will insure good and substantial road beds in those portions of the city where the traffic is heaviest and most continuous.

The first rally in the membership campaign that has been inaugurated by the Woodmen of the World, will be held in Falls City tomorrow night. Members from every camp in Polk County will be present, and it is proposed to run a special train from Dallas to Falls City on that occasion, to carry the crowd and from the big rally as conveniently as possible.

Lawrence Aldrich returned from Corvallis, Sunday. Finding that he would be unable to enter any except the sub-Freshman course at this time of the year, he decided to wait until the opening of the Agricultural College next Fall, at which time he will be able to begin in the Freshman course.

Among the teachers from Dallas who attended the school meeting held in Monmouth last Saturday were: Miss Maud Hart, Miss Evangeline Hart, Miss Sadie Lynn, Miss Edna Hayes and Miss Lydia Campbell. The teachers from the Independence and Rickreall schools attended the meeting in a body.

Miss Esther Gates returned Sunday from Portland, where she has been staying with her mother who has been in the St. Vincent hospital for some time for medical treatment. Mrs. Gates is now at the home of her son Louis and will soon be able to return to this city.

It is believed that the number of applicants for certificates in the teachers' examination on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week will be larger than at any previous time.

Miss Josephine Jacobson, a recent arrival from the East, has been employed to teach the West Salem school in the place of Miss Bessie Foster, who was forced to resign on account of illness.

Tom Stockwell went to Portland yesterday for a short business visit.

LEAP YEAR SKATING PARTY

Large Number of Invited Guests Enjoy Evening at Colosseum Rink.

The members of the "Leap Year" skating club entertained a large number of invited guests at a skating party at the Colosseum rink, Friday night, and although the weather was unfavorable, it proved to be one of the most enjoyable parties that has ever been given at the rink.

The hall was decorated in the colors of the club—lavender, purple and white—and each of the incandescents lights was covered by a purple or lavender shade, and the name of the club was displayed in white letters on a purple banner across the eastern balcony.

The members of the club, dressed as "derby girls," took the entire charge of the entertainment, and managed the floor with admirable skill, taking care that, since it was "ladies choice" throughout the evening, as many of the men as possible should be supplied with partners for each "skate" and none of them should be forced to play wallflower.

During the evening puuch was served from a daintily trimmed booth beneath the eastern balcony. The skating session continued far past the regular time for closing the rink, and it was verging close upon 11 o'clock when the merry crowd was summoned from the floor by the order "skates off."

DISCUSS SCHOOL TOPICS

Interesting Meeting of Parents and Teachers Held in Normal School Town.

The school meeting held in Monmouth, Saturday, was better attended than any of the other meetings that have been held in various districts of Polk county this winter.

The forenoon was devoted to the work of the teachers, with a general discussion of methods. Principal L. E. Traver, of the Training Department, had charge of this part of the program.

C. L. Hawley, president of the Polk County School Officers' Association, addressed the meeting in the afternoon on the subject of "Agriculture in the Public Schools," pointing out the value of practical instruction along this line, and urging the advisability of adopting a more thorough course in elementary agriculture in the public school.

In a paper on the "Mother's Duty to the Schools," Mrs. Ira C. Powell showed the necessity of co-operation between teachers and parents, and the need of more careful moral training of the pupils.

Music was furnished by the famous Normal Quartette composed of members of the faculty of the State Normal School at Monmouth.

These conventions which are being held at various times and places in Polk County, are doing an important work in bringing about a closer co-operation of parents, teachers and children both in general school work and in preparations for the big Industrial Fair which is to be held next Fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Siefert returned to their home in Portland yesterday, after having attended the funeral of Mrs. Siefert's father, the late Edwin Cadwell.

Earl Heckart visited at his home in Corvallis over Sunday, returning to Dallas and resuming his work at Dallas College on the day following.

August Rissor has charge of the Falls City Bank this week, during the absence of Walter Williams, who is in Eastern Oregon on business.

J. B. Hutchins, machinist in the Cone sawmill at Black Rook, was a Dallas visitor Saturday.

V. L. Hamilton, of Willamina, was in Dallas yesterday on business.

HOLD UNION SERVICE

Christian Endeavor Societies of Dallas Celebrate 27th Anniversary of Their Organization.

The union services held by the Christian Associations of Dallas at the Evangelical Church, Sunday night, in celebration of the twenty-seventh anniversary of the founding of the Christian Endeavor Society, were attended by a large crowd and the church was filled to overflowing.

The prayer service held in the Sunday School room was conducted by Lauren Matthews, of the Presbyterian association, and the general service which followed in the main hall of the church, was presided over by H. C. Seymour, of the Christian Endeavor of the Christian Church.

During the service the following papers were read: "What the Endeavor Has Done for the Young," by Miss Bessie Young; "What It Has Done for the World," by the Rev. A. C. Corbin; "The Society in the Church," by D. M. Metzger; "Brief History of the Christian Endeavor," by Miss Vera Cosper. Every one of the Christian associations was represented, and the papers read were highly interesting, giving light on several subjects relating to the work of the association which are not generally known, and showing most convincingly its wide and important influence in the world.

The musical portion of the program was excellent. In addition to the congregational singing, which was led by a choir composed of members of every church choir in Dallas, Miss Ethel Gwin sang a beautiful sacred solo, Misses Opal McDevitt and Georgia Martin a duet, and the "German Quartette," of the Evangelical Church, composed of Professors Metzger, Mock, and Dunkelberger and Mr. C. Rissor, gave one of their fine selections.

UTOPIANS ENTERTAIN

Young Women of Dallas College Entertain Members of Philadelphian Society.

A delightful Leap Year party was given at the College Chapel, Friday evening, by the young women of the Utopian Literary Society, in honor of the young men of Dallas College who belong to the Philadelphian Literary Society.

The young women spent the greater part of Friday afternoon preparing the chapel for the entertainment and when their work was finished the large hall was transformed with the most elaborate system of decoration that has ever been used at any of the social functions of Dallas College. Scores of pennants, representing colleges and high schools throughout the United States, were seen in profusion about the room. This lively display of bright colors was supplemented by darker grounds of clustered evergreens. The whole scheme of decoration was most artistic and typical of the spirit of college life.

The earlier part of the evening was passed quickly and merrily with music and various games, and a delicious luncheon was served, after which the floor was cleared for the grand march, which has been invariably a feature of the student receptions since the college was founded.

At a late hour the company was dismissed, and the young women, according to the laws governing Leap Year entertainments, conducted their guests to their several homes.

JUBILEE SINGERS COMING

Colored Company Will Give Entertainment in Dallas Under Auspices of Public School.

Principal R. B. Hill, of the Dallas Public School, reports that he has secured the Dixie Jubilee Singers to give an entertainment at the Woodman Hall, on Monday evening, March 2, for the benefit of the school library.

This Company has sung successfully in Dallas during two seasons, and are in such high favor among the music lovers of this city that their next coming will be eagerly awaited. Mr. Williams, the manager, has informed Professor Hill that the personnel of the company will be the same as it was when they sung in Dallas last April, except for the addition of one more to their number, making the double quartette complete.

Their program will be similar to the ones used in previous entertainments, consisting of both the old plantation songs and negro melodies, and selections from the more classical music. The male quartette will offer its usual excellent program and the ladies' quartette, which has not been a feature of the company until the present season, will add a new element to the high class entertainment offered by the Dixie Jubilee Singers.

Philadelphians Elect Officers.

At the regular meeting of the Philadelphia Literary Society the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing semester: E. E. Streyer, president; Roscoe Ballantyne, vice-president; A. Vick, secretary; Lew Ballantyne, treasurer; V. O. Launer, critic; Clarence Reynolds, editor. The newly elected officers will be installed at the next regular meeting by Elmer Barnhart, the retiring president. At the meeting last night the date for the open program was fixed for the first Monday in March.

Mrs. Frank Coates, formerly Miss Evangeline Kirkpatrick, and Misses Crystal and Constance Hyland, of Portland, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kirkpatrick over Sunday. Mrs. Coates has been living in Lewiston, Idaho, since her marriage but is now on her way to Los Angeles for a visit before joining her husband at their new home in Fresno.

The Rev. A. A. Winter, formerly pastor of the Evangelical Church in Dallas, returned to his home in Portland, Friday, after a brief visit among friends in this city, during which he conducted the union services held at the Methodist Church, Thursday night, by the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations of Dallas College.

If you suffer with indigestion, constipation, feel mean and cross, no strength or appetite, your system is unhealthy. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes the system strong and healthy. 35c, Tea or Tablets. Belt & Cherrington.

The Rev. H. Gould, pastor of the Methodist Church in Forest Grove, and formerly minister for the same denomination in Dallas, returned to his home yesterday having come to this city to preach the funeral of his friend, the late E. Cadwell.

Oscar Hayter acted as judge in the preliminary oratorical contest in Monmouth, Friday night, where the representative from the Oregon State Normal School was selected for the State Contest.

Miss Marguerite Wilson, of Salem, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sweeney, Friday and Saturday.
